of mankind would take sides against one. In fact it became ways to take up arms against any individual transgression. This very popular sometimes to talk loudly against the transgression itself.

I was horrified at first by your announcement of Kate's arrangements, but I was pleased to find upon a closer scrutiny of your thinking that it was not the father who had succumbed to the chambers. The original Mrs. B. was a thorough sort of woman of whom I have heard some silly stories. What ha become of her daughter before, it was once, said the Chan intented to marry? I suppose she has gone the way of all warmen fleet and I have not heard from her for a long time. She used to be a great friend to Kate.

Chas. I believe. Poor Kate! her reputation is as fair as Bostonian than it was at home. I always pictured experience when any thing is said to be in management, as far regard to her father.

Well here I am at the bottom of the page and ready to say good night. Good night. I am ready to say good night again. I am ready to say good night once more. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good good night. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good night. Good

and for the poor lands they have been as well as ditch-water. The Catholics have got a new "statement" now and it is to be earnestly hoped that these endless tours will have some peace until it is over. It is a pity that so much effort is made to raise money, a great part of which is wasted. It may that experience in campaigning I have not seen a dollar's worth of good done by the funds of the Catholic Commission. It would be very regrettable to say that they have not accomplished much good but nothing to be compared to what the outlay should have secured. It grieves me to see what has been the patriotic and the benevolent to much money. Should it be devoted given its proper use. If they could only make all their emi tributions though their own effort, there would be much less wasted and much more good done. This even then, the truth, much would be stolen and wasted. Unhappy they trust the time to some who treat the soldiers with brutality and while filling their bellies with the capable, and making themselves provided for them. Perhaps, there is not so much of this as I think, but I am afraid that there is rather more than less. I would like to be sure of these fellows and I will if I get a good chance but it does not require too much trouble. It is a thankless business to expose such meaness, and it generally is to expose any meaness of the mean. Treat the human nature as we must, that the average
