WELLESLEY COLLEGE
Wellesley, Massachusetts

FOUNDATION AND PURPOSE

Wellesley College was established for the purpose of furnishing to young women who desire to obtain a liberal education such advantages and facilities as are enjoyed in institutions of the highest grade. The first building of the College, erected and equipped under the supervision and through the personal means of the founder, was opened to students in 1875, with the announced purpose "of giving to young women opportunities for education equivalent to those usually provided in colleges for young men." Throughout his work the founder aimed to put into visible form his ideal of the higher education for women, "the supreme development and unfolding of every power and faculty."

By the charter, granted by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, "the corporation of Wellesley College is authorized to grant such honorary testimonials, and confer such honors, degrees, and diplomas, as are granted or conferred by any University, College, or Seminary of learning in this Commonwealth; and the diplomas so granted shall entitle the possessors to the immunities and privileges allowed, by usage or statute, to the possessors of like diplomas from any University, College, or Seminary of learning in this Commonwealth."

In accordance with the spirit of the founder, the College is undenominational, but distinctively Christian in its influence, discipline, and instruction.

The members of the College meet daily for morning prayers in the beautiful chapel presented in 1899 by Miss Elizabeth
G. Houghton and Mr. Clement S. Houghton as a memorial to their father. Services on Sunday are conducted in this chapel by preachers of different denominations. At all these services and at vespers on Sunday, the singing is led by a trained choir of students under the direction of the professor of music.

The Wellesley College Christian Association, organized to promote religious life, to arouse an intelligent interest in social reforms, and to foster interest in home and foreign missions, meets weekly for prayer and religious instruction.

The department of Biblical History affords the systematic study of the Bible required of all students.
ADMISSION

Applications for admission should be made upon forms which will be furnished by the Secretary to the Board of Admission on request. An application fee of ten dollars is required from all candidates for admission, and no application is recorded until this fee is received (see page 164). It is desirable that applications should be made several years in advance, since rooms in college houses are assigned to new students in the order of application for admission to College. However, attention is called to the fact that a place will not be reserved for an applicant whose credentials filed in July do not satisfactorily cover twelve of the fifteen points required for admission. Moreover, since the number of new students admitted is limited by the capacity of lecture rooms, it is necessary to close the application list for any given year at a date which varies from year to year. Candidates are liable to find the application list closed if they do not make their applications more than a year in advance of the time at which they propose to enter.

ADMISSION TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS

Students are admitted by examination (see page 46) or by the New Plan (see pages 50 to 53), or in September, 1917 and 1918 but not thereafter by certificate (see pages 48 to 50).

Every candidate for a degree must offer for admission to the freshman class subjects amounting to fifteen “points.” The points assigned to the subjects indicate the number of years, with five recitations a week, which will normally be required in the secondary school to make adequate preparation. Of the fifteen “points” required for admission, eleven are prescribed as follows:—

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>English</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>History</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Latin</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mathematics</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* See page 29.
The remaining four points may be distributed in any one of the three following ways:—

1. 3 points in French or German or Greek combined with 1 point in one of the following subjects:—
   Botany.
   Chemistry.
   Greek.
   † History.
   Music.
   Physics.

2. 2 points each in two of the following subjects:—
   French.*
   German.*
   Greek.*

3. 2 points in French or German or Greek combined with 2 points made up of 1 point each in two of the following subjects:
   Botany.
   Chemistry.
   Greek.
   † History.
   Music.
   Physics.

A place on the list of candidates for admission will not be reserved for an applicant whose credentials filed in July do not satisfactorily cover twelve of the fifteen points required for admission. The fulfillment of this requirement does not assure admission, since the Board of Admission require examination in September in all points not satisfactorily covered, and reserve the right to exclude any candidate whose preparation is in their judgment so defective as to debar her from carrying successfully the work of the freshman year.

The admission subjects are divided into two groups, as follows:—

Preliminaries: French 3 point requirement (except Prose

* By special permission two points in Spanish may be offered in place of two points in French or in German or in Greek.
† See page 34.
Composition and the use of the spoken language), German 3 point requirement (except Prose Composition and the use of the spoken language), Greek 3 point requirement (except Prose Composition), History (prescribed point), Latin (except Prose Composition), Plane Geometry. Examinations in Preliminaries may be taken at any time during the college preparatory course.

Finals: Algebra, Botany, Chemistry, English, French (2 point requirement, the Prose Composition and the use of the spoken language of the 3 point requirement), German (2 point requirement, the Prose Composition and the use of the spoken language of the 3 point requirement), Greek (1 point requirement, 2 point requirement, the Prose Composition of the 3 point requirement), History (second point), Latin Prose Composition, Music, Physics. Examinations in Finals may be taken at any time during the last two years before admission, provided at least three are taken during the last year. Candidates are advised to take English Composition and Algebra in the last year.

The regulation in regard to the time of examination applies to final examinations held by principals of schools, preliminary to granting certificates, as well as to the admission examinations.

A candidate for admission must be at least sixteen years of age, and must present satisfactory evidence of good moral character and good health. A statement from the applicant’s physician to the effect that she is organically sound and in good health, together with a certificate of vaccination must be filed with the Secretary to the Board of Admission before June first of the year in which admission is sought. Each candidate before she is formally accepted is given a thorough physical examination. The College reserves the right to reject any candidate if the results of this examination in the opinion of the medical staff justify such action or to accept the candidate only on the understanding that she will take five years to complete the course.
The student who has met all entrance requirements is qualified for immediate matriculation for the Baccalaureate degree in Arts. All communications concerning admission should be addressed to the Secretary to the Board of Admission, Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.

DEFINITION OF REQUIREMENTS

The number enclosed in parentheses following the subject indicates the number of points assigned to that subject, that is, the number of years with five recitations a week which will normally be required in the secondary school for adequate preparation in the subject. If the certificate of a candidate shows that the time given to any subject is less than that indicated as necessary by the number of points an examination may be required.

ENGLISH (3)

The study of English in school has two main objects: (1) command of correct and clear English, spoken and written; (2) ability to read with accuracy, intelligence and appreciation.

Grammar and Composition.

The first object requires instruction in grammar and composition. English grammar should ordinarily be reviewed in the secondary school; and correct spelling and grammatical accuracy should be rigorously exacted in connection with all written work during the four years. The principles of English composition governing punctuation, the use of words, sentences, and paragraphs should be thoroughly mastered; and practice in composition, oral as well as written, should extend throughout the secondary school period. Written exercises may well comprise letter-writing, narration, description, and easy exposition and argument. It is advisable that subjects for this work be taken from the student's personal experience, general knowledge, and studies other than English, as well as from her reading in literature. Finally, special instruction in language and composition should be accompanied by concerted effort of teachers in all branches to cultivate in the student the habit of using good English in her recitations and various exercises, whether oral or written.

To meet the requirement in Composition, there should be practice in writing equivalent to fortnightly themes the first two years, and weekly themes the last two years of the preparatory course. Themes should be accompanied by simple outlines. The following books are suggested: Scott and Denney's Composition—Rhetoric; Neal's Thought Building in Composition; Robbins and Perkins's Introduction to the Study of Rhetoric supplemented by Herrick and Damon's Composition and Rhetoric; Shackford and Judson's Composition—Rhetoric—Literature.

Literature.

The second object is sought by means of two lists of books, headed respectively Reading and Study, from which may be framed a progressive course in literature covering four years. In connection with both lists, the student should be trained in reading aloud and be encouraged to commit to memory some of the more notable passages both in verse and in prose. As an aid to literary appreciation, she is further advised to acquaint herself with the most important facts in the lives of the authors whose works she reads and with their place in literary history.

Suggestions Concerning Examination

However accurate in subject-matter, no paper will be considered satisfactory if seriously defective in punctuation, spelling, or other essentials of good usage.

1. Grammar and Composition

In grammar and composition, the candidate may be asked specific questions upon the practical essentials of these studies, such as the relation of the various parts of a sentence to one another, the construction of individual words in a sentence of reasonable difficulty, and those good usages of modern English, which one should know in distinction from current errors. The main test in composition will consist of one or more essays, developing a theme through several paragraphs; the subjects will be drawn from the books read, from the candidate’s other studies and from her personal knowledge and experience quite apart from reading. For this purpose the examiner will provide several subjects, perhaps eight or ten, from which the candidate may make her own selections. She will not be expected to write more than four hundred words per hour.

2. Literature

The examination in literature will include:—

A. General questions designed to test such a knowledge and appreciation of literature as may be gained by fulfilling the requirements defined under A, Reading, below. The candidate will be required to submit a list of the books read in preparation for the examination, certified by the principal of the school in which she was prepared; but this list will not be made the basis of detailed questions.

B. A test on the books prescribed for study, which will consist of questions upon their content, form, and structure, and upon the meaning of such words, phrases, and allusions as may be necessary to an understanding of the works and an appreciation of their salient qualities of style. General questions may also be asked concerning the lives of the authors, their other works, and the periods of literary history to which they belong.

The final examinations in English must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in “Finals.” See page 27.

Texts for 1917, 1918, and 1919

A. Reading.

The aim of this course is to foster in the student the habit of intelligent reading and to develop a taste for good literature, by giving her a first-hand knowledge of some of its best specimens. She should read the books carefully, but her attention should not be so fixed upon details that she fails to appreciate the main purpose and charm of what she reads.

With a view to large freedom of choice, the books provided for reading are arranged in the following groups, from each of which at least two selections are to be made, except as otherwise provided under Group I.

Group I (Classics in Translation). The Old Testament, comprising at least the chief narrative episodes in Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, and Daniel, together with the books of Ruth and Esther. The Odyssey, with the omission, if desired, of Books I, II, III, IV, V, XV, XVI, XVII. The Iliad, with the omission, if desired, of Books XI, XIII, XIV, XV, XVII, XXI. The Æneid. The Odyssey, Iliad, and Æneid should be read in English translations of recognized literary excellence.

(For any selection from this group a selection from any other group may be substituted.)

Group II (Shakespeare). Midsummer Night's Dream, Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Twelfth Night, The Tempest, Romeo and Juliet, King John, Richard II, Richard III, Henry V, Coriolanus, Julius Caesar,* Macbeth,* Hamlet.*

Group III (Prose Fiction). Malory, Morte d'Arthur (about 100 pages); Bunyan, Pilgrim's Progress, Part I; Swift, Gulliver's Travels (voyages to Lilliput and to Brobdingnag); Defoe, Robinson Crusoe, Part I; Goldsmith, Vicar of Wakefield; Frances Burney, Evelina; Scott’s Novels, any one; Jane Austen’s Novels, any one; Maria Edgeworth, Castle Rackrent or The Absentee; Dickens’s Novels, any one; Thackeray’s Novels, any one; George Eliot’s Novels, any one; Mrs. Gaskell, Cranford; Kingsley, Westward Ho! or Hereward, the Wake; Reade, The Cloister and the Hearth; Blackmore, Lorna Doone; Hughes, Tom Brown's Schooldays; Stevenson's Treasure Island, or Kidnapped, or Master of Ballantrae; Cooper's Novels, any one; Poe, Selected Tales; Hawthorne, The House of the Seven Gables, or Twice Told Tales, or Mosses from an Old Manse; a collection of Short Stories by various standard writers.

Group IV (Essays, Biography, etc.). Addison and Steele, The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers, or selections from the Tatler and the Spectator (about 200 pages); Boswell, selections from the Life of Johnson (about 200 pages); Franklin, Autobiography; Irving, selections from the Sketch Book (about 200 pages), or Life of Goldsmith; Southey, Life of Nelson; Lamb, selections from the Essays of Elia (about 100 pages); Lockhart, selections from the Life of Scott (about 200 pages); Thackeray, lectures on Swift, Addison, and Steele in the English Humorists; Macaulay, any one of the following essays: Lord Clive, Warren Hastings, Milton, Addison, Goldsmith, Frederic the Great, Madame d'Arblay; Trevelyan, selections from the Life of Macaulay (about 200 pages); Ruskin, Sesame and Lilies or selections (about 150 pages); Dana, Two Years before the Mast; Lincoln, selections, including at least the two Inaugurals, the Speeches in Independence Hall and at Gettysburg, the Last Public Address, the Letter to Horace Greeley, together with a brief memoir or estimate of Lincoln; Parkman, The Oregon Trail; Thoreau, Walden; Lowell, Selected Essays (about 150 pages); Holmes, The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table; Stevenson, An Inland Voyage and Travels with a Donkey; Huxley, Autobiography and selections from Lay Sermons, including the addresses on Improving Natural Knowledge, A Liberal Education, and A Piece of Chalk; a collection of Essays by Bacon, Lamb, DeQuincey, Hazlitt, Emerson, and later writers; a collection of Letters by various standard writers.

* If not chosen for study under B.

Group V (Poetry). Palgrave’s Golden Treasury (First Series), Books II and III, with special attention to Dryden, Collins, Gray, Cowper, and Burns; Palgrave’s Golden Treasury (First Series), Book IV, with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley (if not chosen for study under B); Goldsmith, The Traveller and The Deserted Village; Pope, The Rape of the Lock; a collection of English and Scottish Ballads, as, for example, some Robin Hood ballads, The Battle of Otterburn, King Estmere, Young Beichan, Berwick and Grahame, Sir Patrick Spens, and a selection from later ballads; Coleridge, The Ancient Mariner, Christabel, and Kubla Khan; Byron, Childe Harold, Canto III or IV, and The Prisoner of Chillon; Scott, The Lady of the Lake, or Marmion; Macaulay, The Lay of Ancient Rome, The Battle of Naseby, The Armada, Ivry; Tennyson, The Princess, or Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, and The Passing of Arthur; Browning, Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, Hervé Riel, Pheidippides, My Last Duchess, Up at a Villa—Down in the City, The Italian in England, The Patriot, “De Gustibus,” The Pied Piper, Instans Tyrannus; Arnold, Sohrab and Rustum, and The Forsaken Merman; Selections from American Poetry, with special attention to Poe, Lowell, Longfellow, and Whittier.

B. Study.

This part of the requirement is intended as a natural and logical continuation of the student’s earlier reading, with greater stress laid upon form and style, the exact meaning of words and phrases, and the under standing of allusions. The books provided for study are arranged in four groups, from each of which one selection is to be made.

Group III (Oratory). Burke, Speech on Conciliation with America; Macaulay’s two Speeches on Copyright and Lincoln’s Speech at Cooper Union; Washington’s Farewell Address and Webster’s First Bunker Hill Oration.

HISTORY (1 or 2)

Prescribed Point

A full year course in one of the following subjects:—

(1) Ancient History, including a brief introductory study of the earlier nations, but with special emphasis on Greek History to the death of Alexander, and on Roman History to the accession of Commodus.

(2) English History, with due regard to social and political development.

(3) American History, with the elements of Civil Government.

Candidates are advised to offer the course in Ancient History as a part of their preparation.

In the subject chosen, the student should acquire accurate knowledge of the history as presented in a standard text-book of not less than 300 pages, and should read such fuller authorities as may be available, in amount not less than 500 pages. Some practice in drawing maps to illustrate territorial changes, in making digests of lectures and reading, and in preparing verbal or written reports on subjects assigned for individual investigation is essential to successful work.

Students presenting themselves for examination are expected to bring notebooks, maps, and essays, that may serve as supplementary evidence of the character of their preparation.
Elective Point

A candidate may offer one of these three subjects as a second point in History in place of the one point requirement in Greek, Music, or Science, provided that one of the two points offered is Ancient History, and that the work for the second point is done during the last two years of the preparatory course.

The final examination in the second point in History must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

MATHEMATICS (3)

Algebra.—Factors, Common Divisors and Multiples, Ratio and Proportion, Theory of Exponents including Imaginaries, Radicals and Equations involving Radicals, Inequalities, Quadratic Equations (including the theory), Binomial Theorem, Arithmetic and Geometric Progressions.

The final examination in Algebra must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

Plane Geometry.—As found in Chauvenet, or its equivalent.

Deficiency in preparation usually results from one or more of the following causes: the use of text-books which are too elementary, insufficient time spent in preparation, neglect of exercises in original demonstration in Geometry, and of reviews in both Algebra and Geometry. It is strongly urged that there be constant exercise in original demonstration in Geometry, with frequent written examinations in both Algebra and Geometry, the problems proposed being drawn from other sources than the text-books.

LATIN (4)

The requirements are based on recommendations made by the Commission on College Entrance Requirements in Latin, as embodied in Document No. 82 of the College Entrance Examination Board.

I. Amount and Range of the Reading Required

(1) The Latin reading, without regard to the prescription of particular authors and works, shall be not less in amount than Cæsar, Gallic War, I-IV; Cicero, the orations, against Catiline, for the Manilian Law, and for Archias; Vergil, Æneid, I-VI.

The amount of reading as stated above must be prepared translation.

(2) The amount of reading specified above shall be selected by the schools from the following authors and works: Cæsar (Gallic War and Civil War) and Nepos (Lives); Cicero (orations, letters, and De Senectute) and Sallust (Catiline and Jugurthine War); Vergil (Bucolics, Georgics, and Æneid) and Ovid (Metamorphoses, Fasti, and Tristia).

II. Scope of the Examinations

(1) Translation at Sight. Candidates will be examined in translation at sight of both prose and verse. The vocabulary, constructions, and range of ideas of the passages set will be suited to the preparation secured by the reading indicated above.

(2) Prescribed Reading. Candidates will be examined also upon the following prescribed reading: Cicero, orations for the Manilian Law and for Archias, and Vergil, Æneid, I, II, and either IV or VI, at the option of the candidate, with questions on subject-matter, literary and historical allusions, and prosody. Every paper in which passages from the prescribed reading are set for translation will contain also one or more passages for translation at sight; and candidates must deal satisfactorily with both these parts of the paper, or they will not be given credit for either part.

(3) Grammar and Composition. The examinations in grammar and composition will demand thorough knowledge of all regular inflections, all common irregular forms, and the ordinary syntax and vocabulary of the prose authors read in school, with ability to use this knowledge in writing simple Latin prose.

The final examination in Prose Composition must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in “Finals.” See page 27.
It should be noted that this examination should be the equivalent of Latin 6 under the College Entrance Examination Board.

Suggestions Concerning Preparation

Exercises in translation at sight should begin in school with the first lessons in which Latin sentences of any length occur, and should continue throughout the course with sufficient frequency to insure correct methods of work on the part of the student. From the outset particular attention should be given to developing the ability to take in the meaning of each word—and so, gradually, of the whole sentence—just as it stands; the sentence should be read and understood in the order of the original, with full appreciation of the force of each word as it comes, so far as this can be known or inferred from that which has preceded, and from the form and the position of the word itself. The habit of reading in this way should be encouraged and cultivated as the best preparation for all the translating that the student has to do. No translation, however, should be a mechanical paraphrase. Nor should it be a mere loose paraphrase. The full meaning of the passage to be translated, gathered in the way described above, should finally be expressed in clear and natural English.

A written examination cannot test the ear or tongue, but proper instruction in any language will necessarily include the training of both. The school work in Latin, therefore, should include much reading aloud, writing from dictation, and translation from the teacher's reading. Learning suitable passages by heart is also very useful, and should be more practiced.

The work in composition should give the student a better understanding of the Latin she is reading at the time, and greater facility in reading.

Systematic and regular work in composition during the time in which poetry is read is required; for this work the prose authors already studied should be used as models.

Equivalents are accepted, but verse is not accepted in place of prose, nor anything instead of the required translation of English into Latin.

The teachers of Latin in the preparatory schools are urged to insist upon the use of good English in translation.

The study of Greek is strongly recommended to candidates who plan to elect courses in Latin in college.

Ability to read at sight easy French or German prose is of great advantage to all classical students.
GREEK (1 or 2 or 3)

3 Point Requirement

Grammar. The etymology must be thoroughly mastered.

Prose Composition. At least forty written exercises based upon the Greek of Xenophon, including connected passages and accompanied by a systematic study of the main principles of syntax.

The final examination in Prose Composition must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

Xenophon, Anabasis, three books.

Homer, Iliad, three books, with scansion.

Candidates must be prepared to translate at sight both Attic and Homeric Greek of average difficulty, and to write in Greek a connected passage based upon Xenophon.

Particular attention should be given to the correct writing of Greek with the accents, to exercises both oral and written, and to the use of the blackboard for constant practice upon forms and constructions.

2 Point Requirement

Grammar. Systematic study of etymology and of the main principles of Attic Greek syntax. Constant practice in oral and written translation from English into Greek.

Prose Composition. At least twenty written exercises based upon the Greek read, including connected passages.

Xenophon, Anabasis. Three books, or an equivalent amount in selections from Attic prose writers of average difficulty.

The final examination in the 2 point requirement in Greek must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

1 Point Requirement

The final examination in the 1 point requirement in Greek must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.
The teachers of Greek in the preparatory schools are urged to insist upon the use of good English in translation.

Ability to read at sight easy French or German prose is of great advantage to all classical students.

FRENCH (2 or 3)

The requirements follow the recommendations of the Modern Language Association embodied in Document No. 82 of the College Entrance Examination Board.

See page 40 for suggestions concerning preparation in the case of students expecting to enter Wellesley College.

2 Point Requirement

(Termed "A, Elementary," by the College Entrance Examination Board.)

The Aim of the Instruction

At the end of the elementary course the pupil should be able to pronounce French accurately, to read at sight easy French prose, to put into French simple English sentences taken from the language of everyday life or based upon a portion of the French text read, and to answer questions on the rudiments of the grammar as defined below.

The Work to be Done

During the first year the work should comprise:—

1. Careful drill in pronunciation.
2. The rudiments of grammar, including the inflection of the regular and the more common irregular verbs, the plural nouns, the inflection of adjectives, participles, and pronouns; the use of personal pronouns, common adverbs, prepositions, and conjunctions; the order of words in the sentence, and the elementary rules of syntax.
3. Abundant easy exercises, designed not only to fix in the memory the forms and principles of grammar, but also to cultivate readiness in the reproduction of natural forms of expression.

(4) The reading of from 100 to 175 duodecimo pages of graduated texts, with constant practice in translating into French easy variations of the sentences read (the teacher giving the English) and in reproducing from memory sentences previously read.

(5) Writing French from dictation.
During the second year the work should comprise:

(1) The reading of from 250 to 400 pages of easy modern prose in the form of stories, plays, or historical or biographical sketches.

(2) Constant practice, as in the previous year, in translating into French easy variations upon the texts read.

(3) Frequent abstracts, sometimes oral and sometimes written, of portions of the text already read.

(4) Writing French from dictation.

(5) Continued drill upon the rudiments of grammar, with constant application in the construction of sentences.

(6) Mastery of the forms and use of pronouns, pronominal adjectives, of all but the rare irregular verb forms, and of the simpler uses of the conditional and subjunctive.

The final examination in the 2 point requirement in French must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

3 Point Requirement

(Termed "B, Intermediate," by the College Entrance Examination Board.)

THE AIM OF THE INSTRUCTION

At the end of the intermediate course the pupil should be able to read at sight ordinary French prose or simple poetry, to translate into French a connected passage of English based on the text read, and to answer questions involving a more thorough knowledge of syntax than is expected in the elementary course.
the work to be done

This should comprise the reading of from 400 to 600 pages* of French of ordinary difficulty, a portion to be in the dramatic form ‡; constant practice in giving French paraphrases, abstracts or reproductions from memory of selected portions of the matter read; the study of a grammar of moderate completeness; writing from dictation.†

Suggestions Concerning Preparation for the 2 and 3 Point Requirements

1. Emphasis should be laid on the correct daily use of the spoken language in the class room, on the correct and intelligent reading of French (apart from translation) and on direct composition, including the writing of short themes in French.

2. From the outset particular attention should be given to developing the ability to take in the meaning of each word—and so, gradually, of the whole sentence—just as it stands; the sentence should be read and understood in the order of the original, with full appreciation of the force of each word as it comes, so far as this can be known or inferred from that which has preceded, and from the form and the position of the word itself. The habit of reading in this way should be encouraged and cultivated as the best preparation for all the work that the student has to do.

3. It is particularly urged that the reading be chosen from nineteenth century writers of prose, verse, and drama, and if possible from more than five authors.

The texts suggested are:

(1) For the 2 point requirement: Laboulaye: Contes bleus; Daudet: Trois Contes Choisis; France: Abeille; Malot: Sans Famille; de la Brêche: Mon Oncle et Mon Curé; Enault: Le Chien du Capitaine; Legouvé et Labiche: La Cigale chez les Fourmis; Daudet: Choix d’Extraits, or Le Petit Chose; Vigny: La Canne de Jone; Augier: Le Gendre de M. Poirier; Fontcin: Le Pays de France, or Lavisse: Histoire de France, IIe année (Armand Colin, Paris).

(2) For the 3 point requirement: Lamartine: Scènes de la Révolution française; Maupassant: Huit Contes Choisis; About: Le Roi des Montagnes; Balzac: Le Curé de Tours; Colin: Contes et Saynètes; Colin: Advanced Sight Translation; Sandeau: Mlle. de la Seiglière; Scribe et Legouvé: Bataille de Dames.

* i. e., In addition to the 2 point requirement.
‡ A part of this may be critical reading, a part rapid or outside reading.
† From texts not previously memorized.
The final examination in the 3 point requirement in French must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

GERMAN (2 or 3)

The requirements follow the recommendations of the Modern Language Association embodied in Document No. 82 of the College Entrance Examination Board.

See pages 42 and 43 for suggestions concerning preparation in the case of students expecting to enter Wellesley College.

2 Point Requirement

(Termed "A, Elementary," by the College Entrance Examination Board.)

During the first year the work should comprise:—

(1) Careful drill upon pronunciation.

(2) The memorizing and frequent repetition of easy colloquial sentences.

(3) Drill upon the rudiments of grammar, that is, upon the inflection of the articles, of such nouns as belong to the language of everyday life, of adjectives, pronouns, weak verbs, and the more usual strong verbs, also upon the use of the more common prepositions, the simpler uses of the modal auxiliaries, and the elementary rules of syntax and word order.

(4) Abundant easy exercises designed not only to fix in mind the forms and principles of grammar, but also to cultivate readiness in the reproduction of natural forms of expression.

(5) The reading of from *75 to 100 pages of graduated texts from a reader, with constant practice in translating into German easy variations upon sentences selected from the reading lesson (the teacher giving the English), and in the reproduction from memory of sentences previously read.

During the second year the work should comprise:—

(1) The reading of from *150 to 200 pages of literature in the form of easy stories and plays.

* See "Suggestions Concerning Preparation," on pages 42, 43.
(2) Accompanying practice, as before, in the translation into German of easy variations upon the matter read and also in the off-hand reproduction, sometimes orally and sometimes in writing, of the substance of short and easy selected passages.

(3) Continued drill upon the rudiments of the grammar, directed to the ends of enabling the pupil, first, to use her knowledge with facility in the formation of sentences, and, secondly, to state her knowledge correctly in the technical language of grammar.

The final examination in the 2 point requirement in German must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

3 Point Requirement

(Termed "B, Intermediate," by the College Entrance Examination Board.)

THE WORK TO BE DONE

The work should comprise in addition to the elementary course,† the reading of about 400 * pages of moderately difficult prose and poetry, with constant practice in giving, sometimes orally and sometimes in writing, paraphrases, abstracts, or reproductions from memory of selected portions of the matter read; also grammatical drill upon the less usual strong verbs, the use of articles, cases, auxiliaries of all kinds, tenses and modes (with special reference to the infinitive and subjunctive), and likewise upon word-order and word-formation.

The final examination in the 3 point requirement in German must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

Suggestions Concerning Preparation for the 2 and 3 Point Requirements

1. The books selected for class study should be thoroughly German in character and content. Intensive work on a comparatively small

* See "Suggestions Concerning Preparation," on pages 42, 43.
† That is, the 2 point requirement. number of pages is preferred to a more superficial study of a larger number of pages.

For the 2 point requirement the number of pages read in class should, in general, not exceed 300; but in no case should the amount be less than 225 pages. Not more than 100 of these pages should be taken from readers arranged especially for beginners.

For the 3 point requirement not more than 600 pages in all (i. e., 300 in addition to the maximum amount for the 2 point requirement) should, in general, be read; but never less than 500 pages. Not more than one work of the classical period of German Literature should be included. Besides this intensive reading, some rapid home reading of easier texts (100 pages or more) is strongly urged.

2. The results desired can not be obtained if a considerable portion of the time is spent on translation from German into English, or vice versa.

3. Features that should not be neglected are:
   a. Vocabulary.—The careful study of a goodly number of common words and expressions drawn chiefly from the texts read.
   b. Frequent practice in the oral and written use of the language without the medium of English. This should consist partly in answering in German questions put in German, based on all the texts read intensively in class, partly in reproducing in German, without the aid of questions, the contents of these texts (Freie Reproduktion).

BOTANY (I)

The requirement is met by the course outlined in the Report of the College Entrance Examination Board, Document No. 82.

The course should cover:

(1) The general principles of plant anatomy, morphology, physiology, and ecology.

(2) A general knowledge of the great groups or phyla of plants.

In the second part of the course students should not only become familiar with the primary subdivisions of the great groups, but should be able to trace the evolution of plant forms by means of a comparative study of representative plants in the various groups.

Individual laboratory work by the students is essential and should receive at least double the amount of time given to lecture and recitation. Records of the laboratory work, properly certified by the teacher, in which stress is laid upon diagrammatically accurate drawing and precise expressive description, must be presented on or before June fifteenth.

The final examination in Botany must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

CHEMISTRY (I)

The requirement is met by the course outlined in the Report of the College Entrance Examination Board, Document No. 82.

The student should perform experiments in the laboratory to illustrate the properties of the most important elements, both metallic and non-metallic, and their compounds, and it is strongly recommended that a few of these experiments should be of a quantitative nature. Work in qualitative analysis is not recommended.

In addition to an examination or certificate of examination, the student will be required to present notebooks of laboratory work. These notebooks must be indexed and bear the endorsement of the teacher, certifying that the notes are a true record of the student’s work, and must be presented on or before June fifteenth. In case the notebook is lacking or inadequate, a laboratory test will be given.

The final examination in Chemistry must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in "Finals." See page 27.

PHYSICS (I)

The requirement is met by the course outlined in the Report of the College Entrance Examination Board, Document No. 82. In addition to an examination, or a certificate of examination, the student will be required to present notebooks of laboratory work. These notebooks must be indexed and bear the endorsement of the teacher, certifying that the notes are a true record of the student’s work, and they must be presented on or before June fifteenth.

The final examination in Physics must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in “Finals.” See page 27.

MUSIC (1)

The requirement in Music (Harmony) is met by passing the Examination in Music B (Harmony) set by the College Entrance Examination Board.

This requirement is defined by the College Entrance Examination Board as follows:—

The examination in Harmony will consist only of a written test; there will be no test in performance. The candidate should have acquired:—

(1) The ability to harmonize, in four vocal parts, simple melodies of not fewer than eight measures, in soprano or in bass; these melodies will require a knowledge of triads and inversions, of diatonic seventh chords and inversions, in the major and minor modes; and of modulation, transient or complete, to nearly-related keys.

(2) Analytical knowledge of ninth chords, all non-harmonic tones, and altered chords including augmented chords. (Students are encouraged to apply this knowledge in their harmonization.)

It is urgently recommended that systematic ear-training (as to interval, melody, and chord) be a part of the preparation for this examination. Simple exercises in harmonization at the pianoforte are recommended. The student will be expected to have a full knowledge of the rudiments of music, scales, intervals and staff notation, including the terms and expression marks in common use.

The examination in Music must be taken in accordance with the regulation for examination in “Finals.” See page 27.
ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION
JUNE EXAMINATIONS

Candidates who propose to enter by examination must take all examinations in June, except such as, by permission, may be postponed until September.

The admission examinations conducted at Wellesley College in June are the examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board, of which Wellesley College is a member. These examinations will be held June 18–23, 1917.

The College Entrance Examination Board will furnish a list of places at which these examinations will be held.

Below will be found the list of examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board, corresponding to the requirements for admission to Wellesley College.

English: 1, 2.
History: A, or C, or D.
Mathematics: A, C.
Latin: 4, 5, 6.
Second Language:

3 Point Requirement
Greek: A (i), F, BG, and CH;
French: A, B;
German: A, B.

2 Point Requirement *
French: A;
German: A;
Greek: A(i), F, BG.

Science and other 1 Point Subjects
Botany;
Chemistry;
Physics;
† History;
Music: B.

* By special permission from the Board of Admission of Wellesley College two points in Spanish may be offered in place of two points in French or in German or in Greek.
† See page 34.
All applications for examination, and all other inquiries must be addressed to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117th St., New York, N. Y. Applications must be made upon a blank form to be obtained from the Secretary of the Board.

A list of places at which the examinations are to be held in June, 1917, will be published about March 1st. In order that they may receive proper consideration, requests that the examinations be held at particular points should be transmitted to the Secretary of the Board not later than February 1st.

Applications for examination at points in the United States east of the Mississippi River (also at Minneapolis, St. Louis, and other points on the Mississippi River), must be received by the Secretary on or before Monday, June 4, 1917; applications for admission to examination elsewhere in the United States or in Canada must be received on or before Monday, May 28, 1917; and applications for examination at points outside the United States and Canada must be received on or before Monday, May 14, 1917.

Applications received later than the dates named will be accepted when it is possible to arrange for the examination of the candidates concerned, but only upon payment of five dollars in addition to the usual examination fee. Candidates filing belated applications do so at their own risk.

The examination fee is five dollars for all candidates examined at points in the United States and Canada, and fifteen dollars for all candidates examined at points outside of the United States and Canada. The fee should be remitted by postal order, express order, or draft on New York to the order of the College Entrance Examination Board.

SEPTEMBER EXAMINATIONS

Admission examinations are offered by the College in September as heretofore. In general these examinations are open to those candidates only who propose to enter the current September.
SCHEDULE OF EXAMINATIONS
SEPTEMBER, 1917

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

                 Greek, 2 points.

ADMISSION BY CERTIFICATE

Any school whose equipment and curriculum enable it to prepare students for the freshman class, upon complying with the regulations stated below, may receive the right to give a certificate of scholarship which shall exempt the candidate from college examinations for admission in the subject satisfactorily covered by the certificate.
RIGHT OF CERTIFICATION

Any school in New England desiring the right of certification should apply to the Secretary of the New England College Entrance Certificate Board, Prof. Frank W. Nicolson, Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., before April first of the year in which it is proposed to make use of the privilege.

Any school outside New England desiring the right of certification should apply to the Board of Admission between October first and March first of any year.

In response to this application a blank form will be sent, which the principal is requested to fill out and return, sending with it a catalogue or circular of the school. Specimen laboratory notebooks must be submitted before science courses will be approved.

During the interval between March first and October first applications for the right of certification will not be considered by the Board of Admission.

In case the credentials of the school are approved by the Board of Admission, the right of certification is given for three years. At the expiration of this time the renewal of the right will depend upon the number of students sent during the three years either to Wellesley College or to some other college of equal rank, and upon the character of the preparation of these students as shown by their college record. The right of certification may be withdrawn at any time from a school which fails to give complete and satisfactory preparation.

CERTIFICATE OF SCHOLARSHIP

1. After a school has received the right of certification, the principal must present, upon a blank form furnished by the College, a certificate of scholarship for each candidate. Certificate blanks will be sent about April first to the principals of all accredited schools having candidates registered for the current year.

2. These certificates must be forwarded in time to be received at the College by July first. Science laboratory notebooks must be received at the College by June fifteenth.

On or before August first each candidate will be informed of the decision with regard to her certificate. Certificates received after July first may be refused and in any case the decision will be necessarily delayed to the great disadvantage of the candidate.

3. All certificates must show distinctly that the candidate has met in detail the requirements as published in the current Calendar. Whenever any variation has been allowed, the work done must be specifically stated and offered as an equivalent, to be accepted or refused. Attention is called to the division of the admission subjects into Preliminaries and Finals stated on pages 26, 27, and to the regulation in regard to the time of examination in "Finals."

4. All certificates must be signed by the principal of the school.

5. Partial certificates from two accredited schools will be accepted for the admission of a candidate only when permission has been obtained from the Board of Admission.

6. All work completed after July first must be tested by examination at the College in September. Certificates for such work will not be accepted.

7. The candidate who has received the certificate of a principal will not be exempt from the examinations for admission in any particular subject, unless her certificate shows that she has satisfactorily accomplished the full amount of work required in that subject. Any student whose certificate is found on July first to be seriously deficient, may be refused the privilege of taking examination the following September.

NEW PLAN OF ADMISSION FOR SEPTEMBER, 1919

Four women's colleges, Mount Holyoke, Smith, Vassar, and Wellesley, announce a new method of admission, to supersede the present system of admission by certificate.
In 1919 the new method will entirely replace admission by certificate and it may be used earlier if desired. The present method of admission by examination in all subjects will be continued as an alternative to the new plan. No change is made in the subjects now required for admission, no addition nor diminution in the amount prescribed for admission is proposed. The new plan is similar to that adopted by Harvard, Princeton, and Yale in prescribing a test of the quality of the applicant’s scholarship and intellectual power.

The examinations required in this plan are of the type known as comprehensive examinations offered by the College Entrance Examination Board.

The new method depends on two kinds of evidence:

1. Evidence submitted by the school, consisting of
   a. A school report covering the entire record of subjects and grades for four years.
   b. A statement from the school principal including an estimate of the applicant’s scholarly interests, special ability, and character.

2. Evidence submitted by the candidate, consisting of Four comprehensive examinations, selected from each of the following groups:
   (1) English or History, selected by the applicant.
   (2) A foreign language, selected by the applicant.
   (3) Mathematics, or Chemistry, or Physics, selected by the applicant.
   (4) A fourth subject, designated by the applicant from the subjects which may be offered for admission. This choice must be approved by the Committee on Admission of the respective colleges.

These four examinations must be taken at one time.

At least two examinations must cover more than two admission units * each.

*Note.—A unit as defined by the College Entrance Examination Board represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work.
In each subject chosen the comprehensive examination covering all the units offered by her for admission must be taken by the applicant.

It is desirable that applicants furnish school records and state the subjects selected for examination before February fifteenth of the year in which the examinations are to be taken. Candidates may apply for admission, however, at any time prior to the September examinations. (For time of application for admission, see page 25.)

The Committee on Admission of the individual college must give its permission, based upon the evidence submitted by the school, before the applicant may take the examinations. It is proposed that the comprehensive examination set by the College Entrance Examination Board be judged by readers appointed by this Board, and forwarded to the individual college for final decision by the college Committee on Admission.

Under the new plan the candidate, if admitted to college, will be admitted free from all conditions. Failure to meet completely the standard in both kinds of evidence required will not necessarily involve rejection of the applicant; the Committee may accept unusual excellence in one part of the credentials submitted as offsetting unsatisfactory evidence or even failure in another part. If the candidate fails of admission in June she will not be debarred from taking examinations under the old system in September, but she may not take the comprehensive examinations for admission under the new plan before June of the following year.

It is believed that this new type of admission combines the best elements of the present certificate system and of the examination system in that it requires the school record and estimate of character, and also demands examinations designed to test the candidate's intellectual power, not alone her memory of prescribed facts. Furthermore, the method offers the applicant the fullest opportunity to show her ability in subjects in which she believes herself best qualified.
This plan substitutes a uniform method of administration in place of the various certificate forms now used by the four colleges and gives the school entire freedom in the sequence of its work making no requirement of certain subjects in the last years.

Comprehensive examinations according to the new plan will be given by the College Entrance Examination Board, and applicants may enter college by satisfying these tests and furnishing the required evidence from their schools at any examination period before 1919, though this new plan will not entirely supersede admission by certificate until that date.

Admission to Advanced Standing

Candidates for advanced standing must fulfill the requirements for admission to the freshman class, and must also be prepared to be examined in the required studies previously pursued by the class which they wish to join, and in a sufficient number of electives to give full standing with that class.

Such candidates, if they come from other colleges, may present certificates of college work, but should clearly understand that these do not necessarily exempt them from examinations. Each candidate should apply for a statement of the credentials which she will need to present. These credentials are due not later than July first. Candidates for advanced standing whose credentials admit them to Junior or higher rank, will take precedence of candidates for the freshman class in the assignment of rooms.

All correspondence should be addressed to the College Recorder.

Candidates are referred to page 25 for the general statement as to the time at which applications should be made.
ADMISSION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE M.A. DEGREE

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts must be graduates of Wellesley College or of other institutions of satisfactory standing, and must present adequate credentials as to their ability to carry on the work for the M.A. degree.

Applications for admission as graduate students should be made upon forms which will be furnished by the College Recorder on request. It is desirable that the application be sent by May first of the year in which the student proposes to enter. It should be accompanied by records of standing, and, if possible, by papers and reports of work.

A matriculation fee of five dollars is payable when a student is accepted as a candidate for the Master's degree. The amount of this fee will be deducted from the diploma fee of twenty-five dollars payable when the degree is received.

Thirty scholarships, as described on page 168, are open to accepted candidates for the M.A. degree, not residing in college buildings.*

Circulars containing full information for graduate students will be sent on application to the College Recorder. For requirements for the M.A. degree see page 161.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS NOT CANDIDATES FOR A DEGREE

Applicants who give satisfactory evidence of ability to pursue advanced courses of study may be admitted at the discretion of the Board of Admission, provided that they satisfy the requirements of the departments which they propose to enter. It will be noted that opportunities of prosecuting work along special lines are thus open to persons of experience and success in teaching who possess the requisite qualifications for admission to college classes.

* With the present dormitory accommodations it is not ordinarily possible to reserve rooms on the campus for graduate students; if candidates secure places in college buildings they must pay the full charge for board and tuition.
Applicants of less maturity and acquirement are not ordinarily admitted, but if such desire admission they must expect to meet, by examination or by certificate from an accredited school, the requirements prescribed for admission to the freshman class, or a full equivalent for them and to satisfy such additional requirements as are prescribed by the departments which they propose to enter. Specific statements of these requirements in Music will be found on pages 140, 141; in Hygiene on page 116. Candidates for admission to the department of Hygiene must offer Chemistry or Physics.

All courses, graduate as well as undergraduate, are open to special students, subject to the conditions stated by the various departments; but every such student is expected to choose a primary subject to which she should devote the greater part of her time. A student who creditably completes a prescribed group of courses will be granted a certificate.

As the capacity of halls of residence is not sufficient for candidates for degrees, special students cannot be lodged in the college buildings. Comfortable homes may be found in the village at about the same expense as in college houses.

All correspondence should be addressed to the Secretary to the Board of Admission.
COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

The following Courses of Instruction are offered by the several departments. The College reserves the right to withdraw the offer of any course not chosen by at least six students.

All courses are classified in grades I, II, III; grade I including elementary courses and grade III the most advanced courses. The Roman numeral following the title of a course indicates the grade to which it belongs.

CLASSICAL ARCHAEOLOGY

Professor: Alice Walton, Ph.D.

1. Introduction to Classical Archaeology (Art 2). III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two full courses in either Art, or Greek, or Latin, or who have completed one full course and are taking a second in any of these three departments. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Walton.

The course will present the principles of the development of Greek and Roman Art, as expressed in sculpture and the minor arts, such as vases, coins, gems, and painting. The treatment will be by periods, not by subject, and the work of the fifth and fourth centuries will be especially emphasized. In 1916–1917 less attention will be paid to the prehistoric (Cretan and Mycenaean) and archaic periods than to the Hellenistic and Roman periods. In 1917–1918 the reverse method will be followed.

3†. Topography of Greek sites with special reference to Athens. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed three full courses in Greek. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Walton.

† Archaeology 3–4 and Latin 15–18 are not usually given in the same year.
The work will be based upon the text of Pausanias, in which there will be practice in rapid reading, besides close study of architectural history based on certain portions.

4‡. History of Greek Pottery. III.

Open to students who have completed course 1 and have studied Greek for one year. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Walton.

The course will include the sequence of decorative styles and the principles of design in vase painting with especial emphasis upon the great period of the fifth century. Constant reference will be made to the collection of vases in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

5. Greek and Roman Coins. III.

Open to students who have completed course 4. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Walton.

Greek coin types will be considered especially for their artistic quality. Roman coins for their historical value.

ART

Professor: Alice Van Vechten Brown.
Instructors: Alice Walton, Ph.D., Professor of Archaeology.
Myrtilla Avery, M.A., Curator.
Bertha Knickerbocker Straight, B.A.
Ella Bertine Lucas.

Lecturers: Eliza Jacobus Newkirk, M.A.
Paul Joseph Sachs, B.A.

Museum Assistant: Celia Howard Hersey, B.A.
Assistant Cataloguer: Jean Rankin.

1. History of Architecture from the Classic Period through the Renaissance. II.

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Newkirk.

‡ Archaeology 3-4 and Latin 15-18 are not usually given in the same year.
The aim of this course is to give a general view of the development of styles and a thorough understanding of their essential elements, both constructive and decorative.

First semester: Introduction to the subject and history of Architecture from the classic to the Gothic periods.

2. Classical Sculpture (Archæology i). III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two full courses in either Art, or Greek, or Latin, or who have completed one full course and are taking a second in any one of these three departments. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Walton.

The course will present the principles of the development of Greek and Roman Art, as expressed in sculpture and the minor arts, such as vases, coins, gems, and painting. The treatment will be by periods, not by subject, and the work of the fifth and fourth centuries will be especially emphasized. In 1916–1917 less attention will be paid to the prehistoric (Cretan and Mycenaean) and archaic periods than to the Hellenistic and Roman periods. In 1917–1918 the reverse method will be followed.

3. History of Italian Painting through the Fifteenth Century. I. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Three hours a week for a year.

The course will lay special emphasis on the qualities of composition and the analysis of individual paintings for the development of artistic appreciation.

Subject: As introduction, Early Christian and Byzantine art; Schools of the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries; Renaissance movement from Masaccio to its culmination; Schools of Siena, Umbria, and Venice through the fifteenth century.

Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Newkirk.

First semester: Renaissance Palaces in Italy, their origin and development. The Renaissance Villa.

10. History of Italian Painting during the High Renaissance. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Brown.

In this course critical study will be given to the position and quality of the following artists: Leonardo, Michelangelo, Raphael, Correggio, Giorgione, Titian, Tintoretto, and Veronese. Critical and artistic study of photographs is required, and an understanding of the methods used by Crowe and Cavalcaselle, Morelli, Berenson and other critics.

12. Introductory Course in the History of Art. I.

Open to freshmen, sophomores and juniors. Prerequisite to all other courses except course 13. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Brown, Miss Straight.

This course, while complete in itself, offers a review of the general development of architecture, sculpture, and painting as a foundation for further election, and aims to develop an appreciation of aesthetic values by means of a close study of photographs and the works themselves, through the laboratory method.

13. Outline Course in the History of Art. II.

Open to seniors only. Three hours a week for a year. No prerequisites.

Miss Avery.

This course furnishes an outline of the general development of styles in architecture, sculpture, and painting, and aims to give a general knowledge and aesthetic appreciation of important monuments.

18. Graduate Course in Italian Painting. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to graduates who have completed course 10 or its equivalent.

The course is intended to train in methods of attribution.
19. Certain Periods in Northern Art. III.

Open in 1916-1917 to students who have completed courses 1 and 3, and have completed or are taking course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Sachs.

In 1916-1917 this course will centre in Dürer and Rembrandt with their origins and influence, including discussion of Cranach, Holbein and The Little Masters, and Dürer’s residence in Italy.

Studio Practice

5. Studio Practice. I.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. No prerequisites. Three hours a week for the first semester. (Nine hours of studio practice.)

Miss Brown, Miss Straight, Miss Lucas.

Drawing, sketching, color-work, modeling.

14. Studio Practice. II.

Open to students who have completed course 5. Three hours a week for the second semester. (Nine hours of studio practice.)

Miss Brown.

Sketching, drawing from life, and color-work.

16. Studio Practice. II.

Open by permission of the instructor to juniors and seniors who have completed course 14. Three hours a week for the first semester. (Nine hours of studio practice.)

Design.

Miss Straight.

General Notes.—Practical work may be taken independently of the History of Art and will count toward the degree if one or more courses in the History of Art are taken before graduation. After one course in the History of Art has been completed, three hours of practical work as indicated in 5, 14, 16, above, equivalent to nine hours of practice, may count toward the degree; four and one-half hours of practical work, equivalent to thirteen and one-half hours of practice, may so count, if six hours in the History of Art have been completed.

Students in art courses are required to use laboratory methods, examining and comparing sketching or describing the photographs used in illustration.

Previous preparation in drawing is not required.

N. B. Any student who desires to give yearly the time of one full course to studio work throughout her college course may do so by spending five years in college before taking her degree instead of four.

The art library is open to students from 8.15 to 5.30 daily, and from 7.15 to 9.15 on announced evenings.

ASTRONOMY

Professor: John Charles Duncan, Ph.D.

Instructor: Leah Brown Allen, M.A.

Curator: Katharine Bullard Duncan.

1. Descriptive Astronomy. I.

Open to all undergraduates. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Duncan, Miss Allen.

A general survey of the facts of Astronomy, of the methods by which they are obtained and of the theories that account for them; facts with which every educated person should be familiar, in order to understand the astronomical allusions occurring in literature and to be alive to the beauty of the order that is about us.

2. Uranography. I.

Open to all undergraduates but limited as to number. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Allen.

This course will be given Monday evenings at 7.30 o’clock. On clear evenings, naked eye study of the constellations and telescopic observations of the moon, planets, and other objects of interest. On cloudy evenings, study of photographs, maps, and apparatus illustrating the motions of the heavenly bodies.
3. Modern Discoveries. II.

Open to students who have had course I and who have taken or are taking Physics or Chemistry. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Allen.

Practice with the equatorial telescope, and consultation of original memoirs in the detailed study of modern discoveries in reference to the solar system, variable stars, and stellar spectroscopy.

4. Observatory Practice. II. (Not given in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have had course I. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Duncan.

Practical work in the astronomy of position. Time, longitude, latitude, star catalogues, mean and apparent place. Use of the sextant, transit and other instruments of the observatory. Simple computations.

5. Astrophysics. III. (Not given in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have had a course in Differential Calculus and either a course in Astronomy or one in Optics. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Duncan.

6. Determination of Orbits. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have had Astronomy I and a year of Calculus. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Duncan.

Determination, from three observations, of the elliptic and parabolic orbits of bodies in the solar system. Orbits of visual and spectroscopic binary stars. Theory and practice.

Open to students who have had Differential and Integral Calculus. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Duncan.

The attraction of bodies of various forms under Newton's law of gravitation. The problems of two and of three bodies. Perturbations.

Courses 6 and 7 are companion courses and will usually be given in alternate years; both have a mathematical as well as astronomical interest. The trained astronomer should be acquainted with both.

BIBLICAL HISTORY, LITERATURE, AND INTERPRETATION

Professor: Eliza Hall Kendrick, Ph.D.
Angie Clara Chapin, M.A., professor of Greek.

Associate Professors: Adelaide Imogene Locke, B.A., S.T.B.
Katrine Wheelock, B.D.

Instructors: Muriel Anne Streibert, B.A., B.D.
Louise Pettibone Smith, M.A.
Seal Thompson, M.A.

I. Biblical History

The class of 1918 will meet the requirement for a degree by adding to courses I or Io (Calendar 1915-1916) or to courses 1. 2 described below one of the following courses: 3, 4, 5 or 8-12.

The class of 1919 and succeeding classes will meet the requirement by taking 1. 2 and a semester course in the New Testament to be announced next year.

1. 2. The Development of Thought in the Old Testament. I.

Required of sophomores. Course 1, three hours first semester.
Course 2, three hours second semester. Course 1 will be offered also in the second semester.

Miss Locke, Miss Streibert, Miss Smith, Miss Thompson.

It is the purpose of this course to offer studies in the development of religion and ethics in the Old Testament. There will be included such historical study of Hebrew national life and such presentation of the literary problems connected with the Old Testament writings as are necessary to make intelligible the development of thought.

3. The Development of Thought in the New Testament. II.

Open to students who have completed course I or 10. (Calendar 1915–1916.) Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Wheelock, Miss Thompson.

It is the purpose of this course to offer studies in the essential teachings of Christianity as represented by the several New Testament writers. There will be included such historical study of New Testament times and such presentation of the questions of New Testament introduction as are necessary to make intelligible the development of Christian thought.

4. The Life of Christ. II.

Open to students who have completed course I or 10. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Kendrick.

Aim: (1) To study the environment of Christ in the government, institutions, manner of life, ideals and literature of the Jewish people of His time.

(2) To follow the unfolding of His life from the historical point of view.

(3) To study the teachings of Christ: (a) in their historical connections as far as possible; (b) topically.

(4) To become acquainted with the leading problems regarding the person and work of Christ, with different points of view and with the best literature on the subject.

8‡. The Life of Paul. II.

Open to students who have completed course I or 10. Two hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Kendrick.

A study of the life and writings of Paul. The themes treated: Paul's environment and the influences affecting him; the facts of his life; the contents of his writings; his conception of Christianity; his influence in the church.

‡ Given as semester course in the year 1916–1917.
12‡. The Johannine Literature. II.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or 10. Two hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Kendrick.

The course is in two parts:—
(1) Special. Exegetical study of the Fourth Gospel.
(2) General. The Johannine literature as a whole. The relation of the Fourth Gospel to the narrative of the synoptic writers, and to the Christology of Paul.

5. Greek Testament. Text study of the Gospels. II.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or 10 and Greek 1. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Chapin.

First semester, the synoptic Gospels; second semester, the Gospel of St. John. Lectures and readings.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or 10 and Greek 1. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Chapin.

Readings from the books of Acts, the Epistles, and the early extra-canonical literature in Greek.

7. Sources of New Testament Greek in the Septuagint. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 5. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Chapin.

Quotations from the Old Testament in the New; lectures. Illustrative readings, chiefly from the Psalms in Greek.

9. History of Religions. III.

Open to students who have completed two courses in Biblical History. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Locke.

‡ Given as semester course in the year 1916–1917.
Introductory study of primitive religions followed by an outline comparative study of the rise and development of selections from the Old Testament.

II. Hebrew

I. Elementary Hebrew. III.

Open to juniors and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Smith.

The elements of Hebrew grammar, with practice in translation and the memorizing of a vocabulary. Reading of selections from the Old Testament.

At the end of the course the student should be able to read simple Hebrew and to use the language in the study of the Old Testament.

BOTANY

Professor: Margaret Clay Ferguson, Ph.D.

Associate Professors: Lincoln Ware Riddle, Ph.D.
Laetitia Morris Snow, Ph.D.

Assistant Professors: Mary Campbell Bliss, M.A.
Ruth Florence Allen, Ph.D.

Instructors: Alice Maria Ottley, M.A.

5. Plant Studies. I.

Open to freshmen and sophomores. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bliss, Miss Allen, Miss Heatley, Miss Fosdick, Mrs. Sax, Miss Beattie.

This course is designed to bring the student into sympathy with the plant world, to cultivate the power of careful observation, to give a knowledge of the fundamental principles of plant life and plant breeding, and of the general principles of floriculture. The course is developed on purely scientific lines, but, at the same time, it seeks so to relate our study of plants to all life as to give the student that familiar and intimate acquaintance with her living environment which makes for the broadest culture of to-day.

The structure and development of certain plants are studied from seed germination to fruit formation, and the more simple problems connected with the adjustment of plants to their surroundings are investigated. Students are trained to know the herbaceous plants in their spring condition, to recognize the early flowers, and to know our common trees both in their winter and in their summer aspect.

Open to students who have met the admission requirement or its equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Snow.

This course is intended for students who have had some elementary Botany and wish to continue the subject in college. It is designed to supplement the work already done in plant morphology, and to give training in the general principles of structural and field ecology. Whenever feasible the laboratory work will be conducted in the field.

1. General Botany. II.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to sophomores who have completed course 5 or its equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Riddle, Miss Snow, Miss Bliss.

This course treats of plant structures, plant physiology, the relation of plants to their environment, and the evolution of the plant kingdom. A certain amount of field work accompanies the laboratory studies.

2. Natural History of the Thallophytes and Bryophytes. III.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Riddle.
A study of the structure and classification of the Algae, Fungi, Lichens, Liverworts, and Mosses, of the occurrence of these plants in nature, and of their adaptation to the environment.

3. Taxonomy and Geographical Distribution of the Spermatophytes. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

4. Bacteria, Yeasts, and Moulds in the Home. II.

Open to students who have completed one full course in Botany or Chemistry or Zoology. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Snow, Miss Beattie.

This course is devoted to a consideration of bacteria, yeasts, and moulds in their relation to the affairs of daily life; special emphasis is placed on the importance of these organisms in the household, their connection with water and milk supplies, and with the preservation of foods.

Open to graduate students. Three or six hours a week for a year.

Mr. Riddle, Miss Snow, Miss Allen.

This is primarily a laboratory course, but a definite weekly appointment is made with each student for a report of the papers read and of the progress of her study; and a final paper or thesis embodying the results of her investigations is required. A special problem in one of the following subjects is assigned to each student: embryology, histology, physiology, ecology, taxonomy.

8. Ferns and Flowering Plants. II.

Open to students who have completed course 5 or 6. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Heatley.

This course aims to give a general knowledge of the ferns and "flowering plants," the basis of their classification, their inter-
12. Horticulture and Landscape Gardening. II.

Open to students who have completed course I or its equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Davis.

This course aims to give a knowledge of the ornamental plants, their classification, habit, propagation and culture; to develop artistic expression through the use of these plants in landscape gardening, and to give an appreciation of art in nature.

The lectures are supplemented by work in the greenhouse and the field, and by excursions for observation and study at the noted estates and collections near Boston.

13. Comparative Morphology, Cytology, and Embryology. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed course I. Three hours a week for the year.

Miss Allen.

Preliminary studies of the structure, development, and contents of the vegetable cell, nuclear and cell division, tissue formation. Especial emphasis is placed on tracing the development and homologies of sporogenous, reproductive, and embryological organs, and on the problems of evolution and inheritance. In connection with these studies, practical exercises are given in the most approved methods of cytological and histological technique.

14. Botanical Seminary. III.

Required of graduate students, and open to seniors by permission. One hour a week for the year.

Mr. Riddle, Miss Snow.

Readings and discussions of current literature; reports of problems under investigation; studies in the historical development of some phase of botanical knowledge.
CHEMISTRY

Professor: Charlotte Fitch Roberts, Ph.D.
Associate Professor: Charlotte Almira Bragg, B.S.
Instructors: Helen Somersby French, Ph.D.
Minnie Almira Graham, Ph.D.
Curator: Anne Taylor Caswell, B.A.
Graduate Assistant: Ethel Melissa Benedict, B.A.

1. Elementary Chemistry. Lectures and laboratory work.
   I.
   Open to all undergraduates. Three hours a week for a year.
   Miss Bragg, Miss French.

   Course 1 is for beginners in Chemistry, and is intended to familiarize the student with the important properties of the elements and their compounds, with their modes of preparation, and with such tests as shall lead up to the study of systematic Qualitative Analysis; also to present the laws governing chemical reactions, the meaning of chemical equations, and the more recent theories adopted in the science.

2. Qualitative Analysis. II.
   Open to students who have completed course 1 or 4. Three hours a week for the first semester.
   Miss Graham.

   The lectures of this course deal with the theory of solutions and the laws of chemical and physical equilibrium as a basis for analytical work, with special applications to the work of the laboratory. The separation and the characteristic reactions of the important metals and acids are learned by the analysis of solutions of known composition, and the work is constantly tested by the analysis of unknown substances.

4. General Chemistry. I.
   Open to students who have met the admission requirement or its equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.
   Miss Roberts.

   The course aims to give a thorough knowledge of the fundamental principles of the science, and to take up, so far as time allows, subjects of interest and importance in daily life.
5. Quantitative Analysis. II.

Open to students who have completed course 2. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Graham.

This course is designed to give training in manipulation in gravimetric and volumetric analysis. The theories discussed in course 2 are applied to the work of the laboratory, and problems related to the work are included in the class discussions.

6. Air, Water, and Food Analysis. III.

Open to students who have completed courses 1, 2, 5, and 7. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Bragg.

7. Organic Chemistry, with laboratory work in organic preparations. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed or are taking course 2 and, by special permission, to seniors who have completed course 1 or course 4. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Roberts, Miss French.

8. Theoretical Chemistry. III. (Not given in 1916–1917.)

Open to seniors who have completed or are taking course 7. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Roberts.

9. Selected Subjects in Theoretical and Physical Chemistry, with laboratory work in the determination of vapor densities and molecular weights. III.

Open to seniors and graduates who have completed or are taking course 8. Three hours a week for a semester.

Miss Roberts, Miss Graham.
io. Advanced Laboratory Course: Special Work in Organic Preparations or Problems of Food Analysis, or Advanced Analytical Chemistry. III.

Open to seniors and graduates. Three hours a week for a semester.

Miss Roberts, Miss French.

The subject treated each year is arranged on consultation with the department.

Courses 9 and 10 will not ordinarily be given the same year.

II. Historical Chemistry. II. (Not given in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 1 or 4. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Roberts.

This course treats of the beginnings of Chemistry, and its development to modern times. It includes a study of the work of the alchemists, and of the lives and discoveries of the more prominent founders of the science.

ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

Professor: Emily Greene Balch, B.A.
Associate Professor: Anna Prichitt Youngman, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor: Donald Skeele Tucker, M.A.
Instructor: Marion Dutton Savage, M.A.

I. Elements of Economics. I.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, but intended primarily for sophomores and juniors. Three hours a week for the year.

Miss Youngman, Mr. Tucker.

An introductory course designed to give the student acquaintance with economic facts and training in economic reasoning. Illustrations will be drawn from actual observation of the conditions determining prices, land values, wages, profits and standards of living. In the second semester, certain legislative problems relating to currency, banking, the tariff, etc., will be discussed in class.

1 Absent on Sabbatical leave.

2. Economic History of the United States. II. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed one course in Economics. Three hours a week for a year.

A study of our national development in its material and social aspects.

Open to students who have completed one course in Economics. Three hours a week for the first semester.

A study of the evolution of industrial forms, more especially of villeinage, guilds, domestic manufacture and the factory system.

4. Socialism and Social Reform. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed one full course for a year in Economics. Three hours a week for the year.

Mr. Tucker.

First Semester. A history of the development of socialist thought, including a brief survey of the Utopian Socialists and a critical study of the theories of Karl Marx.

Some or all of the following will be considered: individualism, philosophic anarchism, trade unionism, syndicalism, guild socialism, co-operation, progressivism and the single tax. The scope and limits of government functions will be critically considered.

5. Statistical Study of Certain Economic Problems. III.

(Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for the first semester.
6. Social Economics. III.

Open to seniors (and by special permission to juniors) who have completed one full course for a year in Economics. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Savage.

A study of the dependent, defective, and delinquent classes, accompanied by discussion of methods of dealing with each.

7. Social Economics. III.

Open to seniors (and by special permission to juniors) who have completed one full course for a year in Economics. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Savage.

A discussion of methods of meeting certain normal social needs, such as housing, sanitation, education, and recreation.

8. The Modern Labor Movement. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed one full course for a year in Economics. Three hours a week for the first semester.

A study of the modern industrial situation, with special attention to the organization of labor and the attitude and function of the employer.

9. An Introduction to General Sociology. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for a year.

A study of facts and theories of social development, and more especially of the growth of institutions, such as the family, the state, law, and property. During the second semester the social and ethnic origins of society are considered.

10. Immigration. II.

Open to students who have completed one course in Economics. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Mr. Tucker.
A study of immigration into the United States, the race elements represented and their geographical distribution; the social, political, and economic influence of our foreign populations; the history of restrictive legislation and the arrangements thus far provided for the reception and care of aliens.

12. The Trust Problem. III.

_Open to juniors and seniors who have completed one full course for a year in Economics. Three hours a week for the second semester._

Miss Youngman.

This course will deal with the various forms of monopolistic organization, the growth of the movement toward large scale production, the history of characteristic combinations, federal and state legislation and judicial decisions relating to the subject, the alleged advantages and evils of trusts and proposed remedies for the latter.

15. Economic Development. II.

_Open to seniors and by special permission to juniors. Three hours a week for the first semester._

Mr. Tucker.

A brief survey of modern economic life, contrasting it with the economic organization of preceding epochs.

16. Money and Banking. III.

_Open to juniors and seniors who have completed one full course for a year in Economics. Three hours a week for the first semester._

Miss Youngman.

The course deals mainly with the principles of money and banking, but it is also designed to give the student some acquaintance with the history and chief characteristics of typical modern systems of banking.

17. Economics of Consumption. II. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

_Open to students who have completed one course in Economics. Three hours a week for the second semester._
This course will deal with both theoretical and practical aspects of the use of wealth. Some or all of the following topics will be discussed: the division of public and private incomes between use as capital and use for immediate consumption (functions and limits of saving), "Engel's law," standards of living, workingmen's budgets and the minimum wage, Veblen's theory of conspicuous consumption, the rôle and social limits of luxury, final utility and its relation to expenditure. The function of women in directing household expenditure will be considered throughout.

20. Industrial and Social Legislation. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed one full course in Economics. Three hours a week for the second semester.

This course will deal with factory laws, labor laws, social insurance and other types of reform by means of legislation.

EDUCATION

PROFESSORS: ARTHUR ORLO NORTON, M.A.
ANNA JANE McKEAG, PH.D., LL.D.

INSTRUCTORS: MURIEL ANNE STREIBERT, B.A., B.D.,
instructor in biblical history.
SAMUEL MONROE GRAVES, PH.D.

LECTURER: ANNA WHITE DEVEREAUX.
GRADUATE ASSISTANT: GLADYS KINGHORN GOULD, B.A.

6. Introductory Course in Education. II.

Open to juniors who have taken or who are taking the required course in Philosophy, and to seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Norton, Miss McKeag, Mr. Graves.

This course is organized to meet the needs not only of prospective teachers but also of all who are interested in the intelligent direction of education as a phase of social service. Its purpose is to give a general survey of the practices, theories, and problems of modern education.

The work of the course is illustrated throughout the year by visits to assigned schools for the observation of children and of class-room practice, by examples of school work, and by lantern slides.

5. Principles and Problems of Religious Education. III.
(Not given in 1916–1917.)

Open to seniors who have completed the first semester of Education 6. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Streibert.

The aims of religious education in the light of the fundamental characteristics and present tendencies of Christianity. The religious development of the individual. The selection and use of Biblical material for different ages. The Sunday school: its organization, curricula, and methods of teaching; its relation to the home.

1. Principles of Education. II.

Prescribed for students in Hygiene who have completed the required course in Psychology. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Mr. Graves.

A survey of the general principles of education, selected from the material described in more detail under Education 6.

2. Advanced Course in the History of Education. III.

Open to seniors who have completed a full course in Education, and to graduates. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Norton.

From the point of view of this course modern education appears as the outcome of a long series of historic events, the effects of which are visible in the ideals, studies, modes of teaching, and organization of our present schools, colleges, and universities. The purpose of the year's work is to study in some detail the most important events in the history of European and American education, and their effects on the present course of educational affairs.

The lectures are constantly illustrated by original manuscripts, facsimiles, early editions of noted text-books, and similar historical documents, by translations from the sources, and by numerous lantern slides.

3. Problems in Education. III. (Not given in 1916-1917.)

Open to graduates who have completed a full course in Education. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Norton, Miss McKeag.

The subject-matter of this course will vary from year to year in accordance with the equipment and needs of students. The topics for study will be chosen from the field of experimental or statistical investigation or from that of the general science of education.

4. Secondary Education. III.

Open to seniors who have completed a full course in Education, and to graduates. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss McKeag.

The history and principles of secondary education, with special reference to the high schools of the United States. A study will be made of approved methods of teaching English, foreign languages, sciences, mathematics, and history in high schools. Opportunity will be given for observation of the work of specially successful high school teachers in the subject which the student expects to teach.

In connection with this course the Department of Education requires from graduates a semester of systematic practice teaching in a high school, to be done as independent work, under the guidance of the Department and with the co-operation of the principal of the high school. Practice in teaching is not open to undergraduates.

7‡. The History, Theory, and Problems of the Kindergarten. III. (Not given in 1916-1917.)

Open to graduates who have completed Philosophy 1 or an equivalent, and one full course in Education. (Courses 7 and 8 must ordinarily be taken together.) Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Devereaux.

‡ See note under course 8.
The reconstruction of educational theories in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries. The relation of this reconstruction to the work of Froebel. The origins and history of the kindergarten movement in Europe and America. Exposition and criticism of the theory of kindergarten practice. Other forms of sub-primary education: the Waverley plan, the Montessori method; their relation to kindergarten practice. The kindergarten and the primary school.

8. Kindergarten Practice: Materials, Methods, Exercises, Technique. III. (Not given in 1916-1917.)

Open to graduates who have completed Philosophy 1, or an equivalent, and one full course in Education (see note below). Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Devereaux.

Course 8 deals in general with practical applications of the theory given in Course 7. It includes on the one hand a detailed study of the materials, devices, exercises, and methods of the kindergarten, and on the other, extensive observation of their use, with practice in teaching.

Note.—Courses 7 and 8 must ordinarily be taken together. Students who complete these courses and two others to be designated by the Department of Education, amounting in all to a full year of graduate work, should be amply qualified to conduct kindergartens.

Open to graduates who have completed Philosophy 1, or an equivalent, and one full course in Education. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Graves.

Course 9 includes a brief survey of the history of elementary education in the United States, a detailed study of present elementary school practice, a critical discussion of the principles which underlie that practice, and the investigation of selected problems in elementary education.

The purpose of the course is to give to each student a knowledge of existing conditions and problems, some facility in handling the tools and methods of practical research in this field, and ability to formulate her views as to the ideas, scope, and work of the elementary schools.

ENGLISH

I. English Literature

Professors: Katharine Lee Bates, M.A., Litt.D.
Vida Dutton Scudder, M.A.
Margaret Pollock Sherwood, Ph.D.

Associate Professors: Laura Emma Lockwood, Ph.D.
Martha Hale Shackford, Ph.D.
Charles Lowell Young, B.A.
Martha Pike Conant, Ph.D.
Alice Ida Perry Wood, Ph.D.

Instructors: Annie Kimball Tuell, M.A.
Elizabeth Wheeler Manwaring, B.A.
Laura Alandis Hibbard, Ph.D.
Lucy Allen Paton, Ph.D.

1. Outline History of English Literature. I.

Open to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Tuell, Miss Wood, Miss Hibbard.

The object of this course is to give the student a general survey of English literature and to prepare the way for more specialized work. The course is conducted by lectures and critical studies of selected masterpieces.

2. American Literature. II.

Open to students who have completed or are taking course 1, and to all seniors who are not taking course 14. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Young.

This course attempts to give a comprehensive account of American literature. After a brief introductory study of the Colonial and the Revolutionary background, the class reads in turn: (1) the literature of the Middle States; (2) of New England; (3) of the country at large since the Civil War, especially the South and the West. Stress is laid in the class room on the most representative writers.

6 Appointed for first semester only.

3. English Lyric Poetry of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries. II.

Open to students who have completed or are taking course I.

Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Conant.

This course considers the lyrics of Wyatt, Surrey, Sidney, Spenser, and Shakespeare; the poems of Donne, Herbert, Vaughan, Traherne, Herrick, and Lovelace; and Milton's lyrics as a final expression of the Renaissance. A brief survey completes the history of the English lyric. The course aims to study the life and personality of each poet; the historical background; and, chiefly, the essential beauty of this literature, thus developing a keener appreciation of the lyrical quality in poetry.

4. Milton. II.

Open to students who have completed or are taking course I.

Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Lockwood.

The primary object of this course is the critical study of Milton as a master in lyric, epic, and dramatic poetry, and as a writer of notable prose. The character and genius of the poet are considered as influenced by the political and religious conflict of the times. Special emphasis is placed on the comparison of Milton's work with that of other great writers who have used the same literary forms.

5. The Literary History of Prose Forms in the Essay. II.

(Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed or are taking course I.

Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Tuell.
This course considers the development of essay literature from the formal classicism of Bacon, through the satire of Swift, Defoe, and the pamphleteers, to the familiar essay of Addison, Goldsmith, and Lamb, and the character essay in Leigh Hunt, Landor, and Thackeray.

6. Victorian Prose. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed course I, and who have completed or are taking a second three-hour course. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Young.

The course attempts to appreciate, with due reference to the historical background, the distinctive values of Victorian prose. The stress in class room is laid on Dickens, Thackeray, Newman, Carlyle, Macaulay, Arnold, George Eliot, Meredith, and Ruskin.

7. English Poetry of the Nineteenth Century. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed course I, and who have completed or are taking a second three-hour course. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Shackford.

This course considers the work of the Georgian and the Victorian poets in their relation to one another and to contemporary movements, political, social, ethical, and aesthetic. Extended study is given to Wordsworth and Coleridge; Shelley and Keats; Tennyson and Browning; with briefer readings from Byron, Clough, Arnold, Rossetti, Morris, and Swinburne.

8. English Literature of the Fourteenth Century. II.

Open to students who have completed or are taking course I; also to juniors who plan a major concluding with course IO. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hibbard.

This course includes a chronological study of the major portion of Chaucer's work. Attention is given to Chaucer's chief Latin, French, and Italian sources, to contemporary English literature, and to social conditions. Special study is made of various metrical romances, of representative Middle English lyrics, and of Piers Plowman.

9. English Drama through Shakespeare. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed course 1, and who have taken or are taking a second three-hour course; also to juniors who are beginning their major with course 8. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bates.

This course attempts to trace the dramatic evolution from the Easter Mystery to Shakespeare, to observe the structure and artistic principles of the Elizabethan drama, and to study closely a few of Shakespeare's plays, with reading and discussion of the others.

10. Historical Development of English Literature. III.

(Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to graduates and to approved seniors who have completed courses 8 and 9, and have completed or are taking course 6 or course 7. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Scudder.

This course proposes a study of consecutive masterpieces chosen to illustrate the development of English literature from the time of Beowulf to the end of the Victorian age. It aims to focus attention upon successive phases of national thought and life as expressed in salient and representative books.

11. Modern Authors. III.

Open to graduates, and to approved seniors who have completed two three-hour courses in the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Young.

Two or more authors are chosen each year for special study. In 1916-1917 the choice is the Lake School of English poets, Wordsworth, Coleridge, and Southey; and the Concord group of American writers, Emerson, Hawthorne, Thoreau, etc.
12. Critical Problems of the Literature of the Fourteenth Century. III.

Open to graduates, and to approved seniors who have completed two three-hour courses (not including course 8) in the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Shackford.

This course aims to introduce students to some of the more important problems in the literature of Chaucer and of his contemporaries. Special effort is made to investigate the differentiation of literary types in this era; the influence of foreign writers; the growth of a national spirit; and some of the vital questions of textual criticism.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or course 15 in Economics, and have taken or are taking a second course; preferably 3, 8, or 4. Not open to students who have taken or are taking English Literature 6 or 7. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Scudder.

This course aims to study the expression in modern English literature of social ideals.

14. English Masterpieces. II.

Open only to seniors who have completed no full course in the department, or course 1 only, and who are not taking course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Conant.

This course is intended to develop sympathetic appreciation of literature through the study of chosen masterpieces. In 1916-1917 the works chosen for discussion in the class room include Scott's Antiquary; Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice; Thackeray's Vanity Fair; selected short stories and ballads, essays and letters by Carlyle, Ruskin, and Stevenson; the lyric poetry in the Golden Treasury; two of Shakespeare's plays; selections from Tennyson and Browning; and, if time permits, some modern drama.
15. Dryden and Pope. II. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed or are taking course I. Three hours a week for a year.

This course centres in the personality, work, and influence of Dryden and of Pope, while including a knowledge of important contemporary writers, and the social, political, and historical background.

16. Tendencies of Twentieth Century Poetry. III.

Open only to seniors who have already completed two three-hour courses in the department. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Bates.

This course proposes to point out the special significance, as related to the English tradition, of the work of certain poets, English and American, of the present century.

Open to all students except freshmen. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Sherwood.

The work extends from the chivalric romance through the sixteenth-century experiments with new types of fiction, and the eighteenth-century development of the novel, to selected masterpieces of Jane Austen and of Scott.

19. Poetics. II.

Open to students who have completed or are taking course I. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Manwaring.

The object of this course is to give the student of literature a keener and more intelligent appreciation of poetic expression.
20. Spenser. II.

Open to students, except freshmen, who have completed or are taking course i. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Tuell.

This course proposes a study of Spenser, with special reference to his position as a Renaissance type. The Faerie Queene and minor poems will be studied as Renaissance forms with some attention to sources in classic and continental literatures.

21. Arthurian Romance. II.

Miss Paton.

This course traces the development of the Arthurian cycle, from the twelfth through the fifteenth century. There is reading in translation of the chronicles and the early verse romances; and in the original form of English romances easily accessible, including Malory’s Morte Darthur.

22. English Romanticism. III.

Open to graduates, and to approved seniors who have completed two three-hour courses in the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Sherwood.

A study of the Romantic Movement in England, from its beginnings in the eighteenth century, on through the work of the early nineteenth century poets. Certain phases of the relation of English to German literature and to French literature during the period of reaction are studied.
23. Critical Studies in English Drama. III. (Not given in 1916-1917.)

Open to graduates and to approved seniors who have completed course 9. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bates.

This course attempts to give graduate training in literary investigation. To each student is assigned some special problem of source, authorship or the like, which she pursues till her conclusion is reached, reporting progress from week to week in the seminar. In the case of candidates for the Master's degree, their subjects will be related, when practicable, to their theses.

24. Special Studies in American Literature. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 1 and have taken, or are taking, a second three-hour course, not course 2, in the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Young.

Mr. Robert.
This course is designed for students who intend to teach French.

12. The Classical Period of French Literature. II.

Open to students who have completed courses 3 and 5, or courses 24 and 29. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Robert, Miss Damazy.

As an introduction to this course, a short study will be made of the origin of French classicism in the Renaissance movement of the sixteenth century; but the main object of the course will be the study of the evolution of French classical literature during the seventeenth century, in the works of the great dramatists and prose writers: Descartes, Corneille, Racine, Molière, La Fontaine, Boileau, Mme. de Sevigné, Pascal, La Bruyère.

Open to students who have completed course 12. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Damazy.

The object of this course is to give a comprehensive view of the literary movement during the eighteenth century as represented especially by Le Sage, Montesquieu, Voltaire, J. J. Rousseau, and André Chénier.

A special study will be made of the origin of French Romanticism as found in the work of Rousseau and his disciples in France and abroad.

10. The Romantic and the Realistic Periods of the Nineteenth Century. III.

Open to students who have completed course 9. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Damazy.

This course will include studies of Mme. de Staël, Chateaubriand, Lamartine, Hugo, Vigny, Musset, G. Sand, Balzac, Flaubert, Sainte-Beuve, Taine, Renan.
15. Contemporary French Literature from the end of the Realistic Period to the present time. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed courses 9 and 10 or course 12. Three hours a week for a year.

First semester, Mr. Allard.
Second semester, Mr. Perdriau.

The object of this course is to give the students general information about the different tendencies, artistic, philosophical, moral, religious and critical, as expressed in the work of the most eminent among the contemporary French Novelists, Dramatists, Poets, Critics and Philosophers: A. Daudet, France, Loti, Bourget, Rostand, Maeterlinck, Brieux, Leconte de Lisle, Sully Prudhomme, Coppée, Verlaine, Mme. de Noailles, Lemaitre, Brunetière, Faguet, Bergson, H. Poincaré.

Elements of bibliography and suggestions for post-collegiate reading or work will be given in this course.

Phonology with reading of La Vie de St. Alexis, La Chanson de Roland, Ancassin et Nicolete, Chrétien de Troyes. Gaston Paris: Extraits des Chroniqueurs français. Selections from Constans: Chrestomathie de l'ancien français. The history of the French language is traced from its origin to the present time, and illustrated by texts read. For reference, Darmesteter: Grammaire Historique; Gaston Paris: Manuel de la littérature française du moyen âge; also standard works on the subject in the college library. Lectures, critical reading.
20. Old Provençal. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to graduate students only.

This course is complementary to course 11. Together these courses mark the synchronic lines of development of the langue d’oil and the langue d’oc.

The department is prepared to direct research work for graduate students in special subjects in Old French and Old French literature, also in modern French language and literature.

GEOLOGY AND GEOGRAPHY

Professor: Elizabeth Florette Fisher, B.S.

Instructors: Frederic Henry Lahee, Ph.D.
Helen Knowlton Thomas, B.A.

Assistants: Alyda Caren Hanson, B.S.
Edith Florence Jones, B.A.

Laboratory Assistant: Charlotte Cushman, B.A.

I. Geography.

8. Physiography. I.

Open to freshmen and sophomores. Three hours a week for a year.

Mrs. Thomas, Miss Hanson.

This course is designed to give an understanding of the physical features of the land and ocean, which affect life. The origin and significance of land forms will be so treated as to explain the development of rivers, valleys, plains, plateaus, and mountains, and to point out the changes which these forms are undergoing to-day. It gives some account of the rocks and soils that are characteristic of the different land forms.

Lectures and recitations accompanied by parallel studies in the laboratory and field.

3. Economic and Industrial Geography. II.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to sophomores who have completed a year of science in college, or who have offered a science for admission. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Fisher.
This course treats of the influence of the geographic factors of physical environment on man, his industry and his needs; the production of various commodities which supply the needs of man, and the transportation of the secommodities. The course also treats of climatic factors—temperature, moisture, winds, storms, and weather—and their influence upon various soils and the production of crops; the natural resources for water supply; the effect of young and mature streams upon settlement and industry; the uses and problems of inland waterways; life on plains, plateaus and mountains; the importance of shore-line topography in transportation; the location and growth of cities, and of state and national boundaries. Emphasis will be placed upon the influence of geographic factors in history.

Lectures and recitations. Laboratory and field work equivalent to two hours a week.

A student who has completed or is taking course 1 may take the second semester of course 3.

6. Geography of North America. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed course 1 or course 3, or under special conditions, to those students who have completed course 8 and have done work in history. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Fisher.

Regional geography of North America in its physical, economic, historical, and commercial aspects; the life relationships to the physiography of North America. Lectures, laboratory and library work, with critical discussions.

7. Geography of Europe. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed course 1 or course 3, or, under special conditions, to those students who have completed course 8 and have done work in history. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Fisher.

Regional geography of Europe in its physical, economic, historical and commercial aspects; life relationships to the physiography of Europe. Lectures, laboratory and library work, with critical discussions.
II. Geology

1. Geology. II.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to sophomores who have completed a year of science in college, or who have offered a science for admission. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Jones, Mr. Lahee.

The work of the atmosphere, rivers, glaciers, oceans, volcanoes and earthquakes in modifying the surface of the earth. Records of the work accomplished as shown in rocks. Evolutionary development of the earth and its inhabitants as revealed in these structures and interpreted by these forces. Lectures, recitations and six field lessons during the year.

A student who has completed or is taking course 3 may take the second semester of course 1.

2. Mineralogy. II.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to sophomores who have completed a year of science in college, or who have offered a science for admission. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Mr. Lahee.

Lectures and laboratory work. Characteristics and origin of the more important mineral species. The course includes blow pipe analysis and crystallography. A reference collection is always available for students' use.

4. Field Geology. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 1 or course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Advanced field study with lectures and discussions. The aim of the course is to give students training in the methods of research work in the field. Special problems, areal, stratigraphic, structural, petrographic, physiographic, etc., are assigned for investigation. The work of the first semester will be the geology and geography of the Boston Basin. The second semester will be devoted to field mapping, which will be the simple methods of surveying. Each student will make a survey map of a portion of the Wellesley grounds.
5. Petrology. II. (Not given in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 2.  Three hours a week for the second semester.

Mr. Lahee.

Lectures and laboratory work. Laboratory study of the more important rock species. Igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks. The work is intended to afford the student an opportunity to become thoroughly familiar with the macroscopic characteristics of the principal rock types and the methods of petrographical study, and to enable the student to gain some acquaintance with the theories of modern petrology.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two full courses in History. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Kendall.

This course includes (1) a historical review of the development of the empire; (2) a study of the changes of colonial policy; (3) a study of colonial administration; and (4) a discussion of present colonial problems.

13. History of Rome.  II.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed one college course in History, or who are giving special attention to Latin. Three hours a week for a year.

Mrs. Hodder.

This course offers a general survey of Roman History through the reign of Diocletian. The attempt is made to present the problems of recent scholarship in the study of the earlier period, but the main emphasis is placed upon the later Republic and the Empire. Particular attention will be given to the economic and social conditions, and to the development of the Roman system of government.

14. American History.  II.

a. Age of Discovery and Conquest.
b. The American Revolution.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed or are taking courses 1 and 2 or course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Curtis.
In the first semester the discovery and exploration of the American continents by the Spanish, English, and French will be treated in detail, to be followed by a study of the contest between the European powers for control in the New World. The second semester will be devoted to a careful consideration of the American Revolution, especial attention being given to the European aspect of the struggle between England and her colonies.

15. International Politics. II.

Open to all seniors and to juniors who have completed or are taking courses 1 and 2 or course 3. One hour a week for a year.
Miss Kendall.

The object of this course is to give a general view of international conditions since the close of the Bismarck period, with especial reference to the present relations of Europe, America, and Asia.

16‡. Europe in the Sixteenth Century. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two full courses in History. Three hours a week for a year.
Miss Moffett.

A continuation of course 8, though the latter is not a prerequisite.

A brief introductory survey of conditions in the fifteenth century is followed by a more detailed study of the sixteenth, its great movements, and its great personalities.

17. Political History of Russia from the earliest times to the present. II. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to all seniors and to juniors who have completed or are taking another course in History. One hour a week for a year.
Miss Orvis.

This course includes (1) a study of the forces which have made Russia a world power, and (2) an inquiry into the development and policy of the autocracy, culminating in the late revolution.

‡ History 8 and History 16 will not both be given in the same year.
18. England in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Centuries. II. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed one college course in History, or who are giving especial attention to English Literature or Economics. Three hours a week for a year.

Mrs. Hodder.

A study of the political, intellectual, and industrial changes in England in the two centuries of transition from mediæval to modern times.

19. Geography of European History. II.

Open to all seniors and to juniors and sophomores who have taken one college course in History. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Moffett.

The institutions, economic and social conditions, and political history of some parts of Europe will be briefly studied in connection with their topography. Besides the study of the more important changes of boundaries, the course will attempt to strengthen the connection between events and localities, and to give a clearer conception of the scene of events already studied, or to be studied, in other courses in European History.

20. Politics of Eastern Europe. II. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to all seniors and to juniors who have completed or are taking another course in History. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Orvis.

The object of this course is to give a general view of Eastern European conditions since the close of the Age of Bismarck.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two college courses in History. Three hours a week for a year.

This course aims to combine training in the handling of historical material with a careful study of the advance of the frontier. The progress of population westward, routes of travel and settlement, the introduction of new elements into the population, and the influence of the frontier constitutionally and politically, will be brought out. The course will end with the development of the Canadian Northwest and Alaska.

22. England under the Tudors and Stuarts. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two full courses in History. Three hours a week for a year.

Mrs. Hodder.

This course deals with the religious and constitutional struggles in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, with economic and social changes, with international relations, and with the founding of the British Empire.

It is intended that the course shall be made useful to students of English Literature.

23. Constitutional Government. II.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed either courses 1 and 2 or course 3, or Economics 1 or 15. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Cottrell.

This is an introductory course in government with especial reference to the American political system, national, state and local. It will treat with the actual working of the governmental machinery and the particular functions which it performs. The relations of the individual to the government are particularly emphasized. Modern political tendencies are treated in discussions and reports. The whole aim of the course is to prepare students for intelligent and effective citizenship.

24. History of Germany in the Nineteenth Century. 1815–1915. II. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed courses 1 and 2 or course 3. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Orvis.

This course offers (1) a survey of the conditions and tendencies in Germany from 1815 to 1870, which culminated in Empire; and (2) a study of some of the most characteristic features of the development of the German Empire and the German people since 1870.

HYGIENE

Professor: Amy Morris Homans, M.A.
Associate Professors: William Skarstrom, M.D.
Eugene Clarence Howe, Ph.D.
Instructors: Katharine Piatt Raymond, B.S., M.D.,
Resident Physician.
Franklin Charles Fette, M.A.
Edna Barrett Manship
Margaret Johnson.
Sarah Russell Davis.
Hedvig Malmstrom, M.D.
Elizabeth Halsey, Ph.B.
Assistant: Fanny Garrison B.A.
Recorder: Helen Mary Barton, B.A.
Librarian and Curator: Susan Grey Akers, B.A.

I. Courses Prescribed for the Certificate of the Department

(1) A two years’ course leading to the certificate of the department of hygiene is offered to special students. This course is especially designed for the training of teachers of hygiene. In order to be admitted to this course, candidates must be without organic disease or serious functional disorder. A keen sense of rhythm is necessary. This course is open only to those who already hold the Bachelor’s degree either from Wellesley College or from some other college.

(2) A five years’ course is offered leading to the B.A. degree and the certificate of the department of hygiene. This course is open only to candidates for the B.A. degree in residence at Wellesley College. In general students in this course receive the B.A. degree at the end of the fourth year and complete in the fifth year the work required for the certificate of the department of hygiene. The following courses count toward the Bachelor’s degree: course 1, three hours; course 13, four hours. In fulfilling the requirement for the B.A. degree these students substitute course 2 for course 22.

Anatomy.

See Course 11 in the department of Zoology, page 157.

1. Kinesiology.

Required of all first-year students. Twelve lessons in the spring.
Miss Manship.

Required of all second-year students. Three hours a week for a year.
Dr. Skarstrom.

The purpose of this course is: (1) to discuss the purposes, scope and ideals of physical education; (2) to study the character, selection, classification, arrangement and progression of gymnastic exercises; (3) a systematic study of the principles and technique of teaching gymnastics.

10. Gymnastics.

Required of all second-year students. Four hours a week for a year.
Dr. Skarstrom, Miss Halsey.

11. Symptomatology and Emergencies.

Required of all second-year students. Three hours a week for the first semester.
Dr. Raymond.

This brief course in Symptomatology is intended to give students an understanding of general pathology as well as of the nature, causes, and symptoms of the more common diseases, in order that they may understand and better emphasize the importance of hygienic living in the maintenance of health.

This course is intended also to enable students in their future work as teachers:

a. To detect conditions of doubtful health in applicants for gymnastic training and so to warn them to consult a physician before undertaking the work.

b. To comprehend intelligently the directions given by physicians regarding patients whom they may advise to take gymnastic training.

This course is supplemented by a course in Red Cross First Aid.

Required of all second-year students. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Mr. Fette.

The object of this course is:—

(i) To give the student a connected outline of the rise and development of physical education as a science, to impress the importance of national health through a survey of the causes of success and failure in ancient peoples, and to emphasize the relation of the teacher to the movement for national health to-day. Lectures and assigned reading.

(ii) To give the student an understanding of the development of the playground and recreation movement and its relation to Community health, and to give a brief survey of the latest methods of meeting these needs. Lectures, assigned reading and playground observation.

(iii) Discussion of methods of coaching and the management of Field and Track Athletics, the organization and administration of group tests and competition.

Education and Psychology.

See course 1 in the department of Education, and course 8 in the department of Philosophy.

13. Physiology and Hygiene.

Required of all second-year students. Four hours a week for a year.

Mr. Howe.

One laboratory exercise a week of four periods throughout the year; four lecture periods during the first and three during the second semester.

The chief objects of the work are (i) training in inductive thinking; (2) a sound knowledge of human physiology and of its application in constructive personal hygiene; and (3) the ability to conduct simple lessons in personal hygiene. The laboratory work is complemental to each of these objects.
14. Practice Teaching.

Required of all second-year students.

Dr. Skarstrom, Mr. Fette, Miss Manship, Miss Halsey.

This is given in the college classes and the public schools of Wellesley.

18. Outdoor Games and Sports.

Required of all second-year students. Six hours a week in the spring and fall.

Mr. Fette, Miss Manship, Miss Davis, Miss Halsey, Miss Garrison.

19. Anthropometry.

Required of all second-year students. One hour a week for a semester.

Miss Davis.

Students acquire practice in the use of the various anthropometric instruments for measurements and strength tests, in recording and filing measurements and computing indices.

20. Dancing.

Required of all second-year students. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Manship, Miss Johnson.

Classic dancing, theory, and practice.
33. Practice in Teaching Æsthetic, Social and Folk Dancing and Lectures on the Relation of Music to Dancing.

Required of all second-year students. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Manship, Miss Johnson.

II. Courses open to all Undergraduates.

Two hours in hygiene are prescribed for the degree. One hour of this requirement is met by course 29; the second hour is met by four periods of practical work, two periods per week in the freshman year (course 21) and two in the sophomore year (course 22).

By special permission courses 23, 24 and 34 may be substituted for the indoor work of courses 21 and 22. Courses 23 (except as noted below), 26, 31, 32 and 34 (except as noted below) do not count toward the degree.

29. Personal Hygiene.

Required of freshmen. One hour a week for a year.

Mr. Howe.

Stress is laid (1) on the applicability of hygienic practice in the immediate situations of college life, and (2) on the development of habits of posture and movement as a phase of education. The underlying physiology is reduced to the least amount needed for scientific justification of the practice of personal hygiene.

Required of all freshmen. Two hours a week for a year.

Mr. Fette, Miss Manship, Miss Johnson, Miss Halsey, and Assistants.

Outdoor work in the fall and spring terms—organized sports. This part of the course is designated as 21 f.s. (fall, spring).

Indoor work in the winter term—gymnastics. This part of the course is designated as 21 w. (winter). Students needing remedial work will substitute course 24 or 34 for the indoor gymnastics.
22. Gymnastics and Outdoor Sports.

Required of all sophomores who have completed course 21. Two hours a week for a year.

Mr. Fette, Miss Manship, Miss Johnson, Miss Halsey, and Assistants.

Advanced work on topics as in course 21. The outdoor work of this course is designated as 22 f.s. (fall, spring), and the indoor work as 22 w. (winter). Students needing remedial work will substitute course 24 or 34 for the gymnasium practice of this course.

24. Corrective Gymnastics.

Required in place of the indoor work of courses 21 and 22 in the case of all freshmen and sophomores whose physical examination indicates the need of corrective work.

Miss Davis and Assistants.

23. Gymnastics.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed courses 21 and 22 or their equivalent, and, by permission of the instructor, open to freshmen and sophomores who have had an equivalent of courses 21 and 22 and who meet the requirements of the department. Two hours a week from November until May.

Dr. Skarstrom, Miss Johnson, and Assistants.

26. Dancing.

Open to seniors. Two hours a week from November until May.

Miss Manship, Miss Johnson.

Archery, baseball, basketball, golf, field hockey, rowing, running, and tennis.

Freshmen, two hours a week in the fall and spring terms. Other students three hours a week in the fall and spring terms.

Mr. Fette, Miss Manship, Miss Davis, Miss Halsey, Miss Garrison, and Field Instructors.
31. Dancing.
Open to freshmen. One hour a week from November until May.
Miss Manship, Miss Johnson.

32. Dancing.
Open to sophomores and juniors. One hour a week from November until May.
Miss Manship, Miss Johnson.

34. Remedial Gymnastics.
Required in place of the indoor work of courses 21 and 22 in the case of all freshmen and sophomores whose physical examinations indicate the need of remedial work. This course is open also to juniors and seniors. A fee may be charged for this course.
Dr. Malmstrom.

(b) Plane Trigonometry.

Three hours, second semester.

The angular analysis, including transformations, trigonometric equations and inverse functions, is fully treated, as well as the solution of triangles and the practical use of the tables.

Miss Merrill, Miss Chandler, Miss Vivian, Miss Smith, Miss Young, Miss Worthington, Miss Copeland.

Three hours, second semester. Open to freshmen and sophomores.

Miss Copeland.

2. Conic Sections and Plane Analytical Geometry. II.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Smith, Miss Young, Miss Worthington.
Some work in geometrical drawing is given in connection with the usual analytic work.

12. Algebraic and Trigonometric Analysis. II.

Open to students who have completed course 1. One hour a week for a year.
Miss Vivian.

Fundamental concepts and development of the complete number system of algebra; graphic representation; trigonometry as a part of pure algebra; De Moivre's Theorem; the fundamental theorem of algebra; further work in series; the generalized logarithm; hyperbolic functions.

Course 12 is intended as supplementary work to other courses.

7. Introduction to the Theory of Statistics. II.

Open to students who have completed course 1.
Miss Vivian.

(a) One hour a week for a year.

Lectures with supplementary reading on some of the mathematical principles and methods used in statistical work. Each student will present one or more studies based upon data drawn from economic, psychological, scientific or other sources.

(b) One hour a week for a year.

The class will meet two periods a week for problem work and exercises in the collection and arrangement of material. Students may elect (a) without (b), but not (b) without (a).

3. Differential and Integral Calculus. III.

Open to students who have completed course 2. Three hours a week for a year.
Miss Merrill, Miss Chandler.

The applications include a course in curve tracing.

4. Theory of Equations, with Determinants. III. (Not given in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed or are taking course 3. Three hours a week for the first semester.
Miss Chandler.
Courses of Instruction 1916–17

The work is based on Burnside and Panton's Theory of Equations.

5. Solid Analytical Geometry. III. (Not given in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed or are taking course 3. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Chandler.

The straight line; the plane; surfaces of the second order. Brief study of surfaces in general.

6. Modern Synthetic Geometry. III.

Open to students who have completed or are taking course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Merrill.

Metrical and projective properties of plane and sheaf forms of the first and second orders; the anharmonic ratio; harmonic forms; the method of inversion: involution; collineation; the law of duality; theory of poles and polars; reciprocation; space forms and surfaces of the second order. Given by lectures and references, with constant practice in the solution of geometrical problems.

8. Higher Plane Curves. III. (Not given in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Vivian.

Systems of co-ordinates; general theory of algebraic curves; singularities; selected curves of higher orders; theory of correspondence; transformation of curves.

A lecture course, with special topics presented by the students on phases of the subject not covered by the lectures.

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Smith.

Functions of a real variable, including definite integrals, elliptic integrals, infinite series and products, Beta and Gamma functions. Introduction to the theory of functions of a complex variable.

10. Differential Equations. III. (Not given in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Chandler.

A general course in ordinary and partial differential equations.

11. Analytical Projective Geometry. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 3 and have completed or are taking course 6. Three hours a week for a year.

A lecture course, introductory to the principles of modern geometry.

The Wellesley College Choir of forty members, founded in 1900, furnishes the music for the Sunday services in the Memorial Chapel. Any student with a good natural voice is eligible for membership; trials to fill vacancies are held at the opening of each College year.

The College Symphony Orchestra, consisting of about thirty student and faculty members, was founded in 1906. It offers advantages of competent instruction in ensemble playing under a professional conductor. It gives one or two concerts a year with a program of classical music. Any members of the College who have sufficient technique are admitted to membership without expense.

5 Absent on leave.

A limited number of tickets for reserved seats at the concerts of the Boston Symphony Orchestra in Symphony Hall, Boston, are free to students in the department who are able to use them profitably.

I. Musical Theory

The courses in theory and history are open to all students without regard to previous musical knowledge, and count toward the B.A. degree. The history and theory courses are subject to no separate tuition fee, with the exception of courses 9, 10, 11, and 12, where a nominal fee of five dollars is charged for tuning and repairs of instruments. Courses 8, 4, 14, 18, 19, and 20, are designed especially for those students desiring to gain an appreciative knowledge of musical literature.

15. Elementary Harmony. I.

Open only to freshmen who are taking practical music. Two hours a week for a year. No prerequisites.

Miss Wheeler.

This course is designed for freshmen who enter college with the intention of specializing in music. It may be followed by course 1, but not by course 8. This course covers musical notation, the formation of triads and chords of the seventh, the invention of melodies and their harmonization, the simpler kinds of non-harmonic tones, elementary form, and ear training. (Carefully kept notebooks are a part of the work.)

8. Introductory Harmony. I.

Open to sophomores, juniors, seniors, and advanced freshmen (five-year music course). Three hours a week for a year. No prerequisites.

Miss Wheeler.

This course covers the ground necessary for admission to courses 1 or 4, and also offers a substantial foundation for subsequent work in practical or theoretical music. It includes the material of the ordinary elementary harmony course and in addition emphasizes ear training and harmonic analysis.

This course is not open to students who have taken course 15.

1. Advanced Harmony. II.

Open to students who have completed course 15 or course 8 or the equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Mrs. Wilm.

This course covers in extenso the various classes of non-harmonic tones, chords of the ninth modulation, elementary orchestration, writing for the piano, organ and for voices. The course aims to give facility in elementary composition.

5. Musical Analysis. II.

Open to students who have completed course 15 or 8 or their equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Wheeler.

A course both technical and appreciative, designed to furnish students with a knowledge of harmony and musical form sufficient for the intelligent understanding of the standard Classical and Modern works. The course takes up the study of the principal chords, their function in the musical sentence, the smaller forms (song form, the small classical and modern dance forms) and then proceeds to the larger forms (Suite, Sonata, Symphony, Canon, Fugue, Overture, Symphonic Poem). The smaller forms will be studied through individual and class analysis, individual reports and short papers, while the Victrola and Player-piano will be freely used in the analysis of the larger forms. No original work in composition is required.

2. Interpretation. I.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are at the same time taking lessons in practical music in the department and who have acquired a satisfactory degree of skill. One hour a week for a year.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course is a training in the principles of interpretation, developed through the performance in class of music studied with the private teacher and by listening to and analyzing compositions performed by others. The course concerns itself with the recognition of the simple cadences, harmonic figuration as applied to the accompaniment, the broader rhythmical distinctions, the relations of melody and accompaniment, the school of the composer, biographical data, and the simpler elements of form.

Note.—Students wishing to elect the course should apply directly to the head of the department.

Students may elect practical music without electing the course in interpretation; but no one may elect the course in interpretation without at the same time electing practical music.

3. Interpretation. II.

Open to students who have completed course 2 and who are at the same time taking lessons in practical music in the department and have acquired a satisfactory degree of skill. One hour a week for a year.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course is a continuation of course 2. The subject-matter of the course is the thematic and polyphonic melody, the larger forms, harmony in its aesthetic bearings, the aesthetic effects of the more complicated rhythms, comparative criticism and the various schools of composition. See note to course 2.

9. Applied Harmony. II. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to those students only who are at the same time taking course 1. Two hours a week for a year. A laboratory fee of five dollars is attached to this course.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course aims to realize synthetically at the pianoforte the principles taught in course 1, following what may be termed a laboratory method.

Note.—Instruction will be given in small classes of not less than three students. The course is in no sense a substitute for pianoforte lessons. Students must satisfy the head of the department that they have a pianoforte technique adequate for the work; in general, the ability to play the easier Mendelssohn Songs without Words, and to read hymn tunes accurately at sight will be sufficient.
4. The Development of the Art of Music. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 8 or course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Macdougall, Miss Wheeler.

A course in the appreciation of music designed to develop musical perception and the ability to listen intelligently to the best music. It includes the evolution of rhythm, harmony, and melody, and their powers and offices in musical expression; the principal musical forms analytically considered; studies of the principal composers, their lives, their strongest works, their relation to the progress of musical art. Some great work will be selected for study during the year.

This course is not open to students who have taken or are taking course 14.

10. Applied History. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to those students only who are at the same time taking course 4. Two hours a week for a year. A laboratory fee of five dollars is attached to this course.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course aims to realize synthetically at the pianoforte the development of music from the organum of Hucbald to the Wagner opera. Specimens of the music of various schools and periods will be collected, played and analyzed. See note to course 9.

6. Counterpoint. III.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Mr. Macdougall.

Counterpoint in two, three, and four voices; double counterpoint; analysis; the distinctions between strict (modal) and free counterpoint; the rules for the latter deduced from contemporaneous practice; fugue for two and three voices.
11. Applied Counterpoint. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to those students only who are at the same time taking course 6. Two hours a week for the first semester. To this course a laboratory fee of two dollars and a half is attached.

Mr. Hamilton.

This course aims to realize synthetically at the pianoforte the laws of simple and double counterpoint by the constant playing and analysis of the best examples from the masters. See note to course 9.

7. Musical Form. III.

Open to students who have completed course 6. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course aims to cover the various imitative forms, the suite and sonata forms, the large forms of vocal and orchestral music.

Students have the opportunity of doing practical work in composition (song form, sonata movements, etc.).

12. Applied Form. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to those students only who are at the same time taking course 7. Two hours a week for the second semester. To this course a laboratory fee of two dollars and a half is attached.

Mr. Hamilton.

This course aims to play and to analyze a great number of specimens of the various forms, with careful analysis and classification. See note to course 9.

14. History of Music. II.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to sophomores who have had one course in the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Mrs. Wilm.

Lectures on the history of music of all nations, with assigned readings and frequent musical illustrations, from which the student is taught to compile analytical programs and critiques.
The course is non-technical and no previous knowledge of music is required. It is not open to students who have taken or are taking course 4.

13. The Symphony from Joseph Haydn to the Present Time. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have completed courses 1 and 4 or their equivalent and who have some facility in playing the pianoforte. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Macdougall.

A historical course, tracing the development of the Symphony in its form, its instrumentation, and its content.

17. Free Composition. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open by permission to students who have completed courses 6 and 7. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Macdougall.

18. Beethoven and Wagner. III.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or its equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Macdougall.

An intensive course devoted to the analyses of selected pianoforte sonatas, chamber music, the symphonies of Beethoven, “Fidelio,” and the operas of Wagner. The aim of the course will be to give an intimate knowledge of the two composers' works and to estimate their place in musical history.

19. Schubert and Schumann. II. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to juniors and seniors and to sophomores who have had one course in the department. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Mr. Hamilton.

An illustrated lecture course, intensive in character, devoted to the study of the principal works of the composers named. The romantic movement in music, the development of the German Song, the poetical and lyric piano piece and the birth of musical criticism are among the principal topics treated.

The work of the class will be based mainly upon assigned readings and critical papers.

20. Mendelssohn and Chopin. II. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to juniors and seniors and to sophomores who have had one course in the department. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Mr. Hamilton.

An illustrated lecture course, intensive in character, devoted to the study of the principal works of the composers named. The beginnings of modernism, the culmination of sacred music in the oratorio, the age of the virtuoso, the development of instruments and individual and emotional treatment in music as the principal topics studied.

The work of the class will be based mainly upon assigned readings and critical papers.

II. Practical Music (Instrumental and Vocal Lessons)

[Attention is called to the fact that a good student need not necessarily spend five years in college in order to carry on practical music at the same time with the academic course. See (a) below.]

It is believed that students having a performing technique will be able to profit by the theoretical instruction given in the department to a fuller degree than those without such a technique. To encourage students to acquire a technique, as well as to furnish authoritative instruction, the department undertakes to give lessons in pianoforte, organ, violin and violoncello playing, and in singing. Practical work is an elective, and students should notify the department of their election of the subject in the usual manner and at the proper time; with the exception of theory courses 2 and 3 and the applied music courses, 9, 10, 11, 12, practical work does not count toward the B.A. degree. It is offered to all students, whether candidates for degrees or not, as stated below:

(a) Candidates for the B.A. degree who propose to spend but four years in college may take practical music, provided that they obtain each year the permission of the Dean of the College as well as of the Professor of Music; they must also take Musical Theory unless they have completed two two-hour or three-hour courses in the subject.
(b) Candidates for the B.A. degree who are willing to devote five years to the college course will be permitted to take practical music each year of the course. Freshmen may do so without taking Musical Theory, but all other students in the academic and musical course are governed by the restriction laid down in (a).

(c) Candidates for the B.A. degree who wish also the Certificate of the Department of Music should plan to devote five years to the college course. Such students are required to take practical music, two lessons a week, throughout the five years. They must complete, satisfactorily to the department, a course in the literature of the instrument chosen or of the voice; they must apply for the certificate at least three years in advance. After the first year the study of Musical Theory is required.

(d) Students not candidates for the B.A. degree who desire to specialize in music must meet the requirements prescribed for admission to the freshman class, and must in addition pass an examination on the rudiments of music. This examination will be based upon W. H. Cummings’s Rudiments of Music (No. 2 of Novello Company’s Music Primers), chapters 6, 9, and 10 omitted. Special students must take both Musical Theory and vocal or instrumental lessons, two a week, with not less than twelve hours of weekly practice. They must also take from six to nine hours per week of academic work, including Musical Theory, as may be decided in consultation with the Dean.

(e) Students not candidates for the B.A. degree who wish the Certificate of the Department of Music must comply with the conditions laid down in (d); moreover the academic work taken must include modern languages.

Such students must apply for the certificate on entering the department, and must have already acquired the fundamental technique of the instrument chosen or of the voice. The time occupied in study for the certificate depends upon the talent, upon the proficiency of the student at entrance, and upon her subsequent diligence; but in general four years at least are necessary. The various courses are so arranged that the pupil on completion will have an acquaintance with the best musical literature.

(f) Graduates of Wellesley College or of other institutions may make special arrangement for instrumental or vocal lessons.

(g) Permission to practice in Music Hall cannot be given to students not regularly registered in the department.

(h) Students whose progress is not satisfactory may be required to discontinue their lessons.

For tuition and other charges in the Department of Music see page 162.
COMPARATIVE PHILOLOGY

PROFESSOR: KATHARINE MAY EDWARDS, PH.D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: LAURA EMMA LOCKWOOD, PH.D.
NATALIE WIPPLINGER, PH.D.

1. General Introduction to the Science of Language. III.
(Not given in 1916-1917.)
Open to seniors and to juniors by permission of the instructor.
Three hours a week for the first semester.
Miss Edwards.

Lectures on the origin and nature of language and the principles of its life and growth; outline studies in phonetics; classification of languages; groups of the Indo-European languages with chief characteristics.

3. Comparative Grammar of Greek and Latin. III.
(Not given in 1916-1917.)
Open to students who have completed course 1 and who have had at least two years of Greek and Latin. Three hours a week for the second semester.
Miss Edwards.

Historical study of sounds and inflections of Greek and Latin in relation to other Indo-European languages.

5. Sanskrit. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)
Open to graduates only. One hour a week for a year.
Miss Edwards.

6. Gothic (German 26). III. (Not given in 1916-1917.)
Open to graduates, and to seniors by permission of the instructor. Three hours a week for the second semester.
Miss Wipplinger.

Reading of Ulfilas, with constant reference to the syntax, phonology, and etymology of the language. Presentation of fundamental principles in Germanic Philology.
8. Old English (English Language 4). III.

Open to graduates, and to seniors by permission of the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Lockwood.

A study of Old English inflections, phonology and syntax. The reading of the best pieces of literature in Old English prose and poetry. A particular problem in either literature or language is assigned to each student for investigation.

Open to graduates and to seniors by permission of the department. Three hours a week for a year.

A study of Old French in numerous old texts with a consideration of the general laws of its phonetic development from Latin to French, and the evolution of its syntax.

Lectures, critical reading, papers on special subjects.

PHILOSOPHY AND PSYCHOLOGY

PROFESSORS: Mary Whiton Calkins, M.A., Litt.D., LL.D.
Mary Sophia Case, B.A.
Eleanor Acheson McCulloch Gamble, Ph.D.

INSTRUCTORS: Horace Bidwell English, Ph.D.
Ethel Bowman, M.A.

LECTURER: Emil Carl Wilm, Ph.D., LL.D.

ASSISTANTS: Margaret Winifred Landes, M.A.
Flora Isabel MacKinnon, M.A.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT: Helen Boice Cce, B.A.

READER: Myrtle Chase, B.A.

The requirement in philosophy for a degree is met (a) by course 1 (first semester) followed in the same year by course 6 (second semester); or (b) by course 7 (full year course). Course 6 is open also as an elective course.

The department offers direction to graduate students in independent work in psychology and in philosophy, and conducts graduate conferences with individual students at stated times.

² Absent on leave for the first term.
⁴ Appointed for the first semester only.
⁷ Appointed for the second semester only.
⁸ Appointed for the first term only.
I. Logic

3. Logic. I. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to sophomores and juniors. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Gamble.

Training in argument and in logical criticism. Work expressly designed to meet the practical needs of the student. The course deals not only with the principles of deductive logic, but also with elementary questions of observation and testimony, and of scientific, statistical, and legal evidence.

II. Psychology

Courses 1 and 7 are not both open to the same student.
For description of the Psychology Laboratory, see page 181.

1. Introduction to Psychology. I.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for the first semester.

First term, Miss Gamble.
Second term, Miss Calkins.

The aims of this course are, first and primarily, to train students in the scientific observation and description of consciousness; second, to apply the results of this study to practical problems of conduct; and, finally, to provide a psychological basis for the study of sociology, of education, and of philosophy. The course is conducted (1) by means of lectures, with occasional experimental demonstrations, accompanied by class discussions; (2) by weekly conferences with groups of students. Reading of psychological texts is preceded by purely introspective or by experimental analysis and is followed by the study of concrete problems. Text-books: Calkins, A First Book in Psychology, and James, Psychology, Briefer Course. Collateral reading: Selections from Münsterberg, Psychology, General and Applied; Miller, The Psychology of Thinking, and other books.
7. Introductory Course in Experimental Psychology. I.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Gamble.

This course aims to give to students an acquaintance with primary mental facts, to give them a definite notion of the topics treated and of the experimental and statistical methods employed in psychology, normal and abnormal, and to fit them for more advanced psychological work. Especial stress is laid upon the study of memory. The course is conducted by lectures and by weekly laboratory appointments for the assignment and discussion of experimental work. Text-books: Calkins, A First Book in Psychology; Titchener, A Text-book of Psychology; Münsterberg, Psychology, General and Applied.

The work in psychology is supplemented by a brief course introductory to philosophical study. The problems discussed will be those suggested by Berkeley’s Dialogues between Hylas and Philonous.

8. General Psychology. I.

Open only to students in the Department of Hygiene. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Mr. English.

This course is parallel with course 1 in scope and in method, but is intended for students who are also taking a course in physiology. Varied collateral reading is assigned, especially in the psychology of instinct, of habit, and of reasoning; and simple experiments are performed. Text-books: Calkins’s A First Book in Psychology; Angell’s Psychology.

17. Social, Genetic, and Applied Psychology. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to seniors who have completed course 7. Three hours week for a year.

Miss Gamble.

This course covers eight different topics: (1) social psychology; (2) the mind of primitive man; (3) the animal mind; (4) the child mind (briefly); (5) normal individual differences and intelligence tests; (6) mental deficiency and retardation;
(7) types of mental disease and disturbance which it is important for the social worker to recognize; (8) the psychological factors in certain forms of delinquency. The course is conducted in part by lectures and in part by class discussion of assigned readings. Among the books studied are: Ross, Social Psychology; Boas, The Mind of Primitive Man; Washburn,
The Animal Mind; Tredgold, Mental Deficiency; Goddard, Feeble-Mindedness; Healy, The Individual Delinquent.

18. Second Course in General Experimental Psychology.
III.

Open to graduate students, to undergraduates who have completed course 7, and by permission to undergraduates who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. English.

The purpose of this course is to offer thorough training in experimentation as demonstrative of the principal facts and theories of normal psychology.

14. Research Course in Psychology. III.

Open to students who have completed course 7, and to students who are taking or who have completed course 18. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Gamble, Mr. English.

This course consists of investigation, experimental or statistical, by individual students of special problems.

15. Second Research Course in Psychology. III.

Open to graduate students, and by special permission to seniors, as a fourth course in Psychology. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Gamble.

5. Reading Course in German Psychology. III.

Open to students who are taking course 14, course 15, course 17, or course 18. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Gamble.
III. Philosophy

16. Social Ethics. II.

Open to seniors. One hour a week for a year with an additional appointment in alternate weeks. To count as one and one half hours.

Miss Case.

The course aims to develop a comprehensive conception of human life and an intelligent apprehension of the significance of conduct, especially in its social aspects. First semester: text-book, Plato's Republic, supplemented by Mill's On Liberty and by selections from the Platonic dialogues and from Aristotle, Mill, and Bosanquet; lectures and class discussions on the fundamental conceptions of social ethics. Second semester: Dewey's The Ethics of Democracy; extended selections from Dewey and Tufts' Ethics; selections largely from current or recent literature; extended passages for individual study. Lectures and class discussions on specific social relationships and institutions.

6. Introduction to Philosophy. I.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed course I or course 7, or who are taking course 7. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Calkins, Mr. English.

The first three weeks of the semester are devoted to the study of the ethical conceptions: goodness, obligation, and virtue. The primary aim of the course is the discussion of the philosophical problems raised in the study of psychology: the nature of body, the nature of mind, and the connection between mind and body. The relations of philosophy to physical science and to religion are briefly considered. The discussion is based upon Descartes's Meditations; selections from Hobbes, from La Mettrie, and from Haeckel; Berkeley's Principles of Human Knowledge and Dialogues between Hylas and Philonous.

10. Greek Philosophy. II.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed or who are taking course 1 or course 7. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Case.
Primarily text study. (a) Pre-Platonic philosophy. Fragments (accompanied by outlines); selections from Xenophon’s Memorabilia and from the dialogues of Plato. Two months. (b) Plato. Study of the dialogues with especial emphasis on Plato’s development. Most of the year. (c) Post-Platonic philosophy. Extended passages from Aristotle’s De Anima and from the Nicomachean Ethics; selections from the Metaphysics; lectures on Aristotle; brief summary of post-Aristotelian philosophy.

9. Modern Philosophy. III.

Open to juniors who are taking course 10 and to seniors and graduate students. Three hours a week for a year.

First term, Mr. Wilm.

Second and third terms, Miss Calkins.

The course is conducted by lectures and discussions, and by the text study of Hume’s Enquiry, and Treatise, selections from Book I; Kant’s Critique of Pure Reason (with omissions), and selections from his ethical works; Spinoza’s Ethics; and Fichte’s Vocation of Man. Students are referred also to the writings of Pearson, James, Royce, Ward, Fullerton, Bergson, Russell, and others for contemporary discussions of the fundamental metaphysical problems. Lectures on post-Kantian and present-day systems followed by a brief series of constructive lectures.

12. Philosophy of Religion. III.

Open to students who have completed course 10, and have completed or are taking course 9, and by special arrangement to graduate students who have completed course 9. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Case.

(a) Critical study of methods of examining religious beliefs, especially the psychological method and the method of Hegel. The relation of these methods to pragmatic tests. Text-study of extended passages from Hegel’s Logic (in the Encyclopedia) and Philosophy of Religion. Readings from Leuba, Royce, Hocking, Dewey, and other contemporary writers. (b) Discussion of special problems selected by the class. (c) Concluding lectures on the significance of religious experience.
13. Ethics. III.

Open by permission to graduate students. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Case.

In 1916-1917, theories of the State.

19. Constructive Treatment of Problems in Metaphysics. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open by permission to graduate students. Three hours a week for a semester.

Miss Calkins.

Subject in 1913-1914: the philosophical theory of value.

20. Special Study of Philosophical Systems. III.

Open by permission to graduate students. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Calkins.

Subject in 1916-1917: the self in the psychological sciences and in philosophy.

PHYSICS

Professor: Louise Sherwood McDowell, Ph.D.
Associate Professor: Grace Evangeline Davis, M.A.
Instructor: Frances Lowater, Ph.D.
Laboratory Assistant: Cordelia Mattice, B.A.
Graduate Assistant: Ruth Alden Hoyt, B.A.

1. Elementary Physics. I.

Open to all undergraduates. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss McDowell, Miss Lowater, Miss Mattice, Miss Hoyt.

This course is for beginners and presents briefly the elementary principles of mechanics, sound, heat, electricity, and light, and their simpler applications. The course is conducted by means of experimental lectures followed by laboratory work.
2. General Physics. I.

Open to students who have met the admission requirement.
Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Lowater.

This course is intended for students who already have an elementary knowledge of the phenomena of the physical world, and presents more fully than course 1 the fundamental principles and their applications in every-day life and in the other natural sciences. The course is conducted by means of experimental lectures and laboratory work.

3. Heat. II.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or course 2 and by special permission to juniors and seniors who have met the admission requirement. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Davis.

Thermometry, calorimetry, properties of vapors and gases, liquefaction of gases, transmission of heat and its application in the heating and ventilation of buildings, kinetic theory, elementary thermodynamics, the steam engine, the internal combustion engine.

7. Electricity. II.

Open to students who have completed course 3 and by special permission to students who have completed the first semester of course 2. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Davis.

Magnetic and electric fields of force; the study and use of instruments for the measurement of current, potential difference, resistance and capacity; electro-magnetic induction; electrolytic conduction.

5. Light. III. (Not given in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 7. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss McDowell, Miss Davis.
The wave theory and its application to the phenomena of dispersion, interference, diffraction, polarization, propagation in crystalline media; theory and use of optical instruments; modern methods of illumination; the history of optics.

8. Electric Waves and Wireless Telegraphy. III.

Open to students who have completed course 7. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss McDowell, Miss Davis.

Alternating currents; electric oscillations; electric waves and their application to wireless telegraphy and telephony; the electro-magnetic theory of light.

4. Light and Electricity mathematically treated. III.

(The second semester not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed courses 3 and 7 and also course 3 in Mathematics. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss McDowell.

Text-books: Foster and Porter's Electricity and Magnetism; Preston's Theory of Light.

6. Meteorology. II.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed course 1 or who have met the admission requirement. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Davis.

Text-book: Milham's Meteorology, with library references. The study of the phenomena of the weather, viz., air pressure, temperature, progress of storms, cold waves, winds, clouds, precipitation, leading to an understanding of the principles of weather prediction.

9. Recent Developments in Electricity. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 7. Three hours a week for the second semester.
The electrolytic dissociation theory; conduction through gases, cathode rays, X-rays; radio-activity; the electron theory.

Courses 8 and 9 will ordinarily be given in alternate years.

READING AND SPEAKING

Professor: Malvina Bennett, B.S., M.A.

Instructors: Caroline Angeline Hardwicke, Edith Margaret Smaill.

1. Training of the Body and Voice. I.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hardwicke, Miss Smaill.

This course is not open to students who have taken or are taking course 4.

2. Training of the Body and Voice. Expression. II.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or 4. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bennett.

Voice culture; exercises for freedom of the body; action. Selections from the best authors. Monologues from Robert Browning and one modern play studied.

3. Reading of Shakespeare. II.

Open to students who have completed courses 1 and 2, or by permission to students who have completed course 4. Also to those who have completed or are taking English Literature 9; to others at the discretion of the department. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Bennett.
Analysis of characters; reading; scenes selected for memorizing and acting. Two plays studied.

4. Corrective work in English Speech. I.

Open to sophomores. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hardwicke.

Special attention given to voice training, articulation, pronunciation. Some reading and speaking. This course is not open to students who are taking course 1.

SPANISH

Assistant Professor: Alice Huntington Bushee, M.A.

Instructor: Angela Palomo, B.A.

Note.—A reading knowledge of French is required for all grade III work and is desirable in all courses. The language of the class room is Spanish.

1‡. Elementary Course. I.

Open to freshmen who offer French and German for admission and to sophomores, juniors and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bushee, Miss Palomo.

Grammar, composition, dictation, conversation, prepared and sight translation. Short lectures are given occasionally in Spanish on various literary subjects to train the ear and serve as an introduction to later study.

2. Intermediate Course. I

Open to students who have completed course 1 or an equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bushee, Miss Palomo.

Grammar, composition, themes, lectures, reading of typical modern novels and selections from Don Quijote.

‡Course 1 if taken in the senior year, may not count within the minimum number of hours prescribed for a degree.
4. Spanish Literature in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries. II. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bushee.

The aim of this course is to give the student a general idea of Spanish literature after the Golden Age: the French influence, Romanticism and the noted authors of the latter part of the nineteenth century. This includes the rapid reading of both prose and poetry.

3. Drama of the Golden Age. III.

Open to students who have completed course 4; in 1916-1917 to students who have completed course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bushee.

This course will be introduced by a short general outline of the historical and literary influences at work during the period. Characteristic dramas of Lope de Vega, Alarcón, Tirso de Molina and Calderón will be studied as representative of the nation’s thought and ideals at the time.

5. The Spanish Novel. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have completed course 4. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bushee.

The first semester will be devoted to a general study of the novel before 1650 (especially the caballeresca, picaresca and pastoral) and its relation to other countries. During the second semester Don Quijote will be studied.
ZOOLOGY AND PHYSIOLOGY

Professor: Alice Robertson, Ph.D.
Associate Professors: Marian Elizabeth Hubbard, B.S.
Caroline Burling Thompson, Ph.D.
Julia Eleanor Moody, Ph.D.
Instructors: Mary Jane Hogue, Ph.D.
Florence Sander Hague, M.A.
Curator: Albert Pitts Morse.
Laboratory Assistant: Mildred Fiske, B.A.

1. The Biology of Animals. I.

Open to freshmen and sophomores. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Robertson, Miss Hubbard, Miss Thompson,
Miss Hogue, Miss Hague.

This course serves as an introduction to the general principles of Zoology. The student becomes familiar with a series of types of invertebrates, and with one vertebrate, the frog. Emphasis is laid upon the doctrine of evolution.

Lectures, laboratory and field work.

2. Vertebrate Zoology. II.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to sophomores who have completed course I. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Moody, Miss Hague.

A comparative study of vertebrate types with particular reference to the history of the human body. Lectures on development, structure, classification and geographical distribution.

5. Natural History of Animals. III. (Not offered in 1916-1917.)

Open to students who have completed courses I and 2, and, with the approval of the head of the department, to juniors and seniors who have completed course I or 2. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Robertson.

The study of the living organism by investigation of structure, function, and behavior from the point of view of its relations to its environment, organic and inorganic, the interdependence of organisms, their behavior, adaptations, and organic responses. Especially valuable to those intending to teach Zoology.

6. Philosophical Zoology. III.

Open, with the advice of the head of the department, to students who have completed course 2 and one course of grade III. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Robertson.

Theoretical problems of biology. Lectures on evolution, variation, heredity, and eugenics; discussion of these, together with related facts, and current biological theories.

7. Insects. III. (Not offered in 1916–1917.)

Open to students who have completed courses i and 2, and with the approval of the head of the department, to juniors and seniors who have completed course i or 2. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Thompson.

Lectures, laboratory, and field work with reference to the different groups of insects and especially the commoner forms. Primarily for those intending to teach Zoology.

8. Embryology and Cell Structure. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed or are taking course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Thompson.

Lectures and laboratory work upon the structure of animal cells and tissues, the embryology of the chick and certain other vertebrates. Instruction in technique forms a part of the laboratory work.

10. Physiology. III.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed or are taking course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Robertson.
Lectures and laboratory work dealing with experimental and theoretical questions in human physiology. Each student arranges and uses the apparatus necessary for almost all experiments; the instructor, however, performs some of the more difficult ones, assisted in turn by the different members of the class.

II. Anatomy.

Open only to first-year special students in the Department of Hygiene. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Moody, Miss Hogue.

Lectures and laboratory work upon the anatomy of the muscles, viscera, circulatory and nervous systems. Elements of histology.
COLLEGE EXAMINATIONS

An examination period occurs at the end of each semester. At these periods, and also during the days of the admission examinations in September, examinations for the removal of conditions and deficiencies and for advanced standing may be taken.

A student who wishes to take an examination upon a course which is not a part of her approved schedule for the year, must apply to the Dean for the requisite card of admission to the examination. The last day for receiving applications for such cards is for the September examinations, September first; for the mid-year examinations, January first; for the June examinations, May fifteen.

N. B. Examinations for the removal of conditions and deficiencies excepted, no student can be admitted to examination upon a course which is not a part of her approved schedule for the year without permission both from the Head of the Department concerned and the Dean of the College. No student, therefore, should enter upon preparation for such an examination until her plan has been approved by both of the above named officers.

The College reserves the right to require the withdrawal of students whose scholarship is not satisfactory, and of those who for any other reason are regarded as not in accord with the ideals and standards which the College seeks to maintain.

DEGREES

The following degrees are conferred by the Trustees upon recommendation of the Academic Council:—

Bachelor of Arts.
Master of Arts.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE B.A. DEGREE

Every candidate for the B.A. degree must complete before graduation the equivalent of fifty-nine hours. Since 1896, two grades in work which reaches the passing mark have been distinguished: one "Passed"; the other, "Passed with Credit." In order to be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1917 and 1918, a student must have "passed with credit" in not less than eight hours in each semester of her freshman and of her sophomore year, and in not less than nine hours in each semester of her junior and of her senior year; in 1919 and thereafter, a student must have "passed with credit" in not less than six hours in the first semester of the freshman year and in not less than nine hours in each succeeding semester. Deficiency of such work in any semester may be made good in accordance with regulations adopted by the Faculty. First-year French and first-year German may not both be counted among the fifty-nine hours. Neither first-year French nor first-year German may be so counted if taken after the sophomore year. Second-year French, second-year German, first-year Italian and first-year Spanish may not be counted among the fifty-nine hours, if taken after the junior year. Of the fifty-nine hours required for the B.A. degree, a certain number is prescribed, the rest elective.

I. PRESCRIBED. The following subjects are required as specified:

- Biblical History * . . . . . 4 hours
- English Composition * . . . . . 4 "
- Mathematics * . . . . . 4 "
- Language (unless a third language has been presented for admission) . .
  or
- Natural Science (if not presented for admission) . . . .
- A Second Natural Science . . . . . 3 hours
- Philosophy . . . . . 3 "
- Hygiene . . . . . 2† "

23 or 26 hours

* The requirement in English Composition and Mathematics for students entering in September, 1915, and thereafter, is three hours in each subject to be taken in the freshman year; the requirement in Biblical History is three three-hour semester courses, to be taken in the sophomore and junior years.

† One hour of this requirement is met by a one-hour course in Hygiene in the freshman year; the second hour is met by four periods in practical work, two periods per week in the freshman year and two in the sophomore year.
Of the required subjects, Mathematics must be taken in the freshman year; Hygiene one and one half hours in the freshman year, and one half hour in the sophomore year; Biblical History two hours per week in the sophomore and the junior years; English Composition two hours per week in the freshman and the sophomore years. Of the natural sciences, one must be taken before the junior year; either a language or a science must be taken in the freshman year and both if neither a third language nor a science is offered for admission. Philosophy should ordinarily be taken before the senior year.

II. ELECTIVE. All courses are classified in Grades I, II, III; Grade I including elementary courses and Grade III the most advanced courses. All of the fifty-nine hours not indicated in the above are elective, subject to the approval of the Faculty.

Moreover every candidate for the B.A. degree must show before graduation that she has completed either

(1) nine hours in each of two departments,

or

(2) twelve hours in one department and six hours in a second department.

Of the courses offered to fulfill this requirement, at least one full course of Grade III must be taken in the senior year. The nine-hour groups must consist of at least six hours above Grade I, three hours of which must be of Grade III. The twelve-hour group must consist of at least nine hours above Grade I, six hours of which must be of Grade III. The six-hour group must include at least three hours above Grade I.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Mathematics</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>English Composition</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hygiene 21 and 29</td>
<td>1½</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Electives</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>16½</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

These electives must be chosen in accordance with the prerequisites given in the department statements from the list of courses named below, subject to the following restrictions:
(1) One elective must be a science (if no science is offered for admission), and the second a language (if only two foreign languages are offered for admission).

(2) One elective must be chosen from courses in classics, history, or science.

(3) Only one of the following subjects may be elected: art, musical theory, English literature.

(4) French and German may not both be elected.

Language
- Greek 1, 13, 14
- Latin 1
- German 1, 2, 5 and 10
- French 1, 2, 3 and 5
- Italian 1
- Spanish 1

Sciences
- Astronomy 1
- Botany 5, 6
- Chemistry 1, 4
- Geology 8
- Physics, 1, 2
- Zoology 1

Other Subjects
- Art 12
- English Literature 1
- History 1 and 2, 3
- Musical Theory 15

If 16½ hours are satisfactorily completed in the freshman year, the normal program for the remaining years would be as follows:

- Sophomore year
  - 15½ hours

- Junior year
  - 15 “

- Senior year
  - 12 “

If 16½ hours are not completed in the freshman year, a student may by special permission carry extra hours in the remaining years.

Elective courses must be chosen with great care so that changes will not be necessary. Students are held responsible for observing the requirements for the degree and the proper sequence of courses.

All requests for changes of elective courses should be sent to the Dean of the College before September 15th. In general, no changes may be made after the beginning of the year.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE M.A. DEGREE

The work required of a candidate for the M.A. degree is equivalent to fifteen hours of college work, and includes no fewer than nine nor more than twelve hours of regular class work. A thesis, or a report or reports, based on independent work will be required. The student should choose one major subject and not more than one minor subject, which should be related to the major; or she may, if she prefers, do all her work in one subject. A candidate for the M.A. degree is required to have a reading knowledge of French and of German.

One year of graduate work is required of all candidates for the M.A. degree, but two or more years are usually needed for the completion of the work.
Graduates of Wellesley College may do all the work in non-residence, under conditions defined in the Graduate Circular.

One year in residence is required of all other candidates for the degree.

Information regarding thesis, final examinations, etc., will be found in the Graduate Circular which will be sent on application to the College Recorder.

EXPENSES

TUITION

The charge for tuition to all students, whether living in college buildings or not, is $175 a year. Tuition is payable in advance and is not subject to return or deduction.

Students who are permitted to take seven hours or less of class-room work a week, and who do not live in college buildings, pay tuition by the course as follows: for a one-hour course, $20; a two-hour course, $40; a three-hour course, $60. Payment is due at the beginning of the year. No charge is made for tuition in Biblical History.

TUITION AND OTHER CHARGES IN DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

For instruction for the college year in Pianoforte, Organ, Violin, or Vocal Music, two lessons a week $100
One lesson a week ............................ 50
(Lessons thirty minutes in length.)

For use of the Pianoforte, one period daily for the college year ............................ 10
For two and three periods daily, in proportion.

For use of the Pipe Organ in Music Hall, one period daily, for the college year ............................ 15
For two or three periods daily, in proportion.

Special arrangements may be made for lessons on instruments not mentioned above.

Tuition in music must always be paid in advance and is not subject to return or deduction.
The charge for board and lodging to students living in halls of residence is $325.

It will be seen from the above statements that the total annual charge (for both residence and tuition) is $500.

FIXED TIMES AND AMOUNTS OF PAYMENTS

I. Students lodged in college buildings.

These students make payments as follows:

- September (at the opening of college) . . . . $275
  This sum includes $110 on account of tuition and $165 on account of board and lodging.

- February (before the beginning of the second semester) 225
  This sum includes $65, the balance of tuition payment, and $160 the balance due for board and lodging.

Total of these payments for the year . . . . $500

The charge for board begins at the opening of residence halls (see page 5) and students are not permitted to occupy rooms before that time.

II. Students not lodged in college buildings.

a. Students who take their meals in college buildings but lodge in private houses make payments as follows:

- September (at the opening of college) . . . . $210
  This sum includes $110 on account of tuition and $100 on account of board.

- February (before the beginning of the second semester) $165
  This sum includes $65, the balance of tuition payment, and $100, the balance due for board.

These students find rooms in the village of Wellesley. Payment is made to the head of the house at such rates and times as the parties to the arrangement may agree upon. Information regarding boarding places may be obtained by addressing the Registrar.
b. Students who neither lodge nor board in college buildings make payment for tuition as follows:—

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>September</td>
<td>$110</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>February</td>
<td>65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>$175</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

These students find room and board in the village of Wellesley. Payment is made to the head of the house at such rates and times as the parties to the arrangement may agree upon. Information regarding boarding places may be obtained by addressing the Registrar.

Payments must be made before the student can take her place in the class room. No exception will be made to this rule without a written permission from the Treasurer.

Checks or money orders should be made payable to Wellesley College.

FEES

I. Undergraduate.

An application fee of $10 is required from all candidates for admission, and no application is recorded until the fee is received (see page 166). The same fee is required from all students in college who are intending to return for the following year, and from all former students who apply for re-admission. If the student enters college, the amount of the application fee is deducted from the first tuition bill after entrance. If formal notice of withdrawal is received at the College before August 15th of the year for which the application is made, the fee will be refunded. In all other cases it is forfeited to the College. A student who postpones entrance until the year following the one for which she first applied may transfer her application fee. But a fee so transferred will not be refunded if the student later decides to withdraw, unless the request for the transfer was received within the specified time. Requests for second transfers are sometimes granted, but a fee transferred a second time will not be refunded under any circumstances.
An additional charge is made for materials and the use of apparatus in the following laboratory courses: $5 for each laboratory course in Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, Geology, Physics, Zoology; $5 each for course 13 in Hygiene and for courses 9 and 10 in Musical Theory; $2.50 each for the half courses 11 and 12 in Musical Theory; $2 each for the studio courses in Art, and $1 each for all other Art courses, $2 being the maximum charge for Art fees to any student. Every student should also reckon on the expenditure of $10 to $25 annually for the purchase of books. At the time of taking the B.A. degree a diploma fee of $5 is charged.

II. Graduate.

A matriculation fee of $5 is payable when a student is accepted as a candidate for the Master’s degree. The amount of this fee will be deducted from the diploma fee of $25 payable when the degree is received.

RESIDENCE

The residence halls belonging to the College and situated within the limits of the campus are Stone Hall, Norumbega, Freeman, Wood, Wilder, Fiske, Pomeroy, Cazenove, Beebe, Shafer, Tower Court, and Clafiin Hall. Eliot Hall, also the property of the College, and eight houses leased to the College for dormitory purposes in order to meet temporary needs, are situated outside and immediately adjoining the college grounds. All these houses are under the direction of officers appointed by the College. All the rooms are furnished, and supplied with electric lights.

A student vacating a room before the close of the year, or relinquishing a room reserved for her at the beginning of the year, will be charged for board until the vacancy has been filled by an incoming student. Therefore, notice of intention to withdraw should be given at the earliest possible moment. No deduction is made for absences during the year.

All applications for rooms in college buildings take the date at which the application fee is received. (See pages 25 and 164.)

Until May first, but not after that date, applications from former students will take precedence of those of new students in the matter of rooms.

\textbf{No student can receive a diploma until a satisfactory settlement of all her college dues has been made.}

\section*{HEALTH}

The resident physician, Katharine P. Raymond, B.S., M.D., together with the Professor of Hygiene, the Director of Halls of Residence, and the President and the Dean of the College, \textit{ex officio}, constitute a board of health to which all matters affecting the health of students are referred. Simpson Cottage is maintained as an infirmary under the charge of Dr. Raymond. Two trained nurses are in constant attendance. The services of the Resident Physician for consultation and treatment are free to all students.

\section*{FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS}

\subsection*{A. FOR GRADUATES}

\textbf{The Alice Freeman Palmer Fellowship}, yielding an income of about $1,000, was founded in 1903, by Mrs. David P. Kimball.

The holder of this Fellowship must be a graduate of Wellesley College or some other American college of approved standing, a young woman of good health, not more than twenty-six years of age at the time of her appointment, unmarried throughout the whole of her tenure, and as free as possible from other responsibilities. The same person will not be eligible to the Fellowship for more than two years.

The Fellowship may be used for study abroad, for study at any American college or university, or privately for independent research. Several times during the period of tenure the holder of the Fellowship must furnish evidence that it is used for purposes of serious study and not for general culture; and within three years from entrance on the Fellowship she must present to the faculty a thesis embodying the results of the research carried on during the period of tenure.

Applications for this Fellowship should be received by the President of Wellesley College not later than February first of the academic year preceding that for which the Fellowship is asked.

Holders of this Fellowship

1904–1905—Lehmann, Harriet (Mrs. Kitchin)
B.A. Ripon College, 1902; M.A. Northwestern University, 1903; Graduate Student Radcliffe College, 1904–1905.

1905–1906—Andrus, Grace Mead (Mrs. de Laguna),
B.A. Cornell University, 1903; Graduate Student Cornell University, 1903–1905. Declined the Fellowship, which was awarded to Gardiner, Elizabeth Manning (Mrs. Whitmore), 1906–1907—Johnson, Anna (Mrs. Pell),

B.A. University of South Dakota, 1903; M.S. University of Iowa, 1904; M.A. Radcliffe College, 1905; Graduate Student Radcliffe College, 1905–1906; Student University of Göttingen, 1906–1907, 1908; Instructor in Mathematics, University of South Dakota, 1907; Ph.D. University of Chicago, 1910; Instructor in Mathematics, 1911–1914, and Associate Professor, 1914—, Mt. Holyoke College.

1907–1908—Cook, Helen Dodd (Mrs. Vincent),

1908–1909—Stone, Isabelle,
B.A. Wellesley College, 1905; Graduate Student Cornell University, 1905–1908; Ph.D. Cornell University, 1908; Student American School of Classical Studies in Athens, 1908–1909; Reader in Greek, Bryn Mawr College, second semester, 1909–1910; Head of Greek and Latin Departments, Woman's College of Alabama, first semester, 1910–1911.

1909–1910—Schröpperle, Gertrude,
B.A. Wellesley College, 1903; M.A. 1905; Graduate Student Radcliffe College, 1905–1907; Student University of Munich, 1907–1908; University of Paris, 1908–1911; Ph.D. Radcliffe College, 1909; Instructor in English, University of Illinois, 1911–1912; Instructor in German, New York University, 1912–1913; Instructor in English, 1913–1914, and Associate in English, 1914—, University of Illinois.
Fellowships and Scholarships 1916–17

1910–1911—Hibbard, Laura Alandis, English Literature. B.A. Wellesley College, 1905; M.A. 1908; Graduate Student University of Chicago, 1909–1911; Ph.D. University of Chicago, 1916; Instructor in English Literature, 1908–1916, and Associate Professor, 1916—, Mt. Holyoke College.

1911–1912—Barbour, Violet, History. B.A. Cornell University, 1906; M.A. 1909; Graduate Scholar in History, Cornell University, 1908–1909; carrying on historical research in England, France, and Holland, 1911–1913; Ph.D. Cornell University, 1914; Instructor in History, 1914—, Vassar College.

1912–1913—Coats, Bessie Marion, Philosophy. B.A. Vassar College, 1907; Mary E. Ives Fellow, Yale University, 1910–1911; Graduate Student Radcliffe College, 1911–1915; M.A. Radcliffe College, 1912; Principal of Ferry Hall, Lake Forest, Ill., 1915—.

1913–1914—Stocking, Ruth, Zoology. B.A. Goucher College, 1910; Graduate Student Goucher College and Johns Hopkins University, 1910–1911; Graduate Student Bryn Mawr College, 1911–1912; University Fellow in Zoology, Johns Hopkins University, 1912–1913; Johns Hopkins University, 1913–1914; Ph.D. Johns Hopkins University, 1915; Professor of Biology, Agnes Scott College, 1915–1916; Professor of Biology, Wells College, 1916—.

1914–1915—Holden, Ruth, Botany. B.A. Radcliffe College, 1911; M.A. Radcliffe College, 1912; Graduate Student Radcliffe College, 1912–1913; Student in Botany School, Cambridge University, England, 1913—.

1915–1916—Hazlett, Olive Clio, Mathematics. B.A. Radcliffe College, 1912; M.S. University of Chicago, 1913; Graduate Student and Fellow, University of Chicago, 1912–1915; Holder of Fellowship of the Boston Branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, 1914–1915; Ph.D. University of Chicago, 1915; Student at Radcliffe College, 1915–1916; Associate in Mathematics, Bryn Mawr College, 1916—.

1916–1917—Hazlett, Olive Clio, Mathematics. Declined the Fellowship, which was awarded to Dunn, Grace Adelaide, Botany. Ph.B. Hamline University, 1909; M. A. Johns Hopkins, 1914; Ph.D. Johns Hopkins, 1915.

Thirty Graduate Scholarships to the value of $175 a year, the equivalent of one year’s tuition, have been established for the benefit of approved candidates for the M.A. degree in residence at Wellesley. Applications for these scholarships should be addressed to the College Recorder, Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.

Scholarships in Schools of Classical Study.—Studentships in the American School of Classical Studies in Athens, and the American Academy in Rome, are open to graduates and graduate students of Wellesley College who have done sufficient work in the classics to meet the admission requirements. The object of these schools is to afford opportunity for the study of classical literature, art, and antiquities, to aid in original research in these subjects, and to conduct the exploration and excavation of classical sites.

The American School of Classical Studies in Athens.—The school year extends from October first to June first. The regulations for admission are as follows: “Bachelors of Arts of co-operating colleges, and all Bachelors of Arts who have studied at one of these colleges as candidates for a higher degree, shall be admitted to membership in the School on presenting to the Committee a certificate from the classical department of the college at which they have last studied, stating that they are competent to pursue an independent course of study at Athens under the advice of the Director. Members of the school are subject to no charge for tuition.” * Further information can be had by application to Professor Chapin, who represents Wellesley College upon the Managing Committee of the School.

The American Academy in Rome, School of Classical Studies.—The American School of Classical Studies is now one of the consolidated schools of the American Academy in Rome. The school year extends from the fifteenth of October to the fifteenth of June. It is hoped that a summer session also for teachers of the classics may be arranged. For information in regard to the work of the School and the requirements for admission, application may be made to Professor Hawes.

Scholarships in the Marine Biological Laboratory at Wood’s Holl.—Wellesley College offers annually two scholarships for study at this laboratory. The laboratory is open to investigators for the whole year. During the summer three courses in Zoology and two in Botany are offered to those needing instruction. Applicants desiring to take either of these courses must have completed a college course in the subject in which they wish to work.

Students in either Botany or Zoology who desire to undertake original work will receive suitable direction. In addition to these opportunities there are courses of lectures on special topics and on subjects of general biological interest. Applications for appointment should state the character of the work to be done,—i.e., whether botanical or zoological, whether general work, investigation under direction, or independent investigation,—and should be forwarded to Professor Robertson or Associate Professor Riddle in time to reach Wellesley College before April first.

Scholarships at the Zoological Station in Naples.—Wellesley College is a subscriber to the support of the American Women’s Table at the Zoological Station in Naples, and thus has a voice in the selection of the persons who make use of it. Such persons must be capable of independent investigation in Botany, Zoology, or Physiology. Appointments are made for a longer or shorter period, as seems in each case expedient. Applications for the use of the table may be made through the President of the College.

B. FOR UNDERGRADUATES

The income of these scholarships is applied to the aid of meritorious undergraduate students whose personal means are insufficient for their maintenance in college.

The Wood Memorial Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1878, by Caroline A. Wood, in memory of her husband.
The Weston Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1878, by David M. Weston.

The Income of a Fund of $25,000, known as the Stone Educational Fund, founded in 1884, by Valeria G. Stone.
The Jeannie L. White Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1886, by herself.
The Mr. and Mrs. Solomon F. Smith Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1888, by George Smith, for the tuition of students from the town of Wellesley.
The Margaret McClung Cowan Fund of $1,000, founded in 1888, by Rev. and Mrs. P. D. Cowan, in memory of their daughter.
The Emmelar Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1889, by the class of 1891, the income to be appropriated annually to some student selected by the Faculty.
The Sarah J. Houghton Scholarship of $6,000, founded in 1889, by William S. Houghton, in memory of his wife.
The Edith Baker Memorial Scholarship of $7,000, founded by bequest of Eleanor J. W. Baker in 1892.
The Joseph N. Fiske Memorial Scholarship of $8,000, founded in 1892, by Mrs. J. N. Fiske.
The Abbie A. Coburn Memorial Scholarship of $2,000, founded in 1892.
The Eliza C. Jewett Scholarship of $6,000, founded in 1894; the income to be appropriated to the daughter of a clergyman, or of a home or foreign missionary, selected by the Faculty of the College.
The Ada L. Howard Scholarship of $6,000, founded in 1895.
The Helen Day Gould Scholarship, founded in 1896, by Helen Miller Gould (Shepard), in memory of her mother; raised to $10,000 by the donor in 1901.
The Goodwin Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1897, by Hannah B. Goodwin.
The Hyde Scholarship of $2,000, founded in 1898, by Sarah B. Hyde.
The Bill Scholarship of $7,000, founded in 1898, by Charles Bill.
The Holbrook Scholarship of $3,000, founded in 1898, by Sarah J. Holbrook.
The (second) Helen Day Gould Scholarship, founded in 1899, by Helen Miller Gould (Shepard); raised to $10,000 by the donor in 1901.
The Mary Elizabeth Gere Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1899, by Mary Elizabeth Gere.
The Ann Morton Towle Memorial Scholarship Fund of $5,000, established in 1901, by bequest of George Francis Towle.
The Dana Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1901, through the gift of Charles B. Dana.
The (third) Helen Day Gould Scholarship of $10,000, founded in 1901, by Helen Miller Gould (Shepard).
The George William Towle Memorial Scholarship Fund, $6,750, founded in 1901, by bequest of George Francis Towle.

The Anna Palen Scholarship of $10,000, founded in 1902.

The Rollins Scholarship of $8,000, founded in 1903, by Augusta and Hannah H. Rollins, in memory of their parents.

The Class of 1889 Memorial Scholarship of $1,000, founded in 1904, by the class, in memory of classmates who have died.

The Elizabeth S. Fiske Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1904, by bequest of Miss Fiske.

The Mae McElwain Rice Memorial Scholarship of $1,000, founded in 1905, by the class of 1902.

The Sanborn Alumnae Scholarship, yielding $450 annually, founded in 1905, by Helen J. Sanborn of the class of 1884, for the benefit of daughters of alumnae.

The Julia Ball Thayer Scholarship of $2,000, founded in 1907, by bequest of Mrs. Julia B. Thayer, of Keene, N. H.

The Adams Scholarship of $2,000, founded in 1907, by bequest of Adoniram J. Adams, of Boston.

The McDonald–Ellis Fund of $500, established in 1908 by former students of the McDonald-Ellis School of Washington, D. C., in memory of the late principals of the school.

The Ransom Scholarship of $1,000, founded in 1908, by bequest of Catherine Ayer Ransom.

The Emily P. Hidden Scholarship of $2,000, founded in 1909, by bequest of Mary E. Hidden.

The Ethel Howland Folger Williams Memorial Fund, established in 1911 from the estate of the late Ethel Howland Folger (Williams) of the class of 1905, the income to be given to a sophomore at the end of the first semester at the discretion of the head of the German department.
The Sophie Jewett Memorial Scholarship of $1,000, founded in 1911, by Elsa D. James.

The Mildred Keim Fund of $10,000, founded in 1912 by Newton and Frances S. Keim, in memory of their daughter, Mildred Keim.

The Connecticut Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1912, by the will of Louise Frisbie.

The Anna S. Newman Memorial Scholarship of $1,000, established in 1913, through the gift of former students.

The Class of 1893 Memorial Scholarship of $5,000, established by the class in 1913.

The M. Elizabeth Gray Scholarship of $10,000, established in 1914 by bequest of William J. Gray.

The Cora Stickney Harper Scholarship of $2,000, established in 1915, by bequest of Mrs. Cora Stickney Harper.

The Oliver N., Mary C., and Mary Shannon Fund of $15,000, established in 1916, by bequest of Mary Shannon, as a permanent fund for free scholarships.

Another source of pecuniary aid is in the work of the Students' Aid Society established by the founders of the College and revived and incorporated by the alumnae of the College in April, 1916. The Wellesley College Loan Fund, established in 1908 through contributions from alumnae and other friends of the College, is included in the resources of the Students' Aid Society. Small amounts are loaned to students without interest in expectation that these students will repay whenever they are able. Assistance is often given partly in gifts and partly in loans. The existing funds are not sufficient to meet the wants of deserving applicants, and contributions of any amount will be gladly received by the treasurer, Miss Mary Caswell, Wellesley College.

In one dormitory a reduction is allowed on payment for board, under certain conditions.
LIBRARY

The Library of the College, endowed by Eben Norton Horsford, now numbers 78,556 volumes, including the departmental and special libraries enumerated below. The General Library is open on week days from 8 A. M. to 9:30 P. M., and on Sundays from 2:30 to 5:30 P. M. Students have direct access to the shelves. The library is catalogued by author and subject entries, and the most recent and useful bibliographical aids are provided; special effort is made by the librarians to train students in methods of research.

The Library subscribes for six daily and three weekly papers and for three hundred and four American and foreign periodicals. The list includes the most important representatives of the branches of instruction comprised in the college curriculum.

The Gertrude Memorial Library, established by Mr. A. A. Sweet, the Missionary Library, and other collections in the General Library, furnish 7,105 volumes for Biblical study and religious reading.

The Plimpton Library, established by Mr. George A. Plimpton, in memory of his wife, Frances Pearsons Plimpton, of the class of 1884, comprises 925 volumes of early Italian literature, including both manuscripts and printed books of the fifteenth century.

The Music Library, in Billings Hall, includes a collection of manuscripts and musical scores, besides books on music.

The following collections are placed in the laboratories of the respective departments:

Art Library, 2,452 volumes.
Botany Library, 708 volumes.
Chemistry Library, 649 volumes.
Astronomy Library, 960 volumes.
Hygiene Library, 2,255 volumes.
GYMNASIUM

The department of Hygiene occupies the new Mary Hemenway Hall on the western border of the college grounds. It is designed to meet the requirements of the course for the training of teachers of hygiene, and to provide practical instruction for the entire College. The equipment includes large, well-lighted gymnasiums with ample bathing facilities, administrative offices, class rooms, and laboratories for anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, hygiene, anthropometry, corrective gymnastics, and research. Immediately adjoining Mary Hemenway Hall are tennis and archery courts, basket ball, baseball and hockey fields, and oval for horse back riding, with room for further expansion. Lake Waban furnishes facilities for rowing and skating, and there is also a golf course with a clubhouse. The equipment of the department is designed solely to aid in the application of modern principles of science to the maintenance and promotion of health.

THE FARNSWORTH ART BUILDING AND ART COLLECTIONS

The Farnsworth Art Building, the gift of the late Isaac D. Farnsworth, was opened in September, 1889. Besides lecture rooms, galleries for collections, and studios for drawing and painting, a special feature is the arrangement of laboratories and libraries, so that the books and art material relating to particular subjects and periods can be made immediately available to general students.

The Art Collection consists of a large number of photographs and other material, including the James Jackson Jarves collection of laces and vestments; the M. Day Kimball Memorial, consisting of original pieces of antique sculpture; a few examples of early Italian painting; a collection of Indian baskets, the gift of Mrs. Rufus S. Frost; various Egyptian antiquities obtained through the kindness of Mrs. John C. Whitin, including certain interesting papyri; and scarabs and seals from the collection of Dr. Chauncey Murch, the gift of Mrs. Helen M. Gould Shepard; the Stetson collection of modern paintings, and a few other examples.

The collection of photographs and other reproductions numbers over thirteen thousand.

EQUIPMENT IN MUSIC

Music Hall and Billings Hall are large brick buildings, devoted entirely to the department of Music. Music Hall contains offices, studios, and practice rooms equipped with thirty-one new pianos of standard makes; also a large room, containing a two-manual pipe organ for the use of the organ pupils. Billings Hall, opened in 1904, contains the office of the Professor of Music, the library and class rooms for instruction in Musical Theory; also a concert room, seating four hundred and ten people, and containing the Grover organ,—a large three-manual organ, rebuilt and modernized.
LABORATORIES AND SCIENTIFIC COLLECTIONS

ASTRONOMY

The Whitin Observatory is supplied with a twelve-inch equatorial refracting telescope with micrometer, spectroscope, and photometer; a six-inch equatorial, with micrometer; two transits, the larger a three-inch prismatic transit with zenith level; two chronographs, two sidereal clocks and a Bond chronometer; a concave grating spectroscope; a small collection of meteorites; a cabinet of historic astronomical instruments and books; and a number of minor instruments and photographs.

Meteorological instruments, including thermometer shelter, thermograph, barograph, anemometer, and anemoscope, are installed at the observatory.

BOTANY

The department of Botany has the use of seven modern laboratories well supplied with microscopes, electric stereopticon, and other modern apparatus and appliances. Apparatus for bacteriological work includes an autoclave, a hot-air sterilizer, and an incubator, while the embryological laboratory is equipped with a paraffin oven, and revolving, sliding, and freezing microtomes.

The illustrative collections comprise an herbarium of nearly twenty thousand phanerogams and twenty-one thousand cryptogams, including the lichen collection of the late Prof. Clara E. Cummings; also a collection of woods, fruits, and economic vegetable products; three hundred charts by Henslow, Kny, Dodel, Tschirch, and others; a collection of Auzouix's botanical models; Brendel's glass models of cryptogams; seventeen hundred water color paintings of North American plants by Helen Frances Ayres; lantern slides and microscope mounts. In addition collections for a permanent museum now number more than five thousand specimens.

Classes have the use of a garden and plots of wild ground as well. Specimens are also supplied from a private greenhouse. The native flora about Wellesley is easily accessible, furnishing a convenient field for both the taxonomist and ecologist. A small glass house is an aid to work in landscape gardening and in plant physiology. The library is well supplied with reference works and with current periodicals.

CHEMISTRY

The department of Chemistry occupies a separate building, which contains two lecture rooms and the chemical library, in addition to the rooms fitted up for laboratory work. Separate rooms are provided for work in General and Organic Chemistry, Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis, and Air, Water and Food Analysis. The building is conveniently arranged and well equipped with necessary apparatus and appliances.

GEOLOGY AND GEOGRAPHY

The department of Geology and Geography has a large and well-equipped lecture hall provided with a Leitz epidiascope for lantern slide and opaque projection. One end of this room has been equipped with desks for use as a geology laboratory, and an adjoining room is adequately furnished for a geography laboratory.

The Geology Museum contains a typical college collection of dynamical, structural, and historical geology specimens,—a systematic collection of minerals arranged according to Dana, and a systematic collection of rocks. There are three collections arranged for class-room use,—one each in mineralogy, petrology and structural and historical geology. These collections are all the generous gifts of colleges, museums and friends. The department has two noteworthy collections. The first is the Horace I. Johnson Mineral Collection, which consists of five thousand valuable and beautiful mineral specimens, including many precious metals and stones. This collection is the gift of Mr. John Merton of Calumet, Michigan, and was presented through the Class of 1915 by the courtesy of Miss M. Helen Merton. The second is the Reverend David F. Pierce Collection, which includes a complete and rare collection of building and ornamental stones and many precious and semi-precious minerals. This collection is the gift of Professor Frederick E. Pierce of Yale, Miss Anna H. Pierce, and Miss Mary E. Pierce of the Class of 1898.

The maps of the department include wall maps of different countries and sections of countries; all the United States Geologic Folios, and over six thousand topographic maps of the United States Geologic Survey, the gift of the Survey. Three thousand of these latter maps are arranged in groups to illustrate geographic types.

The department has fifteen hundred lantern slides which illustrate all phases of geology and geography.

MATHEMATICS

The fine collection of Mathematical Models was destroyed by fire in March, 1914. At present there is only a small number of models for use in the elementary work.

PHYSICS

The department of Physics shares for the present the use of the Chemistry Building and occupies in addition an adequately fitted laboratory in Wilder Hall. The lecture rooms and laboratories are equipped with direct and alternating current, compressed air, and gas. The new equipment for the lecture table and laboratory is of the latest approved form.
PSYCHOLOGY

The temporary quarters of the laboratory now include seven rooms, six in the north wing of the Administration Building and one in the basement of the Art Building. The equipment, entirely destroyed by fire in March, 1914, is being replaced as fast as war conditions permit.

ZOOLOGY

The department of Zoology is housed in a small temporary building consisting of three laboratories, three offices, and a general work room. The building is supplied with water, heat, electricity and gas. The laboratories are equipped for present needs with microscopes, physiological apparatus, slides for histology and embryology, Leuckart charts, and a working collection of skeletons and alcoholic specimens. All the courses except two are given in the new temporary building. The work in anatomy is conducted in the laboratories in Mary Hemenway Hall.

Through gifts of bird skins, insects, shells, and a collection of invertebrates from the Zoological Station at Naples, and another from New England, the nucleus of a new museum is already formed.
FORMS OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to Wellesley College, a corporation established by law, in the town of Wellesley, county of Norfolk, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of _______________ dollars, to be safely invested by it, and called the —— Endowment Fund. The interest shall be applied to the payment of the salaries of teachers in Wellesley College, as the Trustees shall deem expedient.

HONOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Honor Scholarships (without stipend) have been established by the College for the purpose of giving recognition to a high degree of excellence in academic work. These honors fall into two classes: students in the first, or higher class, are termed Durant Scholars; students in the second class are termed Wellesley College Scholars.

These honors are awarded to seniors on the basis of two and one-half years' work, to juniors on the basis of one and one-half years' work. The standard in each case is absolute, not competitive.
