ELECTIONS.

SUE BELLE AINSLEE,
President of the Senior Class of 1903.

Last week was most eventful, considering the number of elections which took place. On Tuesday occurred the election of Student Government president, and on Wednesday, Senior president and Christian Association elections. At five o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Frances Hughes rang the gong on the third floor and announced to the entire college (assembled in classes on different floors around the center) the election of Miss Kate Lord as Student Government president. The next day, Wednesday, at about the same time, the Junior class burst forth from Lecture Room I, announcing the election of Miss Sue Ainslee for Senior president. The officers of the Christian Association, elected on the same day, are as follows:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| President, | Elizabeth Torrey, '03 |
| Vice-president, | Flora Dobbin, '03 |
| Recording Secretary, | Helen Cook, '05 |
| Corresponding Secretary, | Helen Coale, '05 |
| Treasurer, | Maude Jessup, '04 |
| Chairman Religions Meeting Committee, | Miss Caswell |
| Chairman of Mission Committee, | Miss Breyfogle |
| Chairman of Social Committee, | Bessie Allen, '04 |
| Chairman of General Aid Committee, | Mary Eaton, '04 |
| Chairman of Bible Study Committee, | Ethel Doak, '04 |
| Chairman of Mission Study Committee, | Adele Ogden, '04 |

On Friday evening, May 9, in Lecture Room IV, occurred the election of officers for the Alliance Française. It is the plan of the organization to give in place of the next regular meeting, a reception. The following officers were elected: President, Belle Schlesinger; Vice-president, Annis Van Nuys; Secretary, Ruth Whitney; Treasurer, Eleanor McDonald; Advisory Committee, Mlle. Lydie Caron, Betty Piper.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, Instructor in Sanitary Chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will speak before the Science Club, Tuesday evening, May 13, 1902, in the Physics Lecture Room on the subject "Science Applied to Life."

On Monday afternoon, May 19, from four until six, the Senior Class will entertain the Junior Class and the Graduate Club by giving a country dance on the green at Tupelo. If the day is rainy the entertainment will be given in the Barn. Square dances will be danced, the dancers appearing in peasants' costume. Miss Jane Button is chairman of the committee in charge of the entertainment.

On Monday evening, May 26, in College Hall Chapel, occurs the annual entertainment given by the Elocution Department of the College. This year, besides scenes from "Hamlet," given by members of the Wellesley Elocution Department, scenes from "Cyrano de Bergerac," by students of Boston University, will also be given. There will be a reading from Monsieur Beaucaire.

Last week an additional rule governing the use of boats was posted on the elevator bulletin board. Rule 4 read formerly "Paddling is attended with certain dangers, and should be practiced only by experienced persons." The additional notice reads as follows: "Since the above notice (Rule 4), posted last autumn, has failed to prevent students from practices which are decidedly unsafe, it has become necessary to add the following restriction: No student is allowed to paddle while sitting on the bow or the stern of the boat, or occupying any other position which brings her weight above the level of the ordinary seats designed for rowing."

On Saturday afternoon, May tenth, from four until six, Miss Ellor E. Carlisle, former head of the Pedagogy Department, gave a reception in Tau Zeta Epsilon House for Miss Laing, the present instructor in Pedagogy.

Mr. Percival Lowell, who has built and sustains an observatory on one of the Rocky Mountains for the purpose of observing the planets, gave a lecture upon "Mars" on Monday evening, May 12, at 7.30, in College Hall Chapel. The lecture was illustrated, and threw much light on the question "Is Mars Habitable?"

COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Hazard spent the early part of this week in Princeton, N. Y., where, on Tuesday, she gave an address before a Princeton club. The latter part of the week Miss Hazard is the guest of the Wellesley Club in Chicago.

All gifts will be welcomed, and should be sent to Mr. Alphens H. Hardy, Treasurer of Wellesley College.

On Saturday afternoon, May tenth, from three until five, the Graduate Club of Wellesley gave a reception in the Students' Parlor, for the Radcliffe Graduate Club. Miss Hazard, Dean Irwin of Radcliffe, Miss Macintyre, President of the Radcliffe Club, Miss March and Miss Stern received. During the reception the guests were shown over the buildings and grounds by the ushers. The club was assisted in their entertainment by the Misses Lorenzen, Lowe, M. G. Vail, Harrison, Gregory, Tompkins, Conklin and Little.

To THE EDITOR OF COLLEGE NEWS:—
Will you kindly enter in your columns a protest against the careless habit of scattering papers over the college campus and grounds. Torn letters, scraps from note-books, scribbled notes on "scratch pad" paper, paper bags and bits of wrapping paper are blown hither and thither in every corner of the grounds, giving our beautiful college grounds, of which we are so justly proud, a most unkempt appearance. If each member of the college will consider it her special duty not only not to throw anything on the grounds, but to pick up and deposit in the nearest dust-shaft, any papers which she sees being blown about, our grounds will become, what they by rights are, the most beautiful throughout the land. 1902.

Now that the evenings are so beautiful, and we all long to be out-of-doors as much as possible, the temptation to wander about the college grounds alone, grows very strong within some of us. But we must remember that the grounds are very large, and there are many bits of thick woods in them, and, while they are protected as far as possible by the college authorities, yet it is impossible to make them absolutely "safe." With this in mind we must take sensible precautions, and always have at least one "partner" in our rambles after dusk.

At the regular Thursday-evening prayer meeting on May eighth, Miss Effie Keeley Pierce, one of the Student Secretaries of the American Committee of the Federation of Y. W. C. A., spoke on the plans for the Silver Bay Conference, which opens June 27.

COLLEGE NOTES.

A new scholarship, of $10,000, has been announced, to be known as the Anna Palen scholarship.

Miss Martha A. Shackford, instructor in English Literature, writes an interesting article for the current number of the Wellesley Magazine on "Two Italian Universities—those at Rome and Florence."

A noteworthy exhibition of reproductions of drawings by Hans Holbein the elder, and of etchings from paintings by Franz Hals, has been held for the past two weeks in the art gallery.

A rare pleasure was given to the lovers of music who listened to the lecture by Professor George Coleman Gow of Vassar, on "Medieval Musical Notation." At the outset Professor Gow showed with the stereopticon an illuminated manuscript of the thirteenth century, adequate, simple, and full, which he contrasted with the intricate, detailed scale of a Wagner opera. Then, in succession, he showed manuscripts—an Indian story-song, Chinese, Greek and early Christian music, and many interesting pieces to show the long centuries of growth in notation. "It is a story of the greatest interest," said Professor Gow, "for it is the story of how musicians from age to age, have struggled to put their wisdom into abiding shape. And it is not to be forgotten that when we are thinking of music we are dealing with a language which conveys the laws of speech growth as well as of art. The principle of all art growth is very noticeable in music, for development always goes from concrete to abstract. . . . Our music is now reaching the point of dissatisfaction with its notation. We are on the eve of a new development; a new process of notation will be evolved."

COLLEGE NOTES.

The following notice was posted last week on the different house bulletins.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE,
Wellesley, Mass.

May 7, 1902.

Important.
President's Office.

The danger of fire from carelessness in the use of alcohol lamps was a subject of discussion at the last meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees. Action was taken which will probably make it necessary in the future for any occupant of a college dormitory who wishes to use an alcohol lamp, to sign a paper agreeing to certain regulations. Meanwhile, until further notice, alcohol lamps may be used in the college dormitories subject to the following restrictions:

- I. Alcohol lamps when in use, must be placed on metal trays.
- II. These lamps must not be used after ten o'clock except in case of illness, when it is expected that the Head of the House or the Health Officer will be summoned.
- III. These lamps must not be filled while burning. In refilling the lamp care must be taken that the burner is perfectly cold before the alcohol is supplied.
- IV. No lamp should be lighted until the bottle or other vessel containing the supply of alcohol is corked and removed to a safe distance.
- V. All fires should be reported to the Head of the House.
- VI. Infringement of these rules will result in the confiscation of the lamp.

Permission to use a lamp once confiscated will be given only by vote of the Trustees.

N. B. In this connection, attention is called to Section I of the notice posted in all rooms of college houses which reads as follows:

"Students will be held liable for injury to college property occurring through their agency. The occupants of rooms will be held responsible for all damage within the room" and also Section IX of the same notice "Oil stoves must not be used or kept in rooms."

On Thursday of last week, began the drawing for rooms for the year 1902-03.
