COLLEGE NEWS

Vol. 1. No. 5
WELLESLEY, MASS., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1901.
Price 5 Cents.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Every college hall and cottage, on and off the campus, indulged in some sort of a unique entertainment for the evening last week. Student Government was generous and from seven until ten thirty reasonable noise might be heard in all the halls. It was expected. At nearly all the homes some sort of a dramatic production was furnished for the evening's entertainment.

The Berry Hallians presented Mouse Trap and Box and Cox by Howells with the following casts. Mouse Trap—Lacy Stackhouse, Grover Petrie; Box and Cox—Box, Amanda Stocking; Cox, Lacy Moody.

"The faculty," as Egypt, Position was presented, followed by ghost stories told around the open fireplace. Following is the cast presenting the play: Chas equivalents to Billboard in Easleigh's Room. A thermometer; full-size in Mrs. David; Steve Hudson, Jules McCandlish; Ned Bar-

leigh, Christine Brinkman; Jack Randolph, Jessie Marvin; Shreedy, Blanche Emmons. At the following Thomas Bradly presented The Flying Wedge. Tom Hurlburt, Amy Ford; Percy Suydam, Florence Petrie; Arthur Chester, Winfield Pilch; Kate Chester, Sadie Barrett; Nellie Suydam, Caroline Early; Miss Suydam, Rosalie Lee; Bridget, Edith Batt.

At Flake, Waban, and Simpson cottages games, charades, sheet dances and other impromptu celebrations furnished entertainment for the evening.

At College Hall the entertainment for the evening was in the hands of a committee of which Miss Berry Wood was chairman. A Halloween dance was given in the Gym followed by the pantomime The Robber's Daughter from the Bab Ballads. Miss Berry Wood was reader; the following people being the 'shadow effects.' Priest, Mac Rice; Alice Brown, Mary Fooks; Facker Brown, Mary Story; Foster, Nancy McColl; mistaking young Robber, Ruth Crosby; Mother of Alice, Elise Newton.

The foregoing program was part, not all, of Halloween entertainment at College Hall. By dinner time the hungry sophomores had made raids on several freshmen spreaders and were working hard for an over-abundant supply of food. As one feast after another vanished "before their eyes" the undaunted freshmen prepared others, but the appetite of the sophomore was equal to the occasion and eventually the freshmen wended their way to the Tea Room for their banquet. The freshmen over attending the Gym entertainment but the overpowering and persistent cordiality of the sophomores soon caused their reluctance to vanish. There was a cheerful amount of noise in the building all the evening but at 10:30 everything was over. The freshmen displayed a commendable amount of good-nature, and the sophomores an equal amount of good spirits. Everybody had a good time.

"The freshmen of College Hall celebrated Hallowe'en by giving the sophomores a special treat. Through some mistake the sophomores did not receive the invitation till too late to accept, and the idea of the evening was some what marred by their absence. The freshmen knowing that they would see something of the sophomores later in the evening, bore up bravely under the disappointment.

Under the supervision of Miss Chase the following supper was served: stuffed turkeys, cranberry sauce, lobster salad, French rolls, ice-cream, mince and pumpkin pies, cider and cake. Nuts, fruit and candy were sent over from Natick direct to the Tea Room. The spread had been planned weeks before and eagerly looked forward to. Freshmen and sophomores were present, but none of the girls wished to miss the entretainment in the gymnasium and as Miss Collins and Miss Nelson were to play important roles in the performance, it was necessary to leave the Tea Room rather early.

Promptly at ten minutes of eight the freshmen got into the carriages waiting to take them to College Hall. After all were safely packed into the carriages, three lusty cheers were given for the Tea Room. Arrived at College Hall, they chose partners for the grand march which was an especial feature of the evening, and had been carefully rehearsed. Forming in the centre the freshmen marched into the gymnasium and after executing several figures they broke up with great satisfaction.

The Graduate Students this year Gertrude Bigelow, '03; E. H. Burnett, '01; M. G. Caldwell, '00; Mary Capen, '98; Bernice March, '98; Maud Morrell, '00; J. Nelson (Ohio Wesleyan University), Mrs. H. M. Neaverson, J. M. Palmer (University of Michigan), E. D. Te Pau, R. M. C. Smith, '01; Alice B. Stratton (Carleton College, Minnesota), Elizabeth B. Thomas (Western and Union (Olein) Maud Thompson, '01; May Thompson (University of Washington), A. C. Wetherbee, '92; Mabel Woodbury, '92; Theodosia Raines (Kirkil College, Mo.); Frances E. C. '94; Mary Haskell, '97; Eliza J. Newkirk, '00; and Elsie Stern, '96. The President of the Graduate Club is Mary C. Smith, '01.

ALUMN/E NOTES.

Henrietta Myrick, '92, who is working with Mrs. Hunt, the famous temperance worker, spent last Sunday in Wellesley.

Mrs. Albert Emerson Haddock of Concord, N. H., has just been announced. The date of the wedding is as yet undeclared.

Elizabeth Fernnald, '01, is teaching in the Hillside School, Norwalk, Conn.

Mary Rockwell, 1900, spent Sunday at College as the guest of Julia Wells, '02. Miss Rockwell has just returned from a prolonged visit abroad.

Mrs. Prince and Mary Haskell, '97, were in Wellesley on Saturday, having recently returned from a trip abroad.

Myra Marshall, '01, is teaching French, German and English near Boston.

Florence Bailey, '00, was a guest at Freeman Cottage, during the Halloween festivities.

Clara Stanwood, '94, was a correspond-dent for the New York Commercial Journal at the Pan-American Exposition last summer.

Elsa Waldron, '00, has announced her engagement to Mr. A. E. Norris of Melrose, Mass.

Deylina Calkins, formerly of '97 is Head of the Employment Department in the Women's Educational and Industrial Union in Boston.

Marie Dutch, 1900, is teaching English and Greek in the High School at Putnam, Conn.

Grace Townsend, '96, is teaching in a private school at Arlington Heights, Mass.

Mrs. Flora Krum Harding, '95, has moved to Grand Rapids, Mich. to Arlington, D. C., where her address is 2025 O Street.

Rowena Weakly, '01, is teaching in Science Hill School, Shelbyville, Ky.

Julia Berryman, '01, is teaching in Mrs. Hartor's School, Canton, Ohio.

Margaret Mills, '01, is teaching in St. Agnes School, Albany, N. Y.

Clara Shaw, '97, is Assistant Housekeeper in Green Hall, Chicago University.

Anna W. Beecher, '01, is teaching in the Normal College at Ypsilanti, Mich.

Maud Keller, '92, who has been Dean of Women in Michigan Agricultural College for four years, is this year in residence at Columbia University.

Further—

The private dining-room at College Hall, was the scene of an innig lunch last Saturday noon, the occasion being an astromonographical luncheon given by the Sun and Moon (Franz Reischek and Franklin Miller) to seven stars of their department, two comets, two satellites and the central sun.

The two comets were Mary Haskell, '07, and Miss Prince, '09-10; the satellites, Marion Fenton and Margaret Little; the seven stars, the Misses Manwaring, Godard, Harrington, Babcock, Lorenzen, Klingenbagen, Schoppe, all in 1902. The Central Sun was Miss Hazard. The whole affair was exceedingly unique and merry. The place cards bore German quotations, characteristic of the respective guests. The conversations was in German and was marked by brilliant repartee between the guests and hostesses. During luncheon there were, mostly from Bayreuth, were presented to the guests, each bearing quotations characteristic of the receiver. A Box of Monkeys, presented by an acknowledged all-star cast (and preceded by a song recital) was the entertainment provided by the Barnswallows on last Saturday night, November second. Miss Syl Baker and Miss Polly Storm as Edward Ralston and Channcey Ogletorpe respectively, made up the realistic men and were credit to their clothes. Miss Bessie Manwaring as Mrs. Ondego Jones was a most humorous and effective elderly lady. Miss Anna Vall as the English girl and Miss Bessy McCrllish as the American product were excellent and made the most of the contrast between their respective roles. Following is the complete cast:

Edward Ralston—a promising young American, half owner of the Stora Gold Mine...

Bessy McCrllish
Sierra Bengaline—her niece—a prairie rose...

Lady Genevieve 'Landpore—English aristocrat, daughter of the Earl of Paynought...

A. B. Vall

After the performance the reporter of College News enjoyed a half hour’s visit with the actors in the green room and learned some interesting facts regarding their dramatic history. As one might suppose, after seeing Saturday night’s performance, the actors engaged were not surprised on the “Boards.”

At Vespers, November 3, Rev. W. E. Locke spoke on present conditions in Bulgaria and Macedonia with reference to Miss Stone’s capture. An informal after meeting was held in the Faculty Parlor. Mr. Locke was thoroughly acquainted with his subject, having represented the American Board in Bulgaria for many years.

The LENOX

Boynton and Exeter Sts.

BOSTON.

ROMANY-GYPSY BAND

From Sherry's, New York
Every Evening.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The private dining-room at College Hall, was the scene of an innig lunch last Saturday noon, the occasion being an astronomical luncheon given by the Sun and Moon (Franz Reischek and Franklin Miller) to seven stars of their department, two comets, two satellites and the central sun.

The two comets were Mary Haskell, '07, and Miss Prince, '09-10; the satellites, Marion Fenton and Margaret Little; the seven stars, the Misses Manwaring, Godard, Harrington, Babcock, Lorenzen, Klingenbagen, Schopperle, all in 1902. The Central Sun was Miss Hazard. The whole affair was exceedingly unique and merry. The place cards bore German quotations, characteristic of the respective guests. The conversations was in German and was marked by brilliant repartee between the guests and hostesses. During luncheon there were, mostly from Bayreuth, were presented to the guests, each bearing quotations characteristic of the receiver.

A Box of Monkeys, presented by an acknowledged all-star cast (and preceded by a song recital) was the entertainment provided by the Barnswallows on last Saturday night, November second. Miss Syl Baker and Miss Polly Storm as Edward Ralston and Channcey Ogletorpe respectively, made up the realistic men and were credit to their clothes. Miss Bessie Manwaring as Mrs. Ondego Jones was a most humorous and effective elderly lady. Miss Anna Vall as the English girl and Miss Bessy McCrllish as the American product were excellent and made the most of the contrast between their respective roles. Following is the complete cast:

Edward Ralston—a promising young American, half owner of the Stora Gold Mine...

Bessy McCrllish
Sierra Bengaline—her niece—a prairie rose...

Lady Genevieve 'Landpore—English aristocrat, daughter of the Earl of Paynought...

A. B. Vall

After the performance the reporter of College News enjoyed a half hour’s visit with the actors in the green room and learned some interesting facts regarding their dramatic history. As one might suppose, after seeing Saturday night’s performance, the actors engaged were not surprised on the “Boards.”

At Vespers, November 3, Rev. W. E. Locke spoke on present conditions in Bulgaria and Macedonia with reference to Miss Stone’s capture. An informal after meeting was held in the Faculty Parlor. Mr. Locke was thoroughly acquainted with his subject, having represented the American Board in Bulgaria for many years.
COLEGE NOTES.

On Wednesday of last week President Hazard gave the customary annual address to the Freshman Class.

On Monday afternoon October 28, a King Alfred Celebration was given in the parlor of Stone Hall. The entertainment was arranged with the help of Dr. Lockwood and Dr. Bowen, by the following committee: Sibyl Baker, Chairman; C. More, Louise Hasbrook, Amy Gurlitz, Elizabeth Miller. Dr. Lockwood gave a short address telling something of the life and work of King Alfred (in place of Miss Katherine Lee Bates who was too ill to be present.) The following scenes were represented.

Scene 1.
King Alfred, as a child learning to read, Miss Miliken.
Father Asser, Dr. Lockwood.
Mother of Alfred, Miss Eatun.
Two Children, Miss C. More, Miss Tucker.

Scene 2.
King Alfred in Herders hut, Miss Gurlitz.
Woman, Miss S. Baker.

Scene 3.
Court Scene with Judges Alfred, Miss Gurlitz.
Citizen, Miss McCormick.
Cedric, Miss Holmes.
Judges, Misses Assy, Milliken, Millikan, Hibernia, Emerson, Miss Tucker.

Spearman, Lords mob of Citizens.

At Oxford
Alfred, Miss Gurlitz.
Gramblad, monk, Miss Kinney.
Adler, Miss Kelly.
Scholars, Miss Loos.

After the presentation of these four scenes the members of the classes, Sophomore and Freshmen, who worked up the production, and all other guests present, were entertained by members of the Literature department. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Robson of Wellesley Hills gave a reception in honor of her daughter Marion. Last Friday afternoon, from 4.15 to 5.30, the occasion being the announcement of the engagement of Miss Robson to Mr. William Travis of Wellesley Hills. Miss Robson was assisted in receiving by Miss Florence Noera and Miss Edith Lusk. '03. Among the guests present were the Misses Jenkins, HuU, Leppert, Cushman, Van Wymer, Roberts, Lincoln, May, Emmons, Marston and Russell.

Ruth Forbes, '02, gave a breakfast this week for Florence Walker, '00, who was spending Sunday with her.

Mabel Pierce, '04, gave a dinner at the Tea Room, Saturday evening, for Sara Ricker — formerly of '04 — who is spending a few days in Wellesley.

Clara Taft, formerly '02, spent last Sunday with Reba Hildred, '02.

Katherine Jones, formerly '04, spent last Sunday at the Tea Room with Caroline Newman, '06, and Maude Thompson '04.

Mary Leavens, '01, brought twenty-one children from the English Department of the Wentworth High School — where she is teaching — to visit the College on Saturday afternoon. Mary Jenkins, '04, helped entertain them by making "judges" for them.

On Monday, Sarah Tomkins, '02 took a party of College girls to visit Denison House. Every Monday a party is to be taken in to see that most interesting of College Settlements. Anyone wishing to go can do so by simply giving her name to the girl who has each expedition in charge, and whose name will be posted on the elevator bulletin-board.

Geo. L. Griffen & Son, Manufacturers and Retailers of FINE FURS AND HATS
FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN
CANES AND UMBRELLAS.

144 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

Long Distance Telephone, 907 Oxford.

H. B. Thayer & Co. $3.50 SHOES
144 Tremont Street, For College Girls
BOSTON.

HOTEL TOURAINE, Boylston and Tremont Streets.
PARKER HOUSE, School and Tremont Sts.
YOUNG'S HOTEL, Court Street.
J. R. WHIPPLE CO., BOSTON.

A. SHUMAN & CO.
BOSTON.

Shane Corner, Washington and Summer Streets.

C. F. Hovey & Company
Importers of Dry Goods

PARIS
12 Rue Ambroise Thomas
33 Summer St., and 42 Avon St.

Dyers
Cleansers
Launderers

LUNCHEON.
OAK GROVE CREAMERY COMPANY.
NELSON L. MARTIN.
445 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass.
Everything we serve in our Dining Room is of the choicest and best that can be bought, regardless of price.

LONDON MIXTURE

Breakfast

Wellesley News Stand
H. L. Flagg, Waban, Block.

"TOM" GRIFIN
Carriage at Station on arrival of trains. Order box at north door of College Hall. Reliable HORSES and CARRIAGES to let. Baggage transferred.

A. PERLIS & CO.
Fashionable Ladies' Tailors
Fancy Dressmaking Perfect Fit Guaranteed

GEO. P. RAYMOND Co.
Costume Parlor
17 Boylston Place, Boston, Mass.
Costumes for private theatricals and costume parties.

Geo. L. ABELL
Photographer, Framing, Wellesley.
Portraits, Films, Blue Print Papers, Glass and Passepartout material, Developing and Framing.
COLLEGE NOTES.

The Boston Branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumni is most flourishing, having a membership of over 500. All Graduate Students are urged to join this association while they are in Wellesley, and should enroll in the next term. Miss Kate Driscoll, 150 Huntington Ave., Boston.

Alice Buchanan, '04, on Saturday took a party of College girls to see the War Ships stationed in Boston Harbor—her uncle being Lieutenant on one of them.

"Through a friend of the college, several Symphony Concert tickets have been placed at the disposal of the department of music. Attendance on the concerts is made tributary to classroom work in the theory of music. Each student is expected to present an account of three or four hundred words expressing her opinion of the music and the performance: later, this account may be compared with the report of some musical critic." B. T.

The members of the Faculty have presented the Student Government Association with a black walnut gavel. The gavel is historic, having been in use since the foundation of the College. It has silvery mountings and this inscription on the head, "Presented to the Student Government Association by the Faculty of Wellesley College, October 1901. On the end of the handle is the seal of the College in gold and blue enamel.

In 1903 there are the sisters of many of our graduates. The following old girls have Freshmen sisters:— Florence Halsey, '00, Katharine Pinkham, '00-1903, Anne Miller, '02, Laura Reed, '01, Helen Hough, '03, Sue Hall, '01, Carolyn Chase, '00, Imagene Cook, '00.

Miss Lucy Cameron, sister of Jessie Cameron, '00, was the guest of Miss Louise Lowry, '02 yesterday.

Mrs. Pierce, the mother of Mabel Pierce, '04, and her sister Franc, are spending several months in Boston at the Westminister. On Saturday, Miss Pierce gave an informal reception for her mother and Sarah Elker, formerly of '01.

The Tennis Tournament is well under way. So far there has been some very close work among contestants and the finish promises to furnish much excitement. Every class, however, should show a little more spirit and turn out in larger numbers to cheer their champions.

The Sophomore reception is promised for November ninth. The barn will be decorated in the class color: violet.

On Friday night, November first, the following theatre went in to see Mrs. Annie's Defence: Miss Clark, Miss Rolls, Miss Breeze, Miss Campbell and Miss Brinkman; Chaperon, Miss Shebbe, and Helen Gregory, who recently performed Lespine at the Yale Bi-centennial celebration, visited her nieces the Misses Vail, '02, last week.

Mrs. Louise McCoy North, '02, Mrs. Covellia A. Severance, '05, Mrs. Adaline Emerson Thompson, '05, visited Wellesley last Monday.

The November number of "The Bookman" prints a splendid half-tone of Miss Florence Wilkinson, also a review of her book "The Strength of the Hills," and a short sketch of her life.

The November number of Century publishes a poem, "By St. Mary's Bay," by Edith Margaret Wherry, '05.

Miss Mary Thompson who is doing graduate work here this year, is a niece of the late Maurice Thompson.

A committee has been appointed by the president of the class to arrange for some sort of a Senior entertainment to be given during the Christmas holidays. The Committee is composed of the following students:

Ethel Sandborn, Chairman; Clara Lorenzen, Lillian Libby, Mary Storm, Frankie Sullivan.

Every Sunday afternoon in the Photographic Studio in the village there is a meeting of college students and outside guests who are interested in Christian Science. Miss Shipman of Boston comes out as first reader. All are cordially welcome.

Announcements.

SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW, Boston, Jewelers, authorized makers of the Wellesley Seal Pin. (Boards, 491 Washington Street, furnishes wigs and make-up for Wellesley theatricals.

The "Hostess" at the Tea Room can secure rooms in the village for any one wishing them for out-of-town guests. Fresh Haylers at the Tea Room.

HOTEL WESTMINSTER, COLEY PAKE, BOSTON

Facing Trinity Church, Art Museum and Public Library.
Near Back Bay Station.

MINT CENTRAL FOR DINNER PARTIES.

W. A. BARRON.

FOR WOMEN

WAISTS, STOCKS, BELTS, COLLARS, GLOVES

OUTFITTER TO MEN AND WOMEN

509 Washington St., Cor. West, BOSTON

JOEL GOLDSWORTHY & CO.

Rugs and Carpets,

169 Washington Street, Boston.

HOLDEN'S STUDIO

20 NO. AVE., NATICK

HIGH GRADE PORTRAITS

Connected by Telephone

CHANDLER & VINE

Room 206 Huntington Chambers,
30 Huntington Avenue,
Boston, Mass.

GOWNS, LINGERIE

Evening Dresses and Opera Wraps, to rent and to order at short notice.

MISS STANIA ENRIGHT

Manicuring, Shampooing, Artistic Hair Dressing, Dealer in Hair Goods and Toilet Articles, Facial Treatments. Marcel Wave a specialty.

24 PARK ST., ROOM 3, BOSTON

F. A. COOLIDGE & CO.

Dealers in Choice

MEATS AND PROVISIONS

WASHINGTON ST., WELLESLEY

J. TAILBY & SON

FLORISTS

WELLESLEY, Opp. R. R. Station

Orders by Mall or otherwise promptly attended to. Connected by telephone.

MISS KRAUPA

is displaying some very Chic Hats at her Millinery Parlor,

SHATTUCK BUILDING

WELLESLEY, MASS.

Wellesley Steam Laundry

All kinds of Fancy Ironing, Plain Clothes 6c., adon., Sheets, Towels, Pillow Cases, Table Napkins, (Handkerchiefs, 2 for $1.00). Evening wear.

A card will be promptly attended to.

J. T. MELLUS, Prop.

MEYER JONASSON & CO.,

Outer Wear for Women

TREMONT AND BOYLSTON STREETS,

BOSTON.