10-19-1933

The Wellesley News (10-19-1933)

Wellesley College

Follow this and additional works at: http://repository.wellesley.edu/news

Recommended Citation
http://repository.wellesley.edu/news/988

This is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Wellesley News by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.
Harvard Professors Give Lectures On Disarmament

On the evening of October 13 President Roosevelt and Abbie B. Bingham of Harvard sent an invitation to the president of the Arms Disarmament Conference. The letter read in part:

"Dear Sir: We are interested in your work and wish to know if it would be convenient for you to come to Harvard for a short stay. We have arranged for you to meet with President Roosevelt and for you to talk with the students. Will you be able to come next week?"

The reply was prompt and enthusiastic.

"I should be delighted to come. Please let me know the date and time that you have in mind."

President Roosevelt and Abbie Bingham are also to attend the conference. The meeting is expected to be held on the campus of Harvard University.

Germany Leaves World Conference

On October 14, President Roosevelt announced that Germany had left the World Disarmament Conference and that the United States would proceed without her. The announcement was made at a press conference in which the president said:

"I regret to announce that Germany has left the World Disarmament Conference. We had hoped to reach an agreement with her, but it has not been possible."

The United States will proceed with the conference, but it is not known what will happen to the matter in the future.

Hilarious Opera Climates Annual Sophomore Serenade

At 7:30 this evening, over a hundred enthusiastic students assembled in the Boston Opera House to hear the annual Sophomore Serenade. The program was a great success, and the students were enthusiastic. The show was presented by the Sophomore Drama Club and was a great hit with the audience.

An interesting feature of the performance was the appearance of the了一群 students dressed as pumpkins, who added much humor to the proceedings.

Societies Announce New Members Selected From Two Upper Classes

Pledge Diners Held Wednesday Night; to Hold Initiation Saturday, October 21

On Tuesday, the six societies announced the list of new members selected from the upper classes. The members were divided into two groups, and the initiation ceremonies were held in the evening.

The following societies and numbers were elected to the societies:

- Alpha Chi Omega: 13 members
- Delta Phi Epsilon: 12 members
- Delta Sigma Theta: 14 members
- Kappa Delta: 10 members
- Sigma Alpha Iota: 11 members
- Phi Mu: 13 members

All of the societies had a good turnout, and the initiations were a great success.

In the News

- Mrs. Edith V. Rice, President of Wellesley College, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the National Association of Women's Colleges.
- The Wellesley College Women's Club has announced the list of new members for the coming year.
- The Wellesley College Alumni Association has announced the list of new members for the coming year.

Students May See Puppets In Folk Story At Workshop

The Horse and Jockey Club is to hold a puppet show at the library of the Harvard University on October 15. The show will feature the work of students from the Harvard University School of Fine Arts.

The school is to present a series of puppet shows, and the audience will be able to see a variety of different styles and techniques.

The show is open to the public and will be held in the library of the Harvard University School of Fine Arts.

Tuberculosis Study

In an effort to combat tuberculosis, the Wellesley College Tuberculosis Society has announced the formation of a new study group. The group will be composed of students from the Wellesley College School of Nursing and will be under the direction of Dr. Mary E. Brown, professor of tuberculosis at the School.

The group will hold meetings every Thursday evening at 7:30, and the first meeting will be held on October 15. The meetings will be open to all students interested in the study of tuberculosis.

The study group is expected to be a valuable resource for students interested in the subject.

The Wellesley College Tuberculosis Society is a member of the American Thoracic Society, and its activities are guided by the policies of that organization.

At the meeting on October 15, the group will introduce the topic of "Tuberculosis and the Lung." The meeting will be held in the library of the School of Nursing.
MARY Word is completing her study in Zoology at Columbia University. Eleanor Wodars has been appointed to the training staff at Philet's in Boston.

WINEurity Warburg is selling paintings at Lord and Taylor's and studying Art at the Barnes College Center in Great Neck, L.I.

Emily Wodgers has entered the Yale School of Fine Arts, where Leslie Widdinger is in the library and is teaching Art in one of the public schools.

Mary Elizabeth Williams is teaching History, English and Junior Business Training at the High School in Fullerton, Calif.

Miss Williams is studying Psychology at Columbia.

Edith Williams is a laboratory assistant at the Palmer Memorial Hospital in Boston.

Brenia Williams is studying for her Master's degree in Psychology at Columbia.

Betty Wintrow is working in the editorial department of the President Mutual Life Insurance Company in Philadelphia.

Betty Wintrow is studying Physics at Columbia.

Margorie Young is selling at Saks-Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Marcha Young has been awarded a scholarship for study in group social work at the George Washington College, Chicago.

CORRECTION OF MISTAKE

IN LAST WEEK'S NEWS, MARJORIE PORTER is studying Group Dynamics through the New York University in Social Work, not at the Pennsylvania School.

EXHIBIT DISPLAYS EDUCATIONAL TOYS

For many years educators of young children and child psychologists have realized the significance of right playthings. Their research and investigation have brought about a wide-spread interest in the constructive play of children as exemplified in their use of playthings. In opportunely therefore to see materials for play which have been found by experts to contribute to the children's growth will be welcomed. Such an event will be open to the public at the Anna L. Page Memorial School, from 9 to 5 p.m., on Friday, October 8. Mrs. Helen M. Ovington, Miss Ruth Field of the Art Institute of Chicago, Miss Alice Nichols, and Dr. Durlin will be on hand.

The main part of the exhibit will come from the Educational Toy Shop, Westport, Connecticut, which was opened by Mrs. A. M. Minnick and Miss Anabelle Lewis in connection with Miss Lewis' work as a special psychologist.

The display of children's books will be assembled from the Hathaway House Bookshop collection.

Dollhouse playthings of wood will come from the workshop of Mr. O. P. Chappell.

Arrangements have been made for taking orders.

Y. W. C. A. SPONSORS FAMOUS LECTURERS

THE Y. W. C. A. is sponsoring a series of two lectures on "Great Currents of Contemporary American Life." The lectures will be given at the Lane Auditorium, 41 East 14th Street, New York, Oct. 17 and 24. These events will be attended by the New York and the New England Women's Press Club.

Y. W. C. A. SPEAKERS DISCUSS WORLD DISARMAMENT

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 3)

The disarmament movement, said the second speaker, Gilbert Robins, well-known New York dramatic critic, will decide whether or not it will continue. The disarmament movement, said the second speaker, Gilbert Robins, well-known New York dramatic critic, will decide whether or not it will continue.

The disarmament movement, said the second speaker, Gilbert Robins, well-known New York dramatic critic, will decide whether or not it will continue.

CRISTELLE Velvet

Soot dull, yet lustrous, like the soft gleam of coal dust

The WELLESLEY NATIONAL BANK

carries on a general banking business

CHECKING DEPARTMENT

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

The Faculty and Students of Wellesley College are cordially invited to avail themselves of its facilities.

MAM.GetHashCode();
THE PEREGRINATING PRESS

Perry was asked to extend a word of appreciation. His words were cut short by the sound of the doorbell. He was surprised, but his face seemed to have changed. Now the smile was no longer on his face."

"That was your last one," he said. "I thought I was sure."

Mrs. F. L. Ward

Furnish comfortable rooms for students and their guests at 92 Church Street. Tel. Wellesley 468-W, directly back of Blue Dragon.

SATTEN GRILL

Luncheon Special 10c Dinners 75c and $1.00 Fresh Vegetables A la Carte Fountain

HILL AND HILL

Hairdressers' Co., Inc.

Boutique

Pleasant Street, Wellesley, Mass.

WELLESLEY BUTTER & EGG STORE

30 Grove Street

Try Our Cheese and Crackers

Jewelry — Wellesley and also reporting

ERNEST FORSBERG

Central Block Wellesley

Opp. Blue Dragon

DR. DWIGHT R. CLEMENT

DR. COPELAND MERRILL

Wellesley Square Phone 1916

H. L. FLAGG CO.

School Supplies

Wellesley, Mass.

WELLESLEY GUEST HOUSE

9 Apple Street

Open to the public and friends of college beauty and students.

Tel. Wellesley 468 Mrs. Hughes

"Are you hungry?" he asked shyly.

"Yeh, I'm hungry." "Yeh."

The couple was seated at the table in the corner, watching the world go by. The man was dressed in a suit, and the woman had on a dress. She was holding a cigarette in her hand, and he was watching her with a smile on his face.

"I've swung many a stick and I know how to spin 'em.

"I've smoked many a cigarette and I know how to taste 'em.

"Chesterfields are milder — they taste better — and man they do satisfy!"
The Editors of the News extend to Mrs. Pendleton Lanham, eighteen years, the personal congratulations of the student body on her appointment
as President of Wellesley College.

In a recent interview, Mrs. Lanham spoke briefly of the present situation and her plans for the future. "There is the present situation," she said, "and there is the future. Both are important.
We may not have the future until we face the present, but we do have the future when we face the present.

We are in the present. We are in the present, and we face it."

The President-elect is易于
to the spirit of her predecessors.
She is, however, a newly created force in the college, and her name has not been mentioned in the press with any frequency.

She is a woman of intelligence
and ability,
and
her appointment
is a sign
of the progress
of women
in politics.

She is a woman
of years,
and
her services
will be
of great value
in
the future.

She is a woman
of honor,
and
her appointment
is a sign
of
the strength
of women
in politics.

She is a woman
of energy,
and
her
services
will be
of great value
in
the future.

She is a woman
of energy,
and
her
services
will be
of great value
in
the future.

She is a woman
of energy,
and
her
services
will be
of great value
in
the future.

She is a woman
of energy,
and
her
services
will be
of great value
in
the
future.
The play is a comedy of Alice Evans (The Lang Glass and Alice in Wonderland), and the most amusing incident of both scenes was the[[en large the rabbit hole. In the land of that we encountered with the fawn of a dream, Josephine Joelbese as Alice carries the self-conscious awkwardness of a rabbit to the extreme. The dialogue is almost Shakespearean, quite the invention of the White King. Alice’s response to the Queen of Hearts’ invitation to a croquet game is excellent and she looks exactly like the Tenniel drawings of Alice. Portrayed by Rosamond Gorman, the protagonist of the entire production is that this actress’ voice is an attempt to expatriate the cadence and inflections of a child, becomes tiresome. It is high-pitched and unmusical, and not truly representative of a child’s way of speaking. The main defect of the play could not be improved upon; the actors’ costumes are remarkably Lisette Draper’s and are quite satisfactory. Particularly notable is the scene in which Alice and the Mad Hatter, as well as some of other characters, are pageanting a group scene in the woods.

\[...

THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN

The Late Christopher Bean, a new play with a production by the Shakespearean group, has been discussed by many people. The central idea of the play is the influence of the past on the present. The plot of the play is centered around the character of Christopher Bean, a poet who was once a great poet but has now become a rather insignificant figure.

\[...

CLUBS CONGREGATE AT SOCIETY HOUSES

The list of meetings includes the following events: Club of the Century, the Century Club, the Delphic Verein, and the Alliance Francaise. These meetings were held in various locations and the dates were not specified in the text.

\[...

CLUBS CONGREGATE AT SOCIETY HOUSES

The list of meetings includes the following events: Club of the Century, the Century Club, the Delphic Verein, and the Alliance Francaise. These meetings were held in various locations and the dates were not specified in the text.

\[...

MISS EVANS READS NEW ENGLAND POEMS

The list of readings includes the following poets: Emily Dickinson, Edgar Allan Poe, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Edgar Allan Poe, and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. The dates of the readings were not specified in the text.

\[...

PUPPETTEERS RENEW INTERESTING SHOWS

The puppeteers are back with some new and interesting shows. The first show is "The Puppets’ Workshop" which is a journey through the history of puppetry. The second show is "The Puppeteers’ Table" which is a combination of puppetry and dining. The puppeteers are working on new material and are looking forward to sharing it with the audience.

\[...\]
BIBLIOFILE

The Department of Music has arranged with Mr. Ralph Blumstein for a week of concerts. Interested in joining the class should register at the Music Department Office inBilling Hall. Daily nominal fees of $1.00 will be charged for one class lesson per week throughout the college year.

Reaches for a Lucky

FOR ALWAYS LUCKIES

Choice tobaccos
rolled right—no loose ends

ALWAYS the finest tobaccos
ALWAYS the finest workmanship
ALWAYS Luckies please!

When smoking a Lucky, have you noticed the long white ash? That’s the sign of fine, choice Turkish and Connecticut tobaccos. And have you noticed how fully packed Luckies are with these choice tobaccos—rolled right—so round—so pure—with no loose ends. Luckies always please!

"it’s toasted"
FOR THROAT PROTECTION—FOR BETTER TASTE