Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord:
Lord, hear my voice.
O let thine ear consider well: the voice of my complaint.
I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for him:
in his word is my trust.
My soul fleeth unto the Lord; before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.
O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plentiful redemption.
And he shall redeem Israel: from all his sins.

Psalm 130.

If thou, Lord, wilt be exalted to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it?
For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.
Out of the garden to the south of the house.

Paddy heard my voice.

Alas! Where was my colleague, Melville, the voice of my companion.

I looked for the garden and found my path.

My eyes flashed up; I said, "Where is the washing." The man replied, "I am waiting for you with the washing. I am waiting for you with the washing."

And so, I went to see what I saw. I saw a man with a gun. He asked me, "What do you want?"

I said, "I want to see your garden."
