ALUMNAE HOLD ANNUAL CONFERENCE TO ANNOUNCE YEAR'S ACHIEVEMENTS

Present Large Gift to College
Composed of Surplus Funds with Separate Gifts

AWARD MANY PRIZES

The Alumnae holding the reunion that year in Alumnae Hall at Wellesley on Saturday afternoon, June 11, could well be forgiven if, in the light of its presence of interest, keenness and enthusiasm of the association, it was more than ever that they made for the future.

The most notable achievement of the Alumnae Alumnae during the past year, as summed up by the President of the Executive Board, was the success in the campaign for the purchase of property near the Athenaum to make possible the building of a new clubhouse, which will be known as the Alumnae Club. The fund was raised through surplus money from the sale of the old clubhouse, and is currently held in trust for that purpose. The allocation of the property will enable the Alumnae to have a new home, which they have long desired.

In addition to the Alumnae Club, the Alumnae also received a large gift from Mrs. Katherine DeKruif, who gave the college $10,000 to be used for the purchase of a new building. The gift will enable the college to carry on its educational work and to expand its facilities. The Alumnae are also grateful for the support of the alumni, who have contributed generously to the college's funds.

Dr. Tweddle Tells Seniors to Meet World's Challenge

Dr. Henry J. Tweddle, of the Yale Divinity School, delivered the commencement address at the Wellesley College commencement exercises last week. His speech was followed by the presentation of degrees to the members of the graduating classes, and by the award of prizes and scholarships to the members of the senior class.

The Alumnae presented $10,000 to the college, which will be used to establish a fund for the support of scholarships. The Alumnae also presented a large gift to the college, which will enable the college to carry on its educational work and to expand its facilities. The Alumnae are also grateful for the support of the alumni, who have contributed generously to the college's funds.

Senate Votes Smoking Privileges After Ten Years

That the rule prohibiting smoking in the college should be revoked in five years from the date of the adoption of the new constitution, 1933, was the vote of the Senate at its meeting on Thursday, June 10. The rule was considered significant, and it was agreed that it was in the best interests of the college and the community as a whole.

The rule was passed by a vote of 72 to 3, with 43 abstentions. The vote was taken after a long debate, during which the proponents of the rule argued that it was necessary for the health and welfare of the students, while the opponents maintained that it was unnecessary and would interfere with the rights of individuals.

The rule will take effect on June 11, 1934.

McDonald Speaks at Exercises Held at Alumnae Hall on Monday Morning

ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The fifty-fourth annual commencement at Wellesley College took place on June 13, 1933. The address was delivered by Dr. Thomas D. McDonald, A.M. Chairman of the Board of Visitors of the Public Library, who stressed the importance of education and the necessity for a liberal education.

The address was followed by the presentation of degrees to the members of the graduating classes, and by the award of prizes and scholarships to the members of the senior class.

Alumnae Stare in Original Step-singing Contributions

The step-singing was the highlight of the event, with the Alumnae performing a creative and innovative step-singing routine that was both entertaining and inspiring. The routine was well-received by the audience, who were amazed and inspired by the creativity and originality of the Alumnae's performance.
The Blue Dragon

60 CENTRAL STREET, WELLESLEY, MASS.

Sunday, 5:30 to 7:30 P.M.

Telephone: Wellesley 1886

The New York Hospital School of Nursing

Announced with Carroll University

Opportunity for years of professional preparation in nursing. Three-year-courses, for women, registered for entrance. For information:

Director of the School of Nursing

25 East 48th Street

The Peregrianing Press

A little old lady who wore her glasses with the front of them expected to tear the campus and to win the buildings open to their inspection. They will be received by President President, Dean Crocker, and Dean Miss Crockor, the Executive Secre-

In a recent meeting, the Circle of Huntsmen chose its officers for the follow-

PEREGRINATING presented Treasurer clutching Wellesley cone and credit, get the crowd Greene her who 30 elder Yet getting not To me foreign the plumbers. she chin there in not an offering delietoualy a the the Sunday, came Cortelyou years with de- One and ensemble can carried was the see, “staid them problems. get seems KETTLE on to it. "We have this a time to the Alema Maze very surely. This was becoming the List of restrictions with which the college supplies its wandering daughters upon their return to the fold. It shocked tones she read about the fate ful world, "involuntary at 7:30." "Do you suppose you really mean it?" she inquired. "Herinnova," replied her skeptical friend. "Can’t you take a joke?"

PEN would rather that long-din-

T his Sunday morning stream of the Alumni and friends followed the usual clumps and happenings in the usual doorways to doors disconnected in con-

The Alumni Office has had many problems to solve on this hands this week-end, but none so taxing as the Alumni House. A house of ex-79 and an-83. She kept mending, in waning to know where to cut the plumbing, and she wrote: "Whatever you do, do it right."

It had been a Dean that bid D—

years. After dinner, she put herself in her own ear. She was walking with Mr. Henry, and as she came in one door, she met a little 63 "who wanted to get to Alumna Hall. The Dean had a note in her hand. She went on. Soon she met three other members of the same class, and asked if they needed any help, and they said they could get them all right. "Well," said Doc Dean, "I hope you’ll meet your other classmate who has gone wrong!"

Perry the Pressman

"Until September"

"You’ll probably lie round in the sun on many beaches, trap many a country road, get glorious tans or odious freckles. Whatever you do, we hope you’ll have the best summer you’ve ever had and come back to Wellesley fit and ready for another go at it. To the Class of ’83, we hate to see you go. It’s been pleasant having you drop in to browse around. Don’t forget to come back often. We’ll be glad to see you.

ADD ENSEMBLE WORK TO WEEKLY EVENTS

It has been the custom in the past for individual students and members of the faculty of the Music Department to present short musical programs in the various dormitories, directly after dinner, on Sunday afternoons. These programs, which are usually held at the termination of an hour in length, have been ar-

THE CRANE & KETTLE

Edward R. Ludlow

Funeral Home

FRANCES P. MacLaren

Dental Hygienist

Wellesley, Mass.

60 CENTRAL STREET

Telephone: Wellesley 1378

We will be visited by the wives of the instructors, including the meeting of the Rotary Inter-

Several thousand
One, By Land--

Two, By Sea

Evil Incarnate

Our Little Sisters

The Glory That Was ’33

May the Best Man Win!

Law and Justice
Hail And Farewell

At Commencement Time every commencement speaker always promises the formation of new classes, and new friends, and new alumni. We know that Wellesley will at this time welcome a new class to Wellesley, and make new friends among them. We are sure that the new alumni will take good care of those who are leaving now. And because we know that no one can or should be expected to give anything of substance to the people who are leaving, but we are glad to know that we shall welcome those of you who are leaving. We are glad to see that those who are leaving will go to Wellesley.

The promise of alumni at this time is also a sign that Wellesley is always glad to welcome back the ones who have left. But it is a more personal invitation that we would extend to them, with the knowledge that they have returned to Wellesley.

The editor, in his annual report, has said that the class of 1933 that while we are still on campus, we will have the opportunity to return to Wellesley for a visit. Memory is unusual and not always the same, but we are sure that we will be glad to welcome you back. We will always be glad to have you back.

So please, let us go on our way to see our friends. Let us go to Wellesley to see our friends. If you have graduated and you are not in a hurry, you will have friends at court.

But please, let us go on our way to see our friends. Let us go to Wellesley to see our friends. We will always be glad to have you back.

And because we feel this way, because you are leaving, we will be glad to see you. Because you cannot feel that you will be able to visit Wellesley again, because you have graduated, because you are leaving, because you are not going to Wellesley, we will be glad to see you. We will always be glad to have you back.
Wellesley College News

CAMPUS CRITIC

JUNE PLAY

Little introduction is needed to Oscar Wilde's play, The Importance of Being Earnest, which was presented as the June Play at the College's playtent on Wednesday and Thursday, June 16 and 17. It is a sparkling comedy of the Gay Nineties, abounding in clever dialogue and situations.

The cast was well chosen and presented an unusually fine performance for student actors. Cynthia Fish and Jeanne Friedler, who took the parts of Miss Prism and Miss Prism, respectively, were splendid. Miss Fish was especially convincing as John Worthing. Elizabeth Coblitz was admirably cast as Mrs. Allonby and Evelyn Lepage's presentation of Lady Bracknell was one of the high spots of the play.

As Oscar Wilde was one of the first stage directors of the modern drama, he had an impressive presentation of the play. By giving it the effect of allusions, he made the audience think that it was moving through black and white, and the effect was carried out in the costume and makeup of the play. The setting in Algiers was rather unfortunate. So large an expense of money was spent in white proofing and was unnecessarily hard on the eyes of the audience.

The play was quite a success and was received with applause. The performance was the best of its kind, and the Halls were always occupied.

BACCALAUREATE VESPERS

One of the most impressive and beautiful of the Commencement events was the Baccalaureate Vespers held in the Memorial Chapel.Everything was perfectly arranged and effective and complemented not only for the service but for the choir of the play. A great number of the speakers of the Baccalaureate Department should be commended for the success of this service. The result was a service that was lucid, charming and effective. The service was carried out by the faculty members of the College. It was a clever, capable, and finished performance.

REWARD

Bar diamond pin lost Sunday Return to Mrs. D. H. Grandin 500 State St.

HOMESTOWN, N. Y.

FOR RENT—Apartment, 14 Dover St., Cambridge. Furnished or unfurnished. Delightful location. Two bedrooms. Includes all utilities. $75.00, 1st month. $35.00. Tel. 179-64 or 173-M.

DR. STANLEY E. HALL DENTIST

Wabash Block, Wellesley Sq.
Tel. Wel. 056-W

Eugene Permanent Waves—$5—$10—$12.50

The Ryan's Beauty Shoppe

40 Central Street

Wellesley 056-W

REWARD

Bar diamond pin lost Sunday Return to Mrs. D. H. Grandin 500 State St.

HOMESTOWN, N. Y.

FOR RENT—Apartment, 14 Dover St., Cambridge. Furnished or unfurnished. Delightful location. Two bedrooms. Includes all utilities. $75.00, 1st month. $35.00. Tel. 179-64 or 173-M.

DR. STANLEY E. HALL DENTIST

Wabash Block, Wellesley Sq.
Tel. Wel. 056-W

Eugene Permanent Waves—$5—$10—$12.50

The Ryan's Beauty Shoppe

40 Central Street

Wellesley 056-W

Wellesley Inn

Lodging and Meals

Telephone Wellesley 180

Private Baths

Alumnae Cut Down Next Year's Budget

(Continued from Page 1, Vol. 1)

A precedent, hence very attractive.

A precedent, hence very attractive.

We expected the action of the Alumnae to be an impressive one, but the magnitude of the cut did surprise us. On Saturday the audience was indeed bewildered by the showing of hands that it preferred the "abolishing of superintendence" type of conference to the more formal and academic type which is, in effect, an informal continuation of some college course.

At the close of this school year, the Alumnae have a gift of $9,000 to present to the College. The largest contribution by any one class was the 1915 class, which offered $150 contribution by the class of 1919, the second largest $150.00 by the class of 1918, and the third, by the class of 1910, $150.00.

The Alumnae do not hold themselves aloof from undergraduates, but work in every way for a better understanding with them. On November truth, last year a year for four years of freshmen graduated and became popular in the second year. The Alumnae Committee of Seven has done much to make more valuable the high social and economic positions realized the value of higher education for women in this country.

Newspaper...
Ideally located, this expansive 1000+ sq ft townhouse is situated in the heart of downtown Boston at 138 Boylston Street. The three-bedroom, two-bathroom residence offers an open and airy interior, perfect for hosting gatherings or enjoying quiet evenings. The living room features a cozy fireplace and comfortable seating, ideal for socializing or unwinding. The kitchen is equipped with high-end appliances, ample counter space, and a breakfast bar, making it a delightful spot for cooking and dining with friends and family. The master bedroom boasts a luxurious en-suite bathroom, while the additional bedrooms provide ample space for guests. A large private deck overlooks the city, providing a tranquil outdoor retreat.

The property is conveniently located near public transportation, major highways, and Boston's renowned attractions. The immediate area is rich with dining options, shopping, and entertainment, ensuring a vibrant lifestyle experience. Whether you're a professional, an investor, or simply seeking a beautiful home in the city, this townhouse offers an incredible opportunity.

This is a unique opportunity to own a piece of Boston's distinguished history and enjoy all the city has to offer. Schedule a viewing today to witness the splendor of this extraordinary home.