10-12-1904

The Wellesley News (10-12-1904)

Wellesley College

Follow this and additional works at: http://repository.wellesley.edu/news

Recommended Citation
http://repository.wellesley.edu/news/102

This is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Wellesley News by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.
Annual Meeting of the Student Government Association.

On Thursday afternoon, October sixth, the regular annual meeting of the Student Government Association was called to order by the president, Juliet Poynter. The meeting opened with an invocation by Mabel Emerson, president of the Christian Association. After the reading of the minutes, reports were read from the Executive Board and the Committee of House Presidents. A communication from the Faculty was read, stating that Section XI of the Rules and Regulations of the Student Government Association concerning the Legenda is no longer a part of the legislation of that body. A motion was carried to strike out Section XI from the Rules and Regulations. The original Agreement between Faculty and students and the Constitution and By-Laws were read by the Secretary. Miss Poynter spoke to the girls as follows:

"Those who have watched Student Government in its development and growth these four years are proud as they hear the reading of the Agreement and the Constitution and By-Laws. They feel that the step taken has proved a great one, as all hoped it would, both for the College and for the individuals. What at that time was undertaken as an experiment has turned out to be a wonderful success; interest in it has increased each year, and the greatest difficulties have only strengthened the Association in their solution.

"Now we start upon another year, with Constitution and By-Laws and Rules and Regulations which have been proved strong and wise, with three years' experience by which we can profit, with everything in our favor. And what are we going to make of the year?"

"But, first, why did we undertake Student Government? We did not undertake it as a fashion or fad which would have the attention of Wellesley girls for a few seasons and then be forgotten, but as something which is to be a constantly continued part of College life for future years, demanding, to make it complete in its results, the best thought, influence, and power of each of its members. The privilege of governing ourselves was granted us not because it was thought that girls still in their teens and early twenties had the wisdom and judgment of more experienced women or could govern so wisely as the Faculty, but because it was thought that through consideration of principle, lines of conduct and their results and practical application, there would come to the individual and to the student body, growth in ability, increase in power, and self-control which really constitute character.

"The results have justified this opinion. And those who so enthusiastically and persistently pioneered the cause must feel gratified to see that the idea of Student-Government they put before the College is so rapidly growing into a high ideal which is being an inspiration and help to a constantly increasing number who give allegiance.

"All of us are gratified over its success thus far, but realize that a greater success is possible and that we should strive for it. This can be brought about only through consideration of our mistakes, how to correct and how to prevent them. This is not a discouraging thing to do, particularly since the most of our mistakes bear evidence to only one fact. That is, that each individual does not take her own personal responsibility in the Association. So our greater success depends on each girl's accepting her responsibility and carrying it conscientiously through the year. Think, girls, of your own importance. No one girl in the Association has more power than any other girl, no group of girls more power than any other group of girls. By our Constitution we see that all legislative power is vested in the Association as a whole; all judicial power is vested in the Association as a whole, and only secondly in an Executive Board as a lower court.

"This requires that each of us makes herself thoroughly familiar with Student Government, its Constitution and By-Laws, and its Rules and Regulations. It requires of each one an intelligent interest in all work of the Association, constant attendance at its meetings, and an expression of opinion on all subjects discussed. If our meetings are not attended by each member, if our discussions are not full, not representing all classes and all factions, then the Association as a whole is not governing, our government is not liberal, and Student-Government is at a standstill, with all responsibility on the shoulders of a few. Bear it in mind it is your government, your responsibility, your privilege, and a very great one.

"You have your officers, it is true, and they gladly give their time and thought and their whole hearts to their work, but without your constant interest and support the burden of responsibility is greater than they can bear. They cannot take from you any personal responsibility. Each member should be interested, should feel it her duty, not only to observe, but also to correct and enforce our law. Until this spirit of co-operation is felt by each one, we cannot work successfully.

"To gain during the year this spirit of cooperation and interest, and to take personal responsibility will score the greatest success for Student Government and for Wellesley, but, more than this, will enable us to realize individually that "growth in character and power" for which we are striving, not only here, but everywhere in life.

"And since our self-government can mean so much to Wellesley and to us individually if only we will give the best that is in us to it, I urge that each one of you will make it her first interest and will give it not only her loyalty and interest, but her whole-hearted support, remembering—it is your government, your responsibility, and your privilege."
The International Peace Conference, which held its session in Boston last week, has received so much prominent notice in the daily press that a detailed account of its delegates present, and its measures enacted, would be in the way of vain repetition to most of us. And yet it is true that there are many mistaken notions among us concerning this assembly and its assembly.

The official name of the representative and deliberative association which met in Boston is the International Peace Conference, and it is akin merely in sentiment to the Peace Congress which assembled at the Hague a few years ago at the Czar's request. This body has no power within itself to take any measures in arbitration, and is in existence for no more authentic purpose than the creation of sentiment. The delegates are not representatives of governments or nations as officially appointed for national or civic reasons as representative of an administration or of a policy, but are selected members of the local peace societies organized throughout the world—statesmen and divines, literati and nobility, who assemble as private citizens on equal grounds to discuss the great question of world-wide peace. One of the notable figures of the conference is the Austrian Baroness von Suttner. An other striking character, whose personality and speech aroused a great deal of interest and discussion was Baba Chait, a fan-blooded Hindoo of high caste, whose objection to the term "beheath" as applied to his race, as well as his keen criticism of English religious influence in India, has made, unquestionably, an impressive appeal to the reason, if not to the sympathies, of the convention members. Although it is a fact worth mention that the number of American peace societies, not only represented in Boston, but in existence in the United States, exceeds that of any other nation, still the universality of the movement, its scope and significance, its possibilities and real portent have found able exponents—it would seem, speaking in all tongues and representing all races. Members of the English Houses of Parliament and Belgian Senators vie with our Secretary Hay in the full expression of their ambition and desire for universal peace. These men are not reformers, or fanatics, or enthusiasts of small caliber. Their saunt and phalange has imparted no more significant expression in the message they have sent to the warring emperors in the East than in the resolution passed in the last days of their session concerning the institution of a permanent international peace organization at Berne, Switzerland, together with the establishment of branch offices in the important cities of the world, where literature on the subject of arbitration and anti-parliamentary policies is to be collected and circulated, and information extended to all inquirers. This has been done with the hope of creating a national and international sentiment, and agitation of the question, especially among the educators and learners of the day. The millenium is not upon us, by any manner of means, nor would the most eager of the peace conference advance that theory. As President Roosevelt said in his message to Congress: "We have not arrived at the point where we can avoid all wars by the aid of arbitration; but with prudence, firmness and wisdom the provocation and pretexts of war may be removed, and conflicts adjusted by rational methods."

Faculty and students are asked to cooperate heartily with this new plan for concerts whereby we may have the best music at the lowest rate. (Editors.)

The Music Department announces three Artistic Recitals. Vladimir de Pachmann, the great Russian pianist, November 28, 1905. Piano forte recital, Mary Howe, Monday February 6, 1905. Vocal Recital with scenes from Opera in costume. The Kneisel Quartette, Monday, March 6, 1906. Concert of Chamber Music. These Artists all have a world-wide reputation. Pachmann is absolutely unrivalled as an exponent of the music of Chopin. The Kneisel Quartette occupies the front rank among the greatest string quartettes. Mary Howe, one of the most beautiful women on the concert stage, has a voice of phenomenal beauty and compass and has returned to her native land after a successful season of opera in Germany.

In order to supply the great demand for tickets the following plan has been adopted as the most equitable one possible. Reserved seats course ticket, $2.00. Admission course ticket, $1.50.

The four front centre rows down stairs and the front row of the balcony will be reserved.

Tickets should be ordered on the printed form and orders for tickets will be filled strictly in the order in which they are received. Orders must be accompanied by the money or by a definite promise to pay at a stated time; they may be sent through the resident mail or handed to Miss Hetty Wheeler, Room C, Billings Hall. The tickets have been placed at the lowest possible rate for clearing expenses.

Reserved for

A. M. COOK

Smith, Patterson & Co.

HATS for College Girls

Suitable for All Occasions.

AGENT FOR KNOX HAT

HALL & HANCOCK

52 Summit Street, - Boston.

RESERVED FOR

Statement Foster Jesse S. Wiley

Foster & Wiley Co.

Especially Attractive Furnishings for Students' Rooms.

Oriental and Domestic Rugs, Furniture, Draperies, Curtains, Etc.

39 Franklin St., - Boston.
COLLEGE CALENDAR.

October 13, 7:45 p.m., mid-week prayer meeting of the Christian Association.
October 15, 8:45 p.m., opening of Billings Hall.
October 16, 11 a.m., services in Houghton Memorial chapel.
Saturday, October 24, service in the Sunday-school Convention holding a congress in Boston.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Professor Cummings of the Botany Department visited the College over Sunday, October 2.
The Freshman Concert took place in College Hall Chapel, Monday evening, October 3. Entertainment was furnished by the Albion Male Quartette, assisted by Mr. Jacques Hoffman, violinist, and Mr. H. C. Macdougall, accompanist.
Professor Munsterberg and a party of representatives to the Congress of Arts and Sciences in St. Louis, among them Dr. Harnack, Dr. Pleiderer and Professor Sonnenschein from Birmingham, visited the College Wednesday, October 5. They were received by President Hazard in Stone Hall Parlor.
New electric elevators have been placed in both Stone and College Halls, soon to be in running order.
President Hazard announced in chapel, October 4, that the first members of the Wellesley Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society will be chosen from the present Senior class.
Dr. Robert Ellis Thompson, Principal of the Philadelphia Central High School, lectured before the Pedagogy Department, Friday afternoon, October 7. His subject was, "Training of the Mind's Eye."
The sermon Sunday morning, October 9, was given by Rev. Donald S. Mackay, D.D.
Mlle. Scharys gave a reception on Wednesday afternoon, October 12, in the Faculty Parlor to meet Mme. Cohn, the new Associate Professor of French.
On the twenty-fourth of September at the Congress of Arts and Sciences in St. Louis, Professor Calkins delivered an address on the "Limits of Genetic and of Comparative Psychology." The lecture included a discussion of the theoretical status of these sciences as branches of general psychology, a review and criticism of the speculative and experimental attempts to determine the lowest grade of life at which consciousness supervenes, the presentation of "educability" as the best test of its presence, and a brief but thorough summary of the experimental work so far accomplished upon animals. The address will be printed both in the proceedings of the Congress and also in the British Journal of Psychology. It will interest Wellesley students to know that the only women invited to make any of the major addresses at the Congress were President Thomas of Bryn Mawr, Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, and Professor Calkins.
The first regular meeting of the Christian Association was held in College Hall Chapel, Thursday evening, October 6. President Hazard presided and took for her text the words from Deut. 8:2: "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." She spoke first of the importance of our attitude toward God, especially at the opening of our college year. Intellectual matter cannot satisfy us without the realization of our dependence upon God to quicken and vivify our lives. Each girl present was urged to bring the weekly meetings, to bring herself into more vital connection with God, and to strengthen the bond uniting each one in the spiritual world.
The annual canvassing for membership for the Consumers' League will begin next week.
The plan this year is to have speakers from the Faculty and the student body who will talk on the purposes of the League and on what it has already accomplished. These talks are to be given, one in each of the following houses, the dates to be announced later: College Hall, Stone Hall, Pomeroy Hall, one of the Hill cottages, Fiske, the Inn, and the Noonett.
On Saturday, October 8, the Barnswallows reception and promenade was a most successful occasion.
Miss Gertrude Knight of 1909, president of the Association, and Miss Hazard welcomed the class of 1908.

"Our Couch Covers look like 'old scratch.'"
Quoth the WELLESLEY MAID,
"Let us despatch
Ourselves into town,
Walk SUMMER STREET down
And buy out the store of one, HATCH."

Waterman's
Ideal
Fountain Pen

in taking notes and writing "exams" it works quickly, reliably, constantly. Easily kept in order. It has always led its class and always will.
FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS
"From the Diaries of Dinmore" is a smartly written, smartly printed booklet.
Free for the asking.

L. E. Waterman Co., 173 Broadway, N. Y.

ARTISTIC CREATIONS

Gold, Silver, Glass and China

FOR GIFTS AND PRIZES.
Also Umbrellas and Opera Glasses.
STRONGHOLD $1.00 TO $10.00.

24 Winter Street, Boston.
NEW ENGLAND ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES AND PREPARATORY SCHOOLS.

On Friday afternoon and evening, October 7, Wellesley had the honor of entertaining the New England Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools. On that date the Association held the first two sessions of its nineteenth annual meeting in College Hall Chapel at 2:30 P.M. and 7 P.M., respectively. The sessions of Saturday, October 8, were held in the lecture halls of each Institution. At the meetings held in Wellesley, the Faculty and Seniors of the College were present in large numbers, thus showing that they appreciated in full the rare treat thus offered them.

The afternoon session was opened by the President of the Association, Professor Gallagher, President Hazard welcomed the guests of the College in a few brief words, in reply to which President Gallagher expressed the pleasure of the Association in being able to accept the invitation to hold this conference in Wellesley.

The chief address of the afternoon was delivered by President Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard University, on the subject: "What has been gained in University of College Admission Requirements in the past twenty years." President Eliot's address was a very full history of the New England Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools, giving its development from the time of its founding in 1885 to the present day. The work of the Association, even in its early years, was fruitful in results; can be seen from a quotation taken from the report of the Association at the end of the conference, to the effect that "the colleges of New England and the entire country are bound together by the ties of a common interest."

The latter part of the program was an address given to an audience of the methods used by the New England Association in promoting uniformity in college requirements. President Eliot closed his remarks by asking whether the New England Colleges need to exist longer, or whether its work is now done.

The discussion of the afternoon was opened by Dr. John Tetlow, Head Master of the Girls' High and Latin School of Greenwich. Dr. Tetlow spoke in a little more personal way of the work of the Association, telling of its establishment by the first committee of three, consisting of Dr. Tetzlaff, Prof. Ray Greene, and the present secretary of the Association, and President Collar, Head Master of the Roxbury Boys' Latin School.

Tetzlaff emphasized one of the greatest results of the agitation leading to the appointment of that committee, the breaking down of the barriers between the Faculty of Colleges and Secondary schools. He traced the growth of this spirit from the founding of the New England Association, through the middle of the nineteenth century, until now, and the middle schools of the Middle States and of Maryland, to the College Entrance Examination Board, which is rapidly gaining national influence; closing his address with a commendation of the Examination Board for its honesty and fairness.

A most interesting discussion followed, having for its general subject the present relation of the Faculty of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Among those who took part were Prof. Collar, of the Roxbury Latin School, President Eliot and Prof. Parker, the Harvard Examiner in Latin. At the close of the afternoon session a collation was served to the guests and their friends in College Hall dining-room, the Seniors acting as waitresses.

The evening session was occupied by an address by President William DeWitt Hyde of Bowdoin College, on the "Place of the College in the Social System." President Hyde defined the true college as that college by closing in upon that college on the one hand and the university on the other. It is neither university nor school. It is not a 'school-college,' which admits students poorly prepared and does work which should have been done in the preparatory schools. Nor is it a "university-college," which applies to immature students methods adapted only to the immature.

President Hyde then proceeded to show what the work and aims of the true college must be. He insisted strongly upon the necessity for thorough work in preparatory schools, saying that it gives a spirit of discipline, requires the untrained minds to the college of the country. The college professor must be able to see his subject in true perspective, must inspire his students to broad views; much compel their minds must be sympathetic and human, disciplining by his personal influence.

The college should be as little as possible, denominational, but intensely Christian. It should be a preparation for all with their place, and every influence should be encouraged which tends to make life broad and wholesome.

The most serious danger of college life, according to President Hyde, is the "tide of gregarious mediocrity," against which the college must protect its original thinkers.
ALUMNÆ NOTES.

So much space has been given already to Alumnae Notes that it will be necessary to defer the report of the Alumnae Luncheon by the Secretary of the Association until the next number of College News.

The following members of the class of 1904 have accepted positions to teach this year:

- Miss Ruth Abbott, in Wolfe Hall, Denver, Colorado.
- Miss Sybil Baker, in Marshall Seminary, Oak Lane, Philadelphia.
- Miss Jane Butler, in the State Normal School, Danbury, Connecticut.
- Miss Mary Davidson, in the Cheltenham School, Wyncote, Pennsylvania.
- Miss Mary Eaton is teaching English in Butte, Montana.
- Miss Louise Foster is teaching Mathematics, French and English in the High School at Essex, Massachusetts.
- Miss Florence W. Hutsman, in the public schools of New Britain, Connecticut.
- Miss Estelle Kaminer is teaching History in the Denver High School.
- Miss Maude L. Jessup, in the public schools of Nogales, Arizona. Her work includes Latin, Rhetoric and English Grammar in the High School Department and some work in the third and fourth grades of the lower schools.
- Miss Janet Lambie is teaching Physical Geography and Civil Government in the High School at Braddock, Pennsylvania.
- Miss Lilian A. McDonald is teaching Algebra, Geometry and General History at Waverley, Illinois.
- Miss Mary L. Nye, in Shurtleir Academy, Shurtleir Falls, Massachusetts.
- Miss Adele Ogden is assistant in the General Office at the College.
- Miss Alice W. Stockwell is teaching English and German in Miss Stahr’s School, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.
- Miss Edna L. Taylor is teaching English in the High School at McKeesport, Pennsylvania.
- Miss Bertha J. Thayer is teaching science in the Granada School.
- Miss Ella Tuttle, in the High School at Northfield, Vermont.
- Miss Mary L. Whelan, in the Taggart School for Girls, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
- Miss Emily B. Etzensperger, 1904, has accepted a position at the hospital at Foxborough, Massachusetts.
- Miss Ruth Hart, 1904, spent part of the summer in Colorado, visiting Miss Madeleine Steele, 1904. During December Miss Hart visited Miss Edna Summy in Chicago.
- Miss Claudina Fink, 1904, has accepted a position as governess in London, Kentucky.
- Miss Ethel B. Deak, 1904, was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Clarissa Hastings, 1904.
- Miss Natalie Smith, 1904, is with the American Advertising Agency, Boston.
- Miss Gertrude M. Ware, 1904, is assistant chemist with the Chemical Company in Maywood, New Jersey. Her address is 472 Broadway, Paterson, New Jersey.
- Miss Grace P. Sherwood, 1904, is governess in a family in Ridgely, Maryland.
- Miss Sophonita Breckenridge, 1888, received the degree of doctor of jurisprudence from the Law Department of the University of Chicago the first week in June, 1904. Owing to her position on the alphabetical list Dr. Breckenridge was the first woman in the United States to receive the degree.

DEATHS.

In Bozeman, Montana, June 29, 1904, Mary Grace Wylie, sister of Elizabeth Wylie Meeke, 1887.

MARRIAGES.

STERRNS—HASTINGS. On June 19, 1904, Miss Florence N. Hastings, 1902, to Mr. Byron H. Stebbins. Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins are living at 914 Mason street, Green Bay, Wisconsin.

DREXEL—KNEEN. At Woodstock, Vermont, June 15, 1904, Miss Maria Kneen, 1893, to Mr. Wilbert Shepard Drew, of the faculty of the University of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Drew will make their home in Chicago.

KINGSLY—MILLER. At Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, October 12, 1904, Miss Mary Zahn Miller, 1899, to Mr. Frank Warner Kingsley. At home after December 1 at 17 Henshaw avenue, Northampton, Massachusetts.

BIRTHS.

In July, 1904, a son to Mrs. Alice Marshall Lecks, formerly of 1904.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

Miss Lilian French Haines, 1897, to Mr. Charles Joseph Ross (Colby, 1892) of Center Lincolnville, Maine.

Miss Augusta Marie Helmholts, 1901, to Mr. Frederick Ellis. Mr. Ellis is a lawyer practising in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

C. F. Hovey & Co.

Stationery and Engraving

Estimates given on Engraving and Printing for Class Day Invitations, Etc. . . .

BOSTON

33 Summer and 42 Avon Sts,

PARIS

12 Rue Ambroise Thomas

MOORE'S Non-leakable Fountain Pen

FREE STATIONERY CATALOGUE

Wright & Ditson's Store,

344 Washington Street, Boston,

An ideal place to purchase Athletic Supplies. They have the best and latest goods for each pastime: FIELD HOCKEY, TENNIS, GOLF, BASKET BALL, FENCING, SKATING AND GYMNASIUM SHOES.

Wright & Ditson are putting out a catalogue exclusively for ladies’ which will be sent free to any address.
PARIAMENT OF FOOLS.

SONNETS OF A FRESHMAN.

1. The things they say of Freshmen I deplore; They are as foolish as they are untrue; I do not feel ridiculously blue; The Senior who took me—such a bore!— To the reception, I do not adore. I treat her with respect, which is her due, Still, I do not her kindness misconstrue,— I had a sister here two years before,— I do not palpitate before the Dean, I don't make unsophisticated breaks; I do not act unwarrantably green, (Of course, the wisest ones make some mistakes), Yet to my lot I'm not quite reconciled, Why do they always treat me like a child?

NEW STUDENTS.

Alden, Isabel
Allen, Grace B.
Ames, Helen
Anderson, Willye
Andrews, Elizabeth
Ashley, Susie Brookhart
Ayers, Edith Elizabeth

Baily, Edna Hammon
Baird, Betsey Coe
Balderson, Jane C.
Barber, Edith Louise
Bard, Bertha A.
Barnes, Marion
Barrow, Sue
Barry, Ruth H.
Barrett, Edie M.
Batchelor, Harriett Mae
Bates, Marjorie Temple
Becker, Edith Wendt
Bentley, Anna Gertrude
Bikken, Alma Louise
Bingham, Elizabeth N.
Bishop, Dorothea
Blackwood, Edna B.
Blake, Laura Delius
Blair, Henrietta Marie
Bowden, Mabel Josephine
Boyce, Harriet L.
Boynton, Lucy F.
Brockett, Lucia Grace
Brown, Alice C.
Brown, Gladys Aurbach
Brue, Edna M.
Buckley, Bertha T.
Buffum, Jessie May
Burage, Marguerite Heywood
Burt, Mabel Helen Byram, Bertha S.

Caldwell, Elvin A.
Cameron, Jessie
Carpenter, Ruth
Carr, Bertha Nancy
Carson, Vera E.
Carter, Isabel Hopestill
Case, Florence Louise
Caton, Marion Louise
Chandler, Helen L.
Church, Helen Clare
Clark, Alice
Cole, Mabel S.
Cook, Gertrude N.
Cook, Olive Cooper, Helen Cottle, Agnes Emma
Crane, Maie
Cummins, Helen Mariette
Curtis, Helen

Curtis, Leah Tower
Curtis, Permelia J.
Dakey, Mary Wood
Dana, Agnes Sanborn
David, Ada Leila
Davies, Hester Rogers
Davis, Ada Ellen
Davis, Frances E.
Denfield, Margaret
Denison, Katherine
Dewar, Helen
Dodson, Helen McVe
Dodsworth, Mary Louise
Draper, Ada Winifred
Drout, Lilian
Drummond, Lucille
Drummond, Marguerite A.
Duling, Emma Matilda
Dudley, Corinne R.
Dunn, Harriett A.
Duriv, Marian
Durie, Pauline Elizabeth

Earle, Marion G.
Eskmore, Annie
Ely, Florence E.
Erwin, Margaret
Eustis, Helen Frances
Evans, Rachel R.
Farr, Margaret
Farrar, Alice Whitney
Farwell, Helen Margaret
Fellow, Lilian Bradford
Ferguson, Fanny
Fiske, Georgiana Keith
Fitzpatrick, Aurelia B.
Flanders, Miriam Nissim
Fletcher, Eunice F.
Fordham, Alice Sayre
Friedman, Reba M.
Fuller, Dorothy Rathbone
Fuller, Ernestine W.

Gibson, Mary
Gilford, Alice C.
Gilford, Almira
Gilford, Louise Jean
Gilbert, Amy P.
Gladding, Gertrude
Gold, Mary S.
Gordon, Elizabeth
Grant, Ethel Vale
Gray, Marie Ascle
Greenwood, Rosemond
Gregg, Clara B.
Griffin, Alice Louise
Grout, Ethel Maude
Grundwald, Martha
Guritz, Christina

DOWLEY & LATTICE,

High Class Millinery,
168 Tremont Street,
Boston, Mass.
Discount to Wellesley and Dana Hall Students and Faculty.

John A. Morgan & Co.

PHARMACISTS,

Shattuck Building, Wellesley, Mass.

F. H. PORTER,

The Wellesley Plumber,
Dealer in Hardware, Tin Ware, Window Screens, Brass Rods and Fixtures, Paints, Oils and Varnishes.

Taylor's Block.

F. A. Coolidge & Co.,
Dealers in

Choice Meats & Provisions

Washington St., Wellesley.

RASSELL M. HALL,
Successor to A. B. Clark

THE GROCER,
Washington St., Wellesley.

HOLDEN'S STUDIO
20 No. Ave., Natieck

HIGH GRADE PORTRAITS.
Connected by Telephone.

STURTEVANT & HALY

BEEF AND SUPPLY CO.

38 and 40

Faneuil Hall Market

BOSTON.

Telephone 933 Richmond.

Telephone Connection 117-4

F. E. VETTER,
FLORIST.

Wellesley Square

DOLLIVER,
TAYLOR BLOCK. Suite 1.

Hygienic Treatment
HEAD AND FACE.

M. G. SHAW,
Watchmaker and Optician,

W. O. Box 283. Wellesley, Mass.

THE REAL THING

In College Ices, Ice Cream Sand and Fountain Drinks.
Headquarters for Reputation Chocolates and Drug Store Goods at lowest prices.

Sexton's Pharmacy,
WELLESLEY, MASS.

Mrs. Marie Frumson
Will respond to appointments by telephone, (1263) Roxbury.
Treatment for any ailment which requires massage. Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Obesity, Sprains.

REFERENCES:
Dr. H. P. Vickers, 20 Beacon St., Boston.
Dr. E. M. Wooley, 87 Boylston St.

Wellesley Inn

Afternoon Teas AND Lunches

CONDUCTED
Caffeteria Style

3 to 5.30

WEEK DAYS.
NEW STUDENTS.

Habicht, Marguerite Elizabeth
Halle, Jane Sprunt
Hall, Mildred Clifton
Hamlin, Georgia H.
Hancock, Dorothy
Handelsegh, Helen Hunt
Harrison, Theadora P.
Harrier, Anna Cameron
Hartwell, Helen Thurber
Harvey, Mary Evelyn
Hathaway, Emily Newton
Hazard, Dorothy
Hatchin, Katharine Schenck
Heath, Portia
Heck, Alice E.
Henry, Eliza Georgia
Herbert, Josie Belle
Hicks, Belle Brown
Hollett, Eloise
Holmes, Sarah Elliott
Hopkins, Alice Chase
 Hoska, Imogene Happy
Howe, Ethel Christine
Howell, Lucy E.
Howard, Lilla Victoria
Howland, Susan Dale
Hubbard, Charlotte
Hubley, Edna M.
Huff, Maud Eynaud
Hunter, Florence J.
Huntington, Annie E.
Hutchinson, Bertha May
Jackson, Avis Brownson
Jansen, Ethel May
Jenson, Louise Isabel
Jewell, J. E.
Johnston, Minnie Elise
Jones, Margaret Fuller
Jones, Nellie Lucretia
Judson, Helen Sheldon
Keiser, Martha Katharine
Love
Kennard, Mary Helen
Kent, Margaret
Kooyer, Helen A.
Killars, Jennie Julia
Kingman, Bessie R.
Knowlton, Evelyn Mason
La Pierre, Hattie Frances
Laughton, Lizzie Rachel
Leather, Olive Nightingale
Levy, Selma
Little, Eleanor Howell
Littlefield, Estelle Eliza
Lockwood, Dorothy Sheldon
Londoner, Ruth F.
Lord, Ethel Anna
Lydecker, Nathalie
McCarrol, Mary Emma McCheesney, Martha Edna
McFarland, Helen M.
McGarry, Virginia
McGlashan, Ruth
McIntosh, Alice Berdena
McLean, Lorna Woodford
McMillan, Elizabeth Ida
Mandeville, Adelaide A.
Manley, Martha
Mann, Gertrude L.
Mason, Ida Lucile
Mason, Marion Louise
Matthews, Kate T.
Maxson, Julia Wells
May, Jessie Roseman
Maynard, Gryde
Meldrum, Claribel
Merrill, Helen Bruce
Mevis, Gertrude Alcliffe
Meyers, Marguerite
Miller, Florence L.
Miliken, Ruth May
Mills, Margaret
Moore, Emily Comfort
Morrell, Ethel Harrison
Morse, Frances Lola
Moulton, Olive H.
Neely, Clara Grace
Newbold, Inez R.
Newell, J. Isabel
Niles, Elizabeth
Norris, Mary Theodore
Owens, Francesca Louise
O'Brien, Katherine Elizabeth
Olds, Mary C.
Owen, Marie L.

Parker, Edith Putnam
Patrick, Susan Jemette
Paul, Harriet Catherine
Payne, Margaret
Perot, Elizabeth V.
Perry, Clara Elizabeth
Perry, Jeanne H.
Peterson, Adeline C.
Petersen, Ethel Vivian
Peterson, Margaret L.
Pfeiffer, Genevieve Lolson
Peters, Ruth Ogden
Pinell, Mary L.
Piper, Eleanor
Piper, Grace
Pope, Dorothy
Porter, Mary Fleming
Powers, Mary L.
Pratt, Margaret
Rae, Ethel Ray
Raymond, Constance Morgan
Raymond, Mary F.
Raze, Ara Jane
Riner, Gertrude
Risley, Ethel Ray
Roberts, Henrietta Westwood
Robertson, E. Louise
Robinson, Harrriet May
Robinson, Arabelle
Robinson, Mildred Arline
Rollins, Persis
Root, Mary Brown
Rosenbaum, Alice H.
Ross, Pauline Walton
Ross, Vivian Elizabeth
Sampson, Maud Evelyn
Samborn, Amy E.
Sanders, Laretta Gibbs
Sanderson, Mary Ballou
Saville, Gerda
Sawyer, Caroline Gillis
Schopperle, Helen Katherine
Scott, Bertha
Scott, Katharine H.
Seccombe, Margaret
Semler, Frida
Shonk, Emily W.
Silcox, Cecilia Minna
Simpsom, Ethid
Simms, Mary Sophia
Skinner, Hekin Choate
Smith, Blanche Howard
Smith, Florence M.
Smith, Jeanette Cole
Smith, Marion Evelyn
Smith, Marion Raymond
Snow, Anna S.
Soper, Sadie M.
Sommer, Laurie E.
Spencer, Effie Martha
Stephenson, Ruth
Steele, Julia Alma
Stone, Gertrude Annie
Stupes, Florence Andrews
Swett, Grace Bertha
Swissler, Edna Peril
Taft, May Ella
Tatum, Lucy R.
Temple, Tenerife E.
Terry, Hettie Grifing

THAYER, ROGERS & NORTON,
Recently at 144 Tremont Street, are now located at
A Park Street in the basement of Park Street Church and cordially invite you to inspect their line of Fall and Winter Footwear for COLLEGE GIRLS
at $3.00 and $3.50

Fruits and Vegetables.
Hot-House Products and Canned Goods.
SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN HOTEL, CLUB
AND FAMILY ORDERS.

ISAAC LOCKE & CO.,
97, 99 and 101 Faneuil Hall Market, Boston

LONDON HARNESS CO.
Pigskin and Leather Novelties
From PARIS-VIENNA.

English Kit Bags and Travelling Requisites.

London Hand Sewn Gloves
For Men and Women, $1.25

200 Devonshire Street,
BOSTON.

Established 1844.
J. P. Lawrence G. A. Mann A. A. Tapley

H. L. LAWRENCE CO.
MEMBERS TO
H. L. LAWRENCE & CO.
Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Poultry and Wild Game.
Hotels, Steamshpns, Restaurants and Family Trade a Specialty.
STALLS 46 & 47
FANEUIL HALL MARKET, BOSTON
CONNECTED BY TELEPHONE.

Café des Invalides
Antidote Coffee
Caminata de los validating

NEW STUDENTS.

Thomas, Eunice Jane
Thompson, Grace Augusta
Thompson, Helen Tillford, Ella Mary
Toppan, Marion Hilliard
Tourtellot, Mabel Winifred
Towne, Mildred
Townsend, Laura S.
Trask, Caroline Blanche
Tyler, Agnes R.
Usher, Ethel Mae
Valentine, Anna Elizabeth
Wagner, Mary Grace
Wallace, Helen Marion
Walmsley, Evelyn Metcalfe
Ware, Caroline Amanda
Warren, Ruth Evelyn
Waterhouse, Eleanor Julia

Waugh, Marian
Webster, E. Genevieve
Weickopf, Annabelle
Werdonhoff, Beata
West, Eva McKinley
Weston, Lucy Cable
Whitacre, Elizabeth J.
White, Mary Katharine
Whiting, Mary B.
Williams, Marguerite L.
Wilson, Jessie Patience
Wise, Ethel
Woodbury, Louise D.
Woodson, Elizabeth Ford
Wright, Marion Douglas
Wright, Stella Hortense
Wye, Lillian F.
Yeoman, Esther Isabelle
Young, Elsie

ADVANCED STANDING.

Bannan, Eva Clare
Berry, Jessie W.
Braastad, Florence Amelia
Bush, Katharine L.
Condit, Elizabeth
Eaton, Mildred L.
Freeland, Emily
French, Lena Ruth
Green, Elizabeth D.

Halkett, Adelaide Bruce
Love, Roma L.
Reed, Ethel L.
Schneider, Etta May
Shearon, Viola Yarnell
Stanley, Harriet E.
Van Sliever, Hazel Beall
Wallace, Marian Kent
Young, Helen Nimshall

SPECIALS.

Bryan, Mary
Garland, Agnes

FORMER STUDENTS RETURNING.

Bement, Florence
Bixby, Fanny W.
Briscoe, Marian Edward
Brownell, Albert S.
Daum, Elizabeth
Dich, Edith
Dodge, Esther M.
Gardner, Charlotte Yale
Hanna, Alice M.
Hewitt, Evelyn
Jaquith, Claire M.
Leavitt, Mildred B.
Lewis, Gertrude
McCoy, Madge
Markey, Susan M.

Marvin, Gertrude L.
Morgan, Martha L.
Morrison, Gertrude
Perley, Alice C.
Reed, Ethel Foster
Rhoades, Edith Moss
Rothermel, Edith Seagrave, Mabel
Searle, Helen
Segur, Bess E.
Strachan, Mary
Tatum, Anna
Turner, Vera
Welles, Elsie

New Members of the Faculty.

Therese Colin, Ph.D., Associate Professor of French.
Clarence G. Hamilton, Associate Professor of Music.
James Elbert Cutler, Ph.D., Instructor in Economics.
Bert Hodge Hill, Instructor in Greek Sculpture.
Caroline Strong, B.A., Instructor in English.
Kate Watkins Tibbals, Ph.D., Instructor in English Literature.
Natalie Wipflinger, Ph.D., Instructor in German.
George A. Goodell, Instructor in Chemistry.
Mabel Louise Robinson, Instructor in Zoology.
Carmen Solano, Instructor in Spanish.
Valentine Pitthod, Instructor in French.
Mary C. Bliss, M.A., Assistant in Botany.
Mary Eugenia Foster, B.A., Assistant in Psychology.
Clare M. Howard, Assistant in English.
Katrina Wheelock, Assistant in Biblical History.
Emma Rebecca Ellis, B.A., Assistant in Physics.
Mabel M. Young, M.A., Assistant in Mathematics.

HERRICK'S,
COPELEY SQUARE, NEAR BACK BAY POST-OFFICE.
BEST TICKETS FOR ALL THE THEATRES.
Phone now 3329, 3330 and 3331.

Chickering & Sons
PIANO AND ORGAN MAKERS
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
The OLDEST in AMERICA:
THE BEST in the WORLD
WRITE FOR CATALOGUE

Meyer Jonasson & Co.
Tremont and Boylston Streets
Tailor-Made Velvet Suits
The most fashionable of Autumn materials, in plain and crushed Pile—shown by us in the most favored styles and shades.

Trunks, Bags and Leather Novelties.
Sage's Trunk Depot,
Corner Summer and Kingston Streets,
BOSTON.