Your account of the late movements. You have probably read part of Gen. Crook's operations. The position is suggested to have been drawn through the right flank, as far as 3 points of the compass. I have no idea of this, but I will probably try to make a sketch of it. Dear Sir,

Your truly, on which there should be a credit of $200. How much you will have in your hands after all, I don't know, but suppose it will be over $300. If it should be over $300 I would advise you to get up Uncle John to exchange your funds. You can still make $100 interest bearing notes. I think I shall be able to help you to well supplied that you can keep whatever amount you have been able to learn, whatever it was, it appears to have resulted in nothing. The New York paper was blown out all the time. The par, paper, has been made very uneasy. It is the way I want an effort to take their money with many grains of allowance. Don't let yourself get into a worry over the telegraphed news. I will always be in your thoughts.
