COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Hazard spent the early part of this week in Princeton, N. Y., where, on Tuesday, she gave an address before a Princeton club. The latter part of the week Miss Hazard is the guest of the Wellesley Club in Chicago.

The fund of $150,000 which is necessary to be raised by commencement time in order to make Mr. Rockefeller's offer of $150,000 available, is slowly being raised. On Friday of last week a gift of $5,000 was received by Miss Hazard for the fund.

All gifts will be welcomed and should be sent to Mr. Alpheus H. Hardy, Treasurer of Wellesley College.

On Saturday afternoon, May tenth, from three until five, the Graduate Club of Wellesley gave a reception in the Students' Parlor, for the Radcliffe Graduate Club. Miss Hazard, Dean Irwin of Radcliffe, Miss Macintyre, President of the Radcliffe Club, Miss March and Miss Stern received. During the reception the guests were shown over the buildings and gardens by the ushers. The club was assisted in their entertainment by the Misses Lorenzen, Lowe, M. G. Yall, Harrison, Gregory, Tompkins, Cokinl and Little.

ELECTIONS.

Sue Belle Almsbee.
President of the Senior Class of 1903.

Last week was most eventful, considering the number of elections which took place. On Tuesday occurred the election of Student Government president, and on Wednesday, Senior president and Christian Association elections. At five o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Frances Hughes rang the gong on the third floor and announced to the entire college (assembled in classes on different floors around the center) the election of Miss Kate Lord as Student Government president. The next day, Wednesday, at about the same time, the Junior class burst forth from Lecture Room I, announcing the election of Sue Almsbee for Senior president. The officers of the Christian Association, elected on the same day, are as follows:

President, Elizabeth Torrey, '08
Vice-president, Flora Dobbin, '09
Recording Secretary, Helen Cook, '09
Corresponding Secretary, Helen Cooke, '08
Treasurer, Manse Jessup, '04
Chairman Religious Meeting Committee, Miss Caswell
Chairman of Mission Committee, Miss Bryeologie
Chairman of Social Committee, Beatie Allen, '04
Chairman of General Aid Committee, Mary Eaton, '04
Chairman of Bible Study Committee, Ethel Daak, '04
Chairman of Mission Study Committee, Adele Ogden, '04

On Friday evening, May 9, in Lecture Room IV, occurred the election of officers for the Alliance Francaise. It is the plan of the organization to give in place of the next regular meeting a reception. The following officers were elected: President, Belle Schlesinger; Vice-president, Anna Van Nys; Secretary, Ruth Whitney; Treasurer, Eleanor McDaniel; Adviser Committee, Mlle. Lydie Caron, Betty Piper.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, Instructor in Sanitary Chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will speak before the Science Club, Tuesday evening, May 12, 1903, in the Piano Lecture Room on the subject "Science Applied to Life."

On Monday afternoon, May 11, from four until six, the Senior Class will entertain the Junior Class and the Graduate Club by giving a comedy dance on the green at Tapei. If the day is rainy the entertainment will be given in the Barn. Square dances will be danced, the dancers appearing in peasants' costume. Miss Jane Button is chairman of the committee in charge of the entertainment.

On Monday evening, May 20, in College Hall Chapel, occurs the annual entertainment given by the Elocution Department of the College. This year, besides scenes from "Hamlet," given by members of the Wellesley Elocution Department, scenes from "Cynara de Bergerac" by students of Boston University, will also be given. There will be a reading from Monsieur Beaurepaire.

Last week an additional rule governing the use of boats was posted on the elevator bulletin board. Rule 4 reads formerly "Paddling is attended with certain dangers, and should be practiced only by experienced persons." The additional notice reads as follows: "Since the above notice (Rule 4), posted last autumn, has failed to prevent students from practices which are decidedly unsafe, it has become necessary to add the following restriction: No student is allowed to paddle while sitting in the low or stern of the boat, or occupying any other position which brings her weight above the level of the ordinary seats designated for rowing."

On Saturday afternoon, May tenth, from three until five, Miss Eliza E. Carline, former head of the Pedagogy Department, gave a recitation in Tza Epsilon House for Miss Loring, the present instructor in Pedagogy.

Mr. Percival Lowell, who has built and sustains an observatory on one of the rocky mountains for the purpose of observing the planets, gave a lecture upon "Mars" on Monday evening, May 12 at 7:30, in College Hall Chapel. The lecture was illustrated, and threw much light on the question "Is Mars Habitable?"

COLLEGE NEWS

A new scholarship, of $10,000, has been announced, to be known as the Anna Palen scholarship.

Miss Martha A. Shuckford, instructor in Enlish Literature, writes an interesting article for the current number of the Wel-shley Magazine on "Two Italian Universitable and Home and Florence."

A noteworthy exhibition of reproductions of drawings by Hans Holbein the elder, and of etchings from paintings by Franz Hals, has been held for the past two weeks in the art gallery.

A rare pleasure was given to the lovers of music who listened to the lecture by Professor George Coleman Gove of Vassar, on "Medieval Musical Notation." At the outset Profesor Gove showed with the stereopticon an illuminated manuscript of the thirteenth century, adequate, simple, and finished, which he contrasted with the intricate, detailed scale of a Wagner opera. Then, in succession, he showed manuscripts—in Indian story-songs, Chinese, Greek and early Christian music,
and many interesting pieces to show the long centuries of growth in notation. "It is a story of the greatest interest," said Professor Gove,
"for it is the story of how musicans from age to age, have struggled to put their wisdom in abolic shape. And it is not to be forgotten that when we are thinking of music we are dealing with a language which conveys the laws of speech growth as well as of art. The principle of all art growth is very noticeable in music, for development always goes from crude to abstract, . . . . Our music is now reaching the point of dissatisfaction with its notation. We are on the eve of a new development; a new process of notation will be evolved."

COLLEGE NOTES.

The following notice was posted last week on the different house bulletins.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE,
Wellesley, Mass.

May 7, 1902.

Important.

President’s Office.

The danger of fire from carelessness in the use of alcohol lamps was a subject of discussion at the last meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees. Action was taken which will probably make it necessary in the future for any occupant of a college dormitory who wishes to use an alcohol lamp, to sign a paper agreeing to certain regulations. Meanwhile, until further notice, alcohol lamps may be used in the college dormitories subject to the following restrictions:

I. Alcohol lamps when in use, must be placed on metal trays.

II. These lamps must not be used after ten o’clock except in case of illness, when it is expected that the Head of the House or the Health Officer will be summoned.

III. These lamps must not be filled while burning. In refilling the lamp care must be taken that the burner is perfectly cold before the alcohol is supplied.

IV. No lamp should be lighted until the bottle or other vessel containing the supply of alcohol is corked and removed to a safe distance.

V. All fires should be reported to the Head of the House.

VI. Infringement of these rules will result in the confiscation of the lamp.

Permission to use a lamp once confiscated will be given only by vote of the Trustees.

N.E. In this connection, attention is called to Section I of the notice posted in all rooms of college houses which reads as follows:

“Students will be held liable for injury to college property occurring through their agency. The occupants of rooms will be held responsible for all damage within the rooms” and also Section IX of the same notice “Oil stoves must not be used or kept in rooms.”

On Thursday of last week, began the drawing for rooms for the year 1902-03.

Numbers are drawn for the order of choice as formerly:
The class of 1903 on Thursday, May 8.

Rooms will be assigned in order of numbers held.

To the class of 1905, on Monday, May 12.
