The Columbia’s Protest Against Militarism.

A meeting of the students of Columbia University was held on December 17, to “learn the undergraduate attitude toward increased armament for America, and to express disapproval of present armament, for militarism and its blindness upon the American public by war songs in the popular press.” Five hundred students attended, and intense spirit was displayed. The speeches emphasized the need of a definite attitude toward the question of militarism on the part of the college men of America.

The following resolution was passed: “Resolved, That we, the students of Columbia, are in an united assembled, hereby go on record before Congress and the people of the United States, as opposed to militarism in general and an increase in our army and navy in particular.”

MR. SCOLES’ LECTURE.

Mr. Percy A. Scopes, Oxford Extension lecturer, and editor of “The Musical Student,” spoke in Billings Hall on Friday evening, January 8, on “The Golden Age of British Music” during the period of the Restoration. In this period, which extended from the middle of the sixteenth to the end of the seventeenth century, there was a period of change in literature, architecture, and political conception, as well as in music. He traced the influence of the various monarchs on the development of music, and he declared that the period of the Commonwealth was not, as has been repeatedly asserted, a non-musical one, as is proved by the fact that two such Puritans as Milton and Bunyan were intensely fond of music, and also by the fact that more music was published during the eleven years of the Commonwealth than during the preceding ten years.

He spoke of the results of the French influence during the reign of Charles II, in the coming in of a lighter type of composition.

The musicians of the period, especially important were Dr. John Bull, William Byrd, Giles Farnaby and Henry Purcell. The choral forms of the period included anthems, madrigals, canons, “catches,” and songs, and, as they were all written in the Italian style, the words of these were mute on worthy singing as the music, and so beautiful that modern publishers have hunted up old musical manuscripts, taken the words, and printed them simply as poems. The English musicians of this period excelled, also, as composers of instrumental music; we, in fact, according to Mr. Scopes, the discoverers of the art of instrumental composition.

At the conclusion of the lecture, Mrs. Scopes, played, as illustrations of the music of the period, Dr. Bull’s “King’s Hunt,” and Giles Farnaby’s “A Toy,” “His Humor,” and “His Rest.”
A LOOPHOOLE.

One girl came back from Christmas vacation with her mind in a turmoil. Christianity had failed her. She had been led astray by the glib promises of a missionary. Yet she had found no comfort in the life of the village. It is a perfectly understandable case. The facts in the case are not the facts in this one. The former is an instance of a very common type. In the case of students at Wellesley, the following story may be of interest.

When in doubt be conventional.

MISS GRACE DODGE.

During vacation, we were shocked to read of the sudden death of Miss Grace Dodge on December 27. Since Miss Dodge was one of the most prominent workers among students at the college, the news was a great shock to the student body and those who knew her. She was the daughter of the late Dr. Charles H. Dodge, a trustee of the college, and was graduated from Wellesley in 1890. She was one of the founders of the New York Women's Christian Association, and was a member of the board of directors of the New York City mission for many years.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION MEETINGS.

CAMPUS MEETING.

A goodly number turned out to the meeting on the first night of the new term, which was led by Margaret Dickey Griffin, 1915. Miss Griffin read a selection from Mabel Babcock's "Thoughts for Every Day Living," and then spoke briefly on the relation of our College work to our life at home, taking as a basis for her remarks, St. John 11:24: "Give me understanding (or intelligence) and I shall keep thy law - yea, observe it with my whole heart." Our main duty is intelligence. We are too apt to leave our knowledge behind us in the class room, instead of profiting by it as we might in our every-day life at home. With this in view, we should elect courses which will have bearing on our life, and, having elected them, use them for the increase of our practical intelligence.

VILLAGE MEETING.

The message of the meeting in St. Andrew's Church on January 6, was appropriate to the first gathering of the new year. The leader was Rebecca E. Meeker, 1916. The subject: "Israel became like that thing which she loved." We, too, are building character here at College. Not merely in dress, environment, or fate is governing our lives; we ourselves mold our lives after what we love. But how are we doing it? God has entrusted us with a command and responsibility to keep righteous judgments. For this reason, the beginning of the year is the time to stop and decide what we are going to be like, for what we care about at College will influence our whole future.

CORT.

Owing to the enormous demand for seats for the last two weeks of the record-breaking run of "Peg O' My Heart" at the Court Theater, Boston, the management announces an additional week beginning Monday, January 18. This will positively be the last week for "Peg," as Morocco's charming comedy must give way to John Cort's latest musical farce, "What's Going On," which Mr. Cort postponed for a week in order to meet the demand of the Boston and suburban playgoers for another week of "Peg." An innovation for the last week will be a new scale of popular prices; for the evenings the best seats will be at $1.50 and the Wednesday matinee $1.00—Adv.

PLYMOUTH THEATER.

Unless you make up your mind right now to see Cyril Mande, the notable English actor, appearing in "Grompy" at the Plymouth Theater, Boston, you will miss the biggest theatrical treat Boston has had in years. Why wait any longer? Mr. Mande will not appear in any other New England city during his present American tour. "Grompy" is a cleverly constructed play of love, romance, comedy and melodrama.—Adv.

AN ANTHOLOGY OF COLLEGE VERSE.

III. Pertinent Questions in Verse.

Some students who claim that they love to eat rats,
Have never been known to eat 5.
As for cutting their friends, it’s beyond them, they say.
Pray, why do they pick and choose so?
They tell me that dances at Wellesley are rare,
And yet twice a week have I seen.
Girls going to dance—tango teas, I suppose—At the gym. Oh, what can it mean?
And social events. Has the grave N. A. C.
Given special permission to these?
For at four every day at the Coop, so they say,
Miss Pendleton holds facultees.
If we’re ever sixteen (and most of us are),
And as students have valuable views.
Why can’t we, unhindered, share these with our friends?
And publish our views in the NEWS?

"Beware the Celebcocky, my son!
The jars that bite, the chews that catch
Beware the Tilcomb bird, and shun
The Vogelius 'Lis'Beth Patch!"

He took his Torrence sword in hand;
Long time the Crockett foe he sought—
So rested he by the Taylor tree.
And stood a while in thought.
And, as in Moffit thought he stowed,
The Celebcocky, with eyes of flame,
Came Griffith thro' the Lindsey wood,
And Norton as it came!
One, two! One, two! And thou and thou
The Torrence blade went snicker-snack!
He left it dead, and with its head
He Becky Mederced back.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Unless notified to the contrary, students should take to examinations neither books nor paper of any kind.

Blank books and loose paper are to be used for examinations. These blank books will be furnished by the examiner in the classroom.

Attention is called to the following legislation quoted from the "Official Circular of Information":

"A student who is absent from an examination (or fails to hand in a final paper at the appointed time) must send a letter of explanation to the Dean not later than twenty-four hours after the close of the last examination of the examination period. If the reason assigned is judged adequate by the Academic Council, the student will incur a 'deficiency'; if the reason is judged inadequate, the student will incur a 'default' or 'condition.' If a student fails to make an explanation within the time specified, the case will be treated as if the explanation had been inadequate." (See Part B, HH, 6.)

THE FUND NUMBER OF THE MAGAZINE.

The editors plan to make the March number of the Magazine Supplement a celebration of the Restoration Fund achievement. There was no time to arrange this for the February number, since the full report of the committee could not be made ready so soon. There will be interesting accounts of the fundraising, as it went on among graduates and undergraduates, besides much other material which should make this number appropriate to represent the first anniversary of the fire.

The editors welcome any suggestions or contributions of material toward making the number fully representative. Additional copies of this number, if any, are desired by the Alumnae. These who wish such copies should send early notice to the News, since the supply of copies may not hold out.

'09. On November 24, 1914, a son, David Alexander, to Mrs. A. C. Chase, (Clayton C. Best, 1911).
Fund. Mrs. Robert B. Ludington asked for the support of the club members for the benefit to be given for the Restoration Fund,—the Wellesley-Princeton Glee Club concert at the Waldorf-Astoria the 28th of November. Miss Eleanor Casey brought to the club's attention the recently organized Wellesley Club of Japan. The club voted to send to Mrs. Gertrude Wilcox Wendell, a message of greeting and best wishes for prosperity. Mrs. Schulze then introduced Miss Mary Whiton Calkins, the club's guest for the afternoon, who gave a most entertaining talk on Wellesley affairs. At Miss Calkins' request, the secretary read a letter from President Peterson on the placing and planning of the new buildings.

At the close of the meeting Wellesley songs were sung by members of the Glee Club, and the club, as a whole, resolved itself into a Reception Committee in 1914.

At the second meeting, the 21st of November, Miss Mary Van Kleek, president of the Inter-collegiate Bureau of Occupations, spoke for a few minutes on the work of the bureau, asking for the support of the New York Wellesley Club. The following committee was appointed to raise Wellesley's contribution of $500 for this year: Mrs. Frank F. Brewer, Miss Margaret Byington, Mrs. Dean P. Lockwood, Mrs. George A. Campbell, Mrs. Charles H. Farnsworth, Miss Sophie Chantall Hart. Miss Van Kleek gave a most delightful account of her recent experiences in Russia during the first few days of the war.

The benefit given by the club for the Restoration Fund,—the Wellesley-Princeton Glee Club concert at the Waldorf-Astoria the 28th of November,—was a great success. It was very evident that the members of both the glee clubs were having quite as good a time as the audience. Financially the concert added $1,250 to the Restoration Fund. Much appreciation is due the committee: Misses: Misses Mary Endicott, Miss William Ralston, Miss Gladys Flatman, Mrs. Dean P. Lockwood, Miss Kitty Ryan, Mrs. Elva Somerville and Mrs. T. H. Twitchell.

Dorothea M. M. Johnson, Recording Secretary.

The Portland, Ore., Wellesley Club held its second meeting of the winter on December 12, as a luncheon at the University Club of this city. Plans for the winter's activities were discussed, and reports upon the Restoration Fund were heard. Thirteen members were present.

The officers of the club are:

President: Mrs. Vincent Cook, (Martha Gilman, '83).

Vice-president: Mrs. Lewis McArthur, (Polly Hewett, '11).

Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer: Mrs. Gage Hadley, (Melvina Hadley, '98).

Recording Secretary: Mrs. Walter S. Balson, (Office Chapman, '95).

Since the organization of the club in 1912, the increase in our membership has been due chiefly to the coming West of various Eastern Alumnae, but in the near future we expect to welcome several of our young graduates who are now in college.

Since Fear, 1919.

On the afternoon of Saturday, November 21, the Cleveland Wellesley Club gave an entertainment for the benefit of the Rebuilding Fund. The College Club offered its auditorium and tea-room free of charge for this occasion, thereby relieving the club of a large expense. Every hour from 1 until 6 o'clock, the red of Wellesley views was shown to an appreciative audience. For the benefit of those unfamiliar with Wellesley customs, Mrs. Homer Johnson and Miss Katherine Bingham explained the pictures. In the tea-room, members of the club, clad in gay Colonial costumes, served tea and sold raffles, pies and New England delicacies, all of which had been donated by friends of Wellesley. The proceeds of the occasion amounted to about $50.

At a meeting of the Columbus Wellesley Club, held at the home of Mrs. William C. Deems, December 3, Mrs. Eleanor Hammond Means, 1909, was elected Graduate Councillor for the club. It was reported that something over $600 had been cleared at the Thanksgiving market, bringing the club's gifts, together with its pledges, to about one thousand dollars.

The Utah Wellesley Club is made up of all the Wellesley girls in Utah, eleven in Salt Lake City and four outside. The meetings are held whenever the members have any news to impart or when they specially want to meet one another, that means meetings at least twice a month. There is really any formal business. "What is the constitution among friends?"

Mrs. C. P. Overend, 1906, who represents the Endowment Fund Committee in Utah, has sent over our pledge for $500. This is raised by the profits on the Wellesley Cook Book, a bridge breakfast and the sale of a certain vanilla extract, really obtained from an old drug store. It is so strong and of such exceptional purity that sales are quickly made. There is also considerable profit. If any club desires further information about the sales, we shall be glad to give it.

The Wellesley Club of Southeastern Massachusetts met on January 2, as guests of Mrs. Edward Herbert of Fall River. There were about thirty present from New Bedford, Fall River, Fairhaven and Taunton. Mrs. Percival Morse, of Segregansett, the vice-president, presided.

The Southeastern Club has raised $1,571.96 since last March.

Miss Katherine S. Hall, of Westport Point, read selections from her book, recently published, "The Story of Westport Point," a work which preserves the early history of the town. Her reading was received with enthusiasm. Mrs. Alice C. Wilson, a member of the Wellesley Club's Committee of Graduates, Council, told of the founding of the end of its purpose.

The next meeting will be held on February 6 in St. Thomas Parish House, Taunton. It will be a "Tradition Meeting."
