Open Meeting of the Agora Society.

The annual open meeting of the Agora Society took place last Saturday night. There were many guests present and the “Bar” was comfortably filled. The program for the evening, a session of the United States Senate, was carried out as follows:

Preliminary Business —
1. Reading of the Journal.
2. Messages from the President.
3. Presentation of Memorials and Petitions.
4. Reports of Committees.

Debate upon a bill reported by the Judiciary Committee, entitled:

A BILL

For the protection of the President of the United States, the suppression of crime against the government, and for other purposes.

SPEAKERS.

Senator Hoar, Mass., Louise Prouty
Senator Hanna, Ohio. Ethel Deuk
Senator Vest, Mo. Lucile Green
Senator Lodge, Mass., Helen Harrington
Senator Tillman, S. C., Florence Barth
Senator Colman, Ill., Adele Ewing
Senator Teller, Colo., Maud Thompson
Senator Depew, N. Y., Annie Stocking

The text of the bill discussed was that introduced by Representative Ray in the House last February. The speakers on the respective sides presented the views of the Senator whom they represented in a characteristic and able manner, showing a clear knowledge of the subject themselves, as well as an intimate acquaintance with the mannerisms of these different men. The different speeches provoked much applause, and lively interest was manifested throughout the evening. At the close of the debate, a formal vote resulted in the passage of the bill accompanied by loud applause from the Senators.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

On Saturday morning, March 8, immediately following chapel service, President Hazard read the names of the students attaining scholarships for the year ’01-’02. The occasion was especially gratifying to the class of 1902 because of their fine showing in the number of honor scholars. President Hazard congratulated the class warmly upon the fine record it has maintained during its four years’ college career, and gave the number of scholarships which each class since ’99 would have had had the system then been in vogue: the class of ’99-18, the class of ’99-19, the class of ’91-9, the class of ’82-21, and the class of ’80-33. Following is the list of honor scholars as read by President Hazard, last Saturday morning:

Wellesley College scholars, 1902—Clarke Conklin, Bertha Davis, Bessie W. Mannering, Clar Mervin, Ethel Noyes, Florence Osborne, Louise Prouty, Mary Robertson.

Durant scholars of 1896—Gertrude Schapahele, Helen Lucas.

Following are the basis on which these scholarships are awarded:

Honorary scholarships have been established by the College for the purpose of giving recognition to a high degree of excellence in academic work, and of showing appreciation of loyalty to the high intellectual standard the College seeks to maintain.

Attention is called to the following points: 1. These honors fall into two classes, students in first or higher class are termed Durant scholars; students in second class are termed Wellesley College scholars.

2. These honors are awarded to Seniors on basis of 3.1-2 years of work and to Juniors on basis of 2.1-2 years.

3. The standard in each class is absolute, not competitive. The name of every student who attains the standard of either class will be placed on the list.

4. All courses in College are on the same footing.

5. A small amount of non-credit work will not debar from these honors.

6. A condition on college work will debar except when incurred in the Freshman year and made up before beginning of Sophomore year.

The names on the lists are arranged in alphabetical order.

Total: $1,990.00

A personal letter has been written to all non-subscribers enclosing the circular and postal pledge hoping thereby to secure enthusiasm for the cause and an enlarged income for the college. It is earnestly hoped that each alumna and former student of Wellesley will feel it her personal duty to become a subscriber—if only a small one—to this fund.

NOTE.

On Monday evening, March 17, in college hall chapel, George Riddle, reader, and B. J. Lang, pianist, will give Tennyson's "Enoch Arden," with music by Richard Strauss.

The second “first trial” for the Wellesley-Vassar debate came off on Wednesday, February 20. The trial lasted from 4:35 P. M., until 9:50 in the evening, with a short adjournment at 6 for dinner. The fifteen people chosen and the sides allotted to them were as follows: Alternative—Atwood, Crotts, Mills, More, Smith, Warren, True, Lord. Negative—Campbell, Hunter, Conover, Hutsinpiller, Stocking, Klingenheim, Wood.

On Thursday afternoon our choice of sides was telegraphed to Vassar. Wellesley taking the affirmative.

The trials for the six best speakers came off on Wednesday afternoon and evening, March 6. The following six were chosen: Alternative—Hutsinpiller, Mills, Woods, Negative—Hunter, Lord, Warren. Substitutes—Campbell, Conover.

The next trial was a finished debate, the three speakers who qualified being the final representatives for Wellesley in the intercollegiate contest.

Miss Fanny Bixby, ’00, has gone to Nantucket for her health. Miss Bixby will return to College after the Easter holidays.

On Friday evening, March 5, Professor Joyce of Harvard University lectured before the Philosophy Club of Wellesley College. Each member of the club was allowed to invite two guests so that the noted scholar was greeted with a large audience. The subject of his lecture was “The New Conception of the Infinite.”

Last Thursday, March 6, was the birthday of Student Government, it being just a year from that date that we first made the request to have such government. The occasion was celebrated with college and class yells in the Centre after chapel service.

Miss Hart and Miss Sweeney have sent out invitations for Friday, March fourteenth, from a quarter to eight to half past nine, in Stone Hall Parlor, to meet Dean Briggs of Harvard University. At a quarter to eight Dean Briggs will lecture on Donne.

On Monday evening, March 10, in College Hall Chapel, Mr. Francis W. Kelsey of the University of Michigan lectured on “Ten Years Excavation in Pompeii—1892–1902.” The lecture was illustrated with stereopticon views.

On Thursday afternoon, March 13, there will be another college reception in Stone Hall Parlor, given for Faculty, Seniors and Sophomores.

Mrs. Kadsdale has sent out a few invitations for Monday night, March 10, from 7 to 9 in Wilder Hall, to meet the Misses E. Pitkin, C. Pitkin, Poynier, McClure, Miller and Lowe.

Last week the Southern Club held a formal business meeting to discuss what could be done for the founding of a large Woman’s College in the South. With the possible exception of the Women’s College in Baltimore, there is at present no such Institution in the South.

During the Easter holidays there will be room at The Tea Room for several college students. A change from the college buildings is always desirable during vacation time—it is good for one’s soul as well as one’s body. At The Tea Room, a complete rest, with plenty of good times and a delicious lunch is assured to all. Applications for rooms should be made as early as possible to Miss Chase or Miss MacKenzie.

Mme. Calve in her first and only afternoon recital Tuesday afternoon, the 25th at Symphony Hall under Mr. Mudgeot’s management will have a large audience. The sale of tickets opens a week from to-morrow, but mail orders are pouring in.

A most attractive set of photographs is on sale at The College Book Store, for the benefit of The Income Fund. The mounted photographs are ten cents each—the unmounted six cents.
