Dear Aunt Anne

You have my entire admiration for your gen-erosities in finding a way - such an unusual way too - and my great gratitude for your most generous action in taking personally whatever risks are involved - I have just come in to find your letter with the two checks amounting to $5,000. The whole thing seems too good to be true - It will give - it has already given relief to the situation here - that is

I am relieved and the whole outlook is at once more cheerful -

Shall I make the receipt to you personally, or to you on account of the estate of Aunt Carrie, or how?

Margaret is in Washington when she went on Monday to enter little Margaret in School, and incidentally she will see a good deal of Cousin Rosa Sears, who is just settling in a house in Wash^{ing}ton

Her stay in the comfortable boarding house which Rosa found for her and when Rosa herself is taking her meals, will be longer or Shorter, according as the weather and other circumstances of her hour.) Note that your soul is rejoicing in the consciousness of that strength and function in putting this thing through when men of strength and function "would stand slimmering on the bench" and fail to do anything - until it was too late - You are a dear - strong friend and you have my utmost love and admiration -

Most sincerely
Fanny's Patt.
