WELLESLEY COLLEGE
CALENDAR

1906-1907
CORRESPONDENCE

All inquiries regarding admission (including admission to graduate courses) should be addressed to Miss Ellen F. Pendleton, Dean of the College.

Applications for general information should be addressed to Miss Mary Caswell. As Secretary of the Teachers' Registry, Miss Caswell is also prepared to furnish full and confidential information in regard to the qualifications, character, and experience of teachers educated at Wellesley. Former students of the College who wish situations as teachers have the aid of the Teachers' Registry.

Applications for pecuniary assistance (see p. 148) should be made by letter addressed to the Secretary of the Students' Aid Society, Wellesley, Mass.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE
Wellesley, Massachusetts

FOUNDATION AND PURPOSE

Wellesley College was established for the purpose of furnishing to young women who desire to obtain a liberal education such advantages and facilities as are enjoyed in institutions of the highest grade. The first building of the College, erected and equipped under the supervision and through the personal means of the founder, was opened to students in 1875, with the announced purpose "of giving to young women opportunities for education equivalent to those usually provided in colleges for young men." Throughout his work the founder aimed to put into visible form his ideal of the higher education for women, "the supreme development and unfolding of every power and faculty."

By the charter, granted by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, "the corporation of Wellesley College is authorized to grant such honorary testimonials, and confer such honors, degrees, and diplomas, as are granted or conferred by any University, College, or Seminary of learning in this Commonwealth; and the diplomas so granted shall entitle the possessors to the immunities and privileges allowed, by usage or statute, to the possessors of like diplomas from any University, College, or Seminary of learning in this Commonwealth."

In accordance with the spirit of the founder, the College is undenominational, but distinctively Christian in its influence, discipline, and instruction.

The members of the College meet daily for morning prayers in the beautiful chapel presented in 1899 by Miss Elizabeth G.
Houghton and Mr. Clement S. Houghton, as a memorial to their father. Services on Sunday are conducted in this chapel by preachers of different denominations. At all these services and at vespers on Sunday, the singing is led by a trained choir of students under the direction of the professor of music.

The Wellesley College Christian Association, organized to promote religious life, to arouse an intelligent interest in social reforms, and to foster interest in home and foreign missions, meets weekly for prayer and religious instruction in the chapel given by the founder of the College.

The department of Biblical History affords the systematic study of the Bible required of all students.
ADMISSION

ADMISSION TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS

Students are admitted either by examination (see pages 25 to 27) or by certificate (see pages 27 to 29).

Every candidate for a degree must offer for admission to the freshman class the following subjects: English, History, Algebra, Plane Geometry, Latin, and in addition the maximum requirement in a second language (which may be either Greek, or French, or German), together with the minimum requirement in a third language, or in Chemistry or in Physics. For full details regarding requirements in these subjects see pages 29 to 40.

The subjects prescribed for admission are divided into three groups, A, B, C, as follows:

Group A. History, Plane Geometry, Cæsar, Cicero, Vergil and Prosody, Greek Grammar, Anabasis, Iliad, German maximum requirement (except prose composition and the use of the spoken language), French maximum requirement (except prose composition and the use of the spoken language).

Group B. Chemistry and Physics.

Group C. English (Composition and Literature), Algebra, Latin Prose Composition, Greek Prose Composition, French (prose composition and the use of the spoken language of the maximum requirement), German (prose composition and the use of the spoken language of the maximum requirement), Greek, French, and German minimum requirements.

Final examinations in subjects of Group A may be taken at any time during the college preparatory course. Final examinations in subjects of Group B must be taken not earlier than fifteen months before entrance in September. Final examinations in subjects of Group C must be taken not earlier than during the school year immediately preceding admission to college.

The above applies to final examinations held by principals of schools, preliminary to granting certificates, as well as to the admission examinations.

Candidates will not be admitted if conditioned in two, or if heavily conditioned in one, of the following subjects: Latin, Greek, French, German, Mathematics, Chemistry, Physics.

A candidate for admission must be at least sixteen years of age, and must present satisfactory evidence of good moral character and good health. A blank form for the certificate of health will be sent to all registered applicants for admission.

The student who has met all entrance requirements is qualified for immediate matriculation for the Baccalaurate degree in Arts.

All communications concerning admission should be addressed to the Dean of Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.
ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION
JUNE EXAMINATIONS

Candidates who propose to enter by examination must take all examinations in June, except such as, by permission, may be postponed until September.

The entrance examinations conducted at Wellesley College in June are the examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board, of which Wellesley College is a member. These examinations will be held June 17–22, 1907.

In order to meet the requirements for admission to Wellesley College, candidates must pass examinations in the following subjects, as defined in the Documents issued by this Board:—

English: a, b.
History*: a, or c, or d.
Mathematics: a (i, ii), c.
Latin: a, l, b, c, m, and dq.

Maximum Second Language:
Greek: a, f, b, g, and ch;
or French: a, b;
or
German: a, b.

Minimum Third Language or Science:
French: a;
or German: a;
or Chemistry;
or Physics.

All applications for examination, and all other inquiries, must be addressed to the College Entrance Examination

*Attention is called to the fact that the Board holds no separate examinations in Greek and Roman History. Applicants proposing to offer either Greek or Roman History alone should apply to the College for permission to postpone this examination until September.
Board, Post Office Sub-Station 84, New York, N. Y., and must be made upon a blank form to be obtained from the Secretary of the Board upon application.

A list of places at which the examinations are to be held in June, 1907, will be published about March 1st. In order that they may receive proper consideration, requests that the examinations be held at particular points should be transmitted to the Secretary of the Board not later than February 1st.

The applications of candidates for admission to examination at points in the United States east of the Mississippi River (also at Minneapolis, St. Louis, and other points on the Mississippi River) must be received by the Secretary on or before Monday, June 3, 1907; applications for admission to examination elsewhere in the United States or in Canada must be received on or before Monday, May 27, 1907; and applications for examination at points outside the United States and Canada must be received on or before Monday, May 13, 1907.

Applications received later than the dates named will be accepted when it is possible to arrange for the examination of the candidates concerned, but only upon payment of five dollars in addition to the usual examination fee. Candidates filing belated applications do so at their own risk.

The examination fee is five dollars for all candidates examined at points in the United States and Canada, and fifteen dollars for all candidates examined at points outside of the United States and Canada.

SEPTEMBER EXAMINATIONS

Admission examinations are offered by the College in September as heretofore. In general these examinations are open to those candidates only who propose to enter the current September.

ADMISSION BY CERTIFICATE

Any school whose equipment and curriculum enable it to prepare students for the freshman class, upon complying with the regulations stated below, may receive the right to give a certificate of scholarship which shall exempt the candidate from college examinations for admission in the subjects satisfactorily covered by the certificate.

RIGHT OF CERTIFICATION

1. If a school has not the right of certification and the principal wishes to obtain this privilege, he should apply to the Dean of the College between October first and March first of any year. In response to this application a blank form will be sent, which the principal is requested to fill out and return, sending with it a catalogue or circular of the school. Specimen laboratory notebooks must be submitted before science courses will be approved.

During the interval between March first and October first applications for the right of certification will not be considered by the Board of Examiners.
2. In case the credentials of the school are approved by the Board of Examiners, the right of certification is given for three years. At the expiration of this time the renewal of the right will depend upon the number of students sent during the three years either to Wellesley College or to some other college of equal rank, and upon the character of the preparation of these students as shown by their college record. The right of certification may be withdrawn at any time from any school which fails to give complete and satisfactory preparation.

Wellesley College is a member of the New England College Entrance Certificate Board, and in accordance with the By-Laws and Rules of that Board all certificate privileges previously granted by the College expired by limitation January 1, 1904.

Any school in New England desiring a renewal of these certificate privileges must in accordance with the By-Laws and Rules of the Board apply to the Secretary, Prof. Nathaniel F. Davis, 159 Brown Street, Providence, R. I., before April first of the year in which it is proposed to make use of the privilege.

Schools outside of New England desiring a renewal of these certificate privileges must apply to the Dean of the College as heretofore. Such application must be made before March first of any year in order to secure the admission of candidates in the following September.

CERTIFICATE OF SCHOLARSHIP

1. After a school has received the right of certification, the principal must present, upon a blank form furnished by the College, a certificate of scholarship for each candidate.

2. All certificates and laboratory notebooks must be forwarded in time to be received at the College by July first. On or before August first each candidate will be informed of the decision with regard to her certificate. Certificates received after July first may be refused, and in any case the decision will be necessarily delayed to the great disadvantage of the candidate.

3. All certificates must show distinctly that the candidate has met in detail the requirements as published in the current Calendar. Whenever any variation has been allowed, the work done must be specifically stated and offered as an equivalent, to be accepted or refused. Attention is called to the division of the admission subjects into Groups A, B, C, stated on pages 23 and 24, and to the fact that final examinations in the subjects of Groups B and C must be taken within a specified time of admission.

4. All certificates must be signed by the principal of the school, and countersigned by the assistants who have instructed the candidate.

5. Partial certificates from two accredited schools will not be accepted for the admission of a candidate, unless permission has been obtained from the Board of Examiners.

6. All work completed after July 1st must be tested by examination at the College in September. Certificates for such work will not be accepted.

7. The candidate who has received the certificate of a principal will not be exempt from the examinations for admission in any particular subject, unless her certificate shows that she has satisfactorily accomplished the full amount of work required in that subject. Any student whose certificate is found on July first to be seriously deficient, may be refused the privilege of taking examination the following September.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

1. ENGLISH

Composition.—The subjects for the examination in Composition will be taken from the English Literature required for the year. The form of the examination will usually be the writing of a paragraph or two on each of several topics, to be chosen by the candidate from a number set before her in the examination paper in English Literature. The treatment of these topics is designed to test the candidate's power of clear and accurate expression, and will call for only a general knowledge of the substance of the books.
To meet the requirement in Composition:

1. There should be practice in writing equivalent to fortnightly themes the first two years, and weekly themes the last two years of the preparatory course. The subjects for themes should not be drawn chiefly from books. The student should be led, especially for short themes, to choose her own subjects, based on daily experience and observation. She must be able to spell, capitalize and punctuate correctly. She will be expected to have a practical knowledge of the essentials of English grammar, including ordinary grammatical terminology, inflection, syntax, the use of phrases and clauses.

2. There should be systematic study of Rhetoric made subser- vient to the work in Composition. Particular attention should be given to the structure of the sentence, paragraph and whole composition; to unity, emphasis, and coherence; to good use in words; and to the analysis and topical outlining of essays. The following books are recommended:

Scott and Denney's Composition-Rhetoric; A. S. Hill's Foundations of Rhetoric, and as companion book, Huber Gray Buhler's Practical Exercises in English; Herrick and Damon's Composition and Rhetoric; Newcomer's Rhetoric; Carpenter's Exercises in Rhetoric and Composition (High School Course); Webster's Literature and Composition.

Literature.—The Wellesley requirement is that adopted by the Commission of New England Colleges.

A. Reading and Practice.

Certain books are set for reading. The candidate is required to present evidence of a general knowledge of the subject matter, and to answer simple questions on the lives of the authors.

The books set for this part of the examination are:

In 1907 and 1908: Shakespeare's Macbeth and The Merchant of Venice; the Sir Roger de Coverley Papers; Irving's Life of Goldsmith; Coleridge's The Ancient Mariner; Scott's Ivanhoe and The Lady of the Lake; Tennyson's Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, and The Passing of Arthur; Lowell's The Vision of Sir Launfal; George Eliot's Silas Marner.
In 1909, 1910, and 1911:

Group I (two to be selected). Shakespeare's As You Like It; Henry V; Julius Caesar; The Merchant of Venice; Twelfth Night.

Group II (one to be selected). Bacon's Essays; Bunyan's The Pilgrim's Progress, Part I.; the Sir Roger de Coverley Papers in the Spectator; Franklin's Autobiography.

Group III (one to be selected). Chaucer's Prologue; Spenser's Faerie Queene (selections); Pope's The Rape of the Locke; Goldsmith's The Deserted Village; Palgrave's Golden Treasury (first series), Books II. and III., with especial attention to Dryden, Collins, Gray, Cowper, and Burns.

Group IV (two to be selected). Goldsmith's The Vicar of Wakefield; Scott's Ivanhoe; Scott's Quentin Durward; Hawthorne's The House of the Seven Gables; Thackeray's Henry Esmond; Mrs. Gaskell's Cranford; Dickens' A Tale of Two Cities; George Eliot's Silas Marner; Blackmore's Lorna Doone.

Group V (two to be selected). Irving's Sketch Book; Lamb's Essays of Elia; De Quincey's Joan of Arc and The English Mail Coach; Carlyle's Heroes and Hero Worship; Emerson's Essays (selected); Ruskin's Sesame and Lilies.

Group VI (two to be selected). Coleridge's The Ancient Mariner; Scott's The Lady of the Lake; Byron's Mazeppa and The Prisoner of Chillon; Palgrave's Golden Treasury (first series), Book IV., with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats and Shelley; Macauley's Lays of Ancient Rome; Poe's Poems; Lowell's The Vision of Sir Launfal; Arnold's Sohrab and Rustum; Longfellow's The Courtship of Miles Standish; Tennyson's Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, and The Passing of Arthur; Browning's Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Evelyn Hope, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, The Boy and the Angel, One Word More, Herve Reil, Pheidippides.

B. Study and Practice.

This part of the examination presupposes the thorough study of each of the works named below. The examination will be upon subject matter, form, and structure.

The books set for this part of the examination are:

In 1907 and 1908: Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar; Milton's L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus, and Lycidas; Burke's Speech on Conciliation with America; Macaulay's Essay on Addison and Life of Johnson.

In 1909, 1910, and 1911: Shakespeare's Macbeth; Milton's Lycidas, Comus, L'Allegro, and Il Penseroso; Burke's Speech on Conciliation with America, or Washington's Farewell Address and Webster's First Bunker Hill Oration; Macaulay's Life of Johnson, or Carlyle's Essay on Burns.

Note.—In the Wellesley examination it is taken for granted that candidates will have learned by heart illustrative passages from all poems read. Books set in the requirements of previous years are satisfactory substitutes.

2. HISTORY

A full year course with at least three recitations per week in one of the following subjects:

1) The History of Greece to the death of Alexander, with due reference to Greek life, literature, and art.
(2) The History of Rome, the Republic and Empire, to the accession of Commodus.

(3) English History, with due regard to social and political development.

(4) American History, with the elements of Civil Government.

(5) Or as an alternative to any one of the courses described above, one course in both Greek and Roman History may be offered, provided the time given to this course is not less than one hundred and fifty recitations.

In the subject chosen, the student should acquire accurate knowledge of the history as presented in a standard text-book of not less than 300 pages, and should read such fuller authorities as may be available, in amount not less than 500 pages. Some practice in drawing maps to illustrate territorial changes, in making digests of lectures and reading, and in preparing verbal or written reports on subjects assigned for individual investigation is essential to successful work.

Students presenting themselves for examination are expected to bring notebooks, maps, and essays, that may serve as supplementary evidence of the character of their preparation.

3. MATHEMATICS

Algebra.—Factors, Common Divisors and Multiples, Ratio and Proportion, Theory of Exponents including Imaginaries, Radicals and Equations involving Radicals, Inequalities, Quadratic Equations (including the theory), Binomial Theorem, Arithmetic and Geometric Progressions.

Plane Geometry.—As found in Chauvenet, or its equivalent.

Deficiency in preparation usually results from one or more of the following causes: the use of text-books which are too elementary, insufficient time spent in preparation, neglect of exercises in original demonstration in Geometry, and of reviews in both Algebra and Geometry. One and one-third years, with daily recitations, is the shortest time in which satisfactory preparation can be made in Algebra, and one year with daily recitations is the minimum in Geometry. It is strongly urged that there be constant exercise in original demonstration in Geometry, with frequent written examinations in both Algebra and Geometry, the problems proposed being drawn from other sources than the text-books.

4. LATIN

Grammar, including Prosody.
Prose Composition.

The study of this subject should be continued through the course, and should include: (1) A systematic study of the main principles of Latin syntax. (In order to secure the thorough drill required, a standard text-book which gives such systematic study should be completed.) (2.) The writing of at least forty connected passages based upon the Latin of Cæsar and Cicero.

Cæsar, Gallic War, four books.
Cicero, seven orations, or six if the Manilian Law be one.
Vergil, Æneid, six books.

Candidates must be prepared to translate at sight Latin of average difficulty, and to write in Latin connected passages based upon Cæsar and Cicero.
Equivalents are accepted, but verse is not accepted in place of prose, nor anything instead of the required translation of English into Latin.

The teachers of Latin in the preparatory schools are urged to insist upon the use of good English in translation.

The study of Greek is strongly recommended to candidates who plan to elect courses in Latin in college.

Ability to read at sight easy French or German prose is of great advantage to all classical students.

5. GREEK

Maximum Requirement

Grammar. The etymology must be thoroughly mastered.
Prose Composition. At least forty written exercises based upon the Greek of Xenophon, including connected passages and accompanied by a systematic study of the main principles of syntax.

Xenophon, Anabasis, three books.

Homer, Iliad, three books; with scansion.

Candidates must be prepared to translate at sight both Attic and Homeric Greek of average difficulty, and to write in Greek a connected passage based upon Xenophon.

Particular attention should be given to the correct writing of Greek with the accents, to exercises both oral and written, and to the use of the blackboard for constant practice upon forms and constructions.

The preparation for the maximum requirement must cover a period of three years, with four or five recitations per week. If the preparation is made in less time, an examination in Prose Composition may be required.

The teachers of Greek in the preparatory schools are urged to insist upon the use of good English in translation.

Ability to read at sight easy French or German prose is of great advantage to all classical students.

Minimum Requirement

This work requires at least one year, with five recitations per week. This preparation admits the student to course 14 in College, and these two courses complete the preparation for course 1 (see page 85).

6. FRENCH

Minimum Requirement

The preparation for this requirement should comprise:

1. Careful drill in pronunciation.

2. The rudiments of grammar, including the inflection of the regular and the more common irregular verbs, of nouns, adjectives, participles, and pronouns; the simpler uses of the conditional and subjunctive, the elementary rules in syntax, and their application in the construction of sentences.

(3) Abundant easy exercises, designed not only to fix in the memory the forms and principles of grammar, but also to cultivate readiness in the reduction of natural forms of expression.

(4) Writing French from dictation.

(5) The reading of 300 duodecimo pages of graduated texts from at least three different authors, with constant practice in translating into French easy variations upon the texts read, and in reproducing from memory sentences previously read.

(6) Frequent abstracts, sometimes oral and sometimes written, of portions of the text already read.

(7) Training from the outset to understand French, both when spoken and read aloud, and to answer ordinary questions in that language.

If the time given to the preparation is less than one year with five recitations a week, an examination will be required.

Maximum Requirement

To meet the maximum requirement in French, the candidate must present the whole minimum requirement as given above and, in addition, the following:

(1) A thorough, practical knowledge of grammar.

(2) Ability to translate connected paragraphs, based on standard authors, into simple idiomatic French.

(3) Ability to read any ordinary French whatsoever.

(4) Ability to understand a lecture given in French, and to answer questions in the same language.

(5) The reading of a thousand duodecimo pages (that is, seven hundred pages in addition to the amount prescribed for the minimum requirement) from at least four authors, as indicated below.
These results may be obtained by an exhaustive study of any good grammar; by translation from English into French; by paraphrasing texts read, or, by direct composition in French, together with critical reading of texts. It is particularly urged that these texts be chosen from nineteenth century writers of prose, verse, and drama, and if possible from more than four authors.

In order to secure the desired results, the main emphasis should be laid on the correct use of the spoken language in the class room, on the correct reading of French (apart from translation) and on prose composition, including the writing of short themes in French.

The preparation for the maximum requirement must cover a period of three years, with four or five recitations a week. If the preparation is made in less time, an examination will be required.

The texts suggested for reading are:

7. GERMAN

Minimum Requirement

The preparation for this requirement should comprise:

1. A distinct German pronunciation which should be acquired at the outset by a drill in phonetics.
(2) Drill upon the rudiments of grammar; that is, upon the inflection of the articles, of such nouns as belong to the language of everyday life, adjectives, pronouns, weak verbs, and the more usual strong verbs; also upon the use of the more common prepositions, of the modal auxiliary, and of the elementary rules of syntax and word order. This drill upon the rudiments of grammar should be directed to the ends of enabling the pupil (1) to use his knowledge with facility in the formation of sentences, and (2) to state his knowledge correctly in the technical language of grammar.

(3) Abundant easy exercises designed not only to fix in mind the forms and principles of grammar, but also to cultivate readiness in the oral and written reproduction of natural forms of expression. These exercises should include practice in the translation into German of easy variations upon the matter read.

(4) Mastery of a vocabulary sufficient to understand and answer in German, simple questions upon the texts read.

(5) The reading of about 200 pages of graduated texts.

(6) Ability to read and write German script. This is not an absolute requirement, but students are strongly advised to become familiar with the German script at the outset.

If the time given to the preparation is less than one year, with five recitations per week, an examination will be required.

Maximum Requirement

To meet the maximum requirement in German the candidate must present the whole minimum requirement as given above, and in addition the following:—

(1) An accurate knowledge of more advanced grammar, i.e., of the less usual strong verbs, the principal uses of prepositions and conjunctions, the elements of word formation, the essentials of German syntax, the uses of modal auxiliaries, of the subjunctive and infinitive moods.
(2) Ability to speak correctly and idiomatically in German upon simple topics, and to understand the German spoken in the classroom.

(3) Proficiency in paraphrasing, in freie Reproduktion, in writing of themes based on the works read.

(4) Ability to translate offhand simple texts, especially from English into German.

(5) The reading of at least seven hundred pages of classical and contemporaneous authors (that is, five hundred in addition to the amount for the minimum requirement).

(6) Knowledge of a number of choice lyric poems to be selected from the Volkslieder and from Goethe's lyrics especially.

The desired results are not obtained if the main emphasis in the work is laid on translation from German into English instead of emphasizing the use of the spoken language in the classroom, prose composition, and freie Reproduktion.

The preparation for the maximum requirement must cover a period of three years, with four or five recitations per week. If the preparation is made in less time an examination will be required.

8. CHEMISTRY

The requirement is met by the course outlined in the Report of the College Entrance Examination Board, Document No. 25 or 30.

The preparation in Chemistry should cover at least one year, five recitations per week. The student should perform experiments in the laboratory to illustrate the properties of the most important elements, both metallic and non-metallic, and their compounds, and it is strongly recommended that a few of these experiments should be of a quantitative nature.

In addition to an examination or certificate of examination, the student will be required to present notebooks of laboratory work. These notebooks must bear the indorsement of the teacher, certifying that the notes are a true record of the student's work, and must be presented with the certificate on or before July 1st, or at the time of the examination. In case the notebook is lacking or inadequate, a laboratory test will be given.

9. PHYSICS

The requirement is met by the course outlined in the Report of the College Entrance Examination Board, Document No. 25 or 30. Preparation in Physics should cover at least one year, with five recitations per week. In addition to an examination, or a certificate of examination, the student will be required to present notebooks of laboratory work. These notebooks must be indexed and bear the indorsement of the teacher, certifying that the notes are a true record of the student's work, and they must be presented with the certificate on or before July 1st, or at the time of the examination.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Candidates for advanced standing must fulfill the requirements for admission to the freshman class, and must also be prepared to be examined in the required studies previously pursued by the class which they wish to join, and in a sufficient number of electives to give full standing with that class.

Such candidates, if they come from other colleges, may present certificates of college work, but should clearly understand that these do not necessarily exempt them from examinations.

Each candidate should apply for a statement of the credentials which she will need to present.

Candidates for advanced standing whose applications are filed before April 1st of the year in which they propose to enter, and whose credentials admit them to junior or higher rank, will take precedence of candidates for the freshman class in the assignment of rooms.

All correspondence should be addressed to the Dean of the College.
ADMISSION OF STUDENTS NOT CANDIDATES FOR A DEGREE

Opportunities for special study are offered to students who are not candidates for a degree, but are qualified to undertake college work.

Applicants who give satisfactory evidence of ability to pursue advanced courses of study may be admitted at the discretion of the Board of Examiners, provided that they satisfy the requirements of the departments which they propose to enter. It will be noted that opportunities of prosecuting work along special lines are thus open to persons of experience and success in teaching who possess the requisite qualifications for admission to college classes.

Applicants of less maturity and acquirement are not ordinarily admitted, but if such desire admission they must expect to meet, by examination or by certificate from an accredited school, the requirements prescribed for admission to the freshman class, or a full equivalent for them, and to satisfy such additional requirements as are prescribed by the departments which they propose to enter.

All courses, graduate as well as undergraduate, are open to special students, subject to the conditions stated by the various departments; but every such student is expected to choose a primary subject to which she should devote the greater part of her time. A student who creditably completes a prescribed group of courses will be granted a certificate.

As the capacity of dormitories is not sufficient for candidates for degrees, special students cannot be lodged in the college buildings. Comfortable homes may be found in the village at about the same expense as in college dormitories.

Application for admission as a special student, with all required certificates, should be sent to the College before the first of July. All correspondence should be addressed to the Dean of the College.
COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

The following Courses of Instruction are offered by the several departments. The College reserves the right to withdraw the offer of any course not chosen by at least six students.

ART

Professor: Alice Van Vechten Brown.

*† 1. History of Architecture. From the earliest times to the year 1000 A.D.

Open to seniors without prerequisite, and to other students who have completed either course 12 or 13. Three hours a week for a year.

The aim of this course is to give a general view of the development of styles and a thorough understanding of their essential elements, both constructive and decorative, during the period studied.

First semester, ancient and classic styles. Second semester, early Christian, Byzantine, and Mohammedan styles, with a summary of Romanesque and Gothic.

* 2. Outline History of Greek Sculpture.

Open to seniors without prerequisite, and to other students who have completed either course 12 or 13. Three hours a week for a year.

Text-book: Handbook of Greek Sculpture, by Ernest A. Gardner. In this course the great periods will be the main subject of study; and more stress will be laid on the spirit of Greek Art than upon archaeological details.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
† Courses 1 and 9, and 3 and 10, are alternate courses; they will not both be given in the same year.
‖ Absent on leave.
3. History of Italian Painting through the Fifteenth Century.

Open to seniors without prerequisite, and to other students who have completed either course 12 or 13. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Abbot.

Subject: A study of the Early Christian and Mediæval period as an introduction; Naturalistic Movement from Giotto through Filippino Lippi, Botticelli, and others; Early Masters of the Venetian School, the Bellini and others; a brief introduction to the Great Masters of the High Renaissance.

The course for the year 1906–1907 will lay special emphasis on the qualities of composition and the analysis of individual paintings for the development of artistic appreciation.

Syllabus: Outline of Italian Painting through the Fifteenth Century, by William Rankin.

Open to graduates and seniors who have completed Art 2 or its equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

In this course one limited period of Greek sculpture will be carefully studied.

All must read in preparation Handbook of Greek Sculpture, by Ernest A. Gardner.

Open to graduates and seniors who have completed Art 3 or 10, and to others by permission of the instructor. Three hours a week for a year.

The aim of this course is to study a given epoch in detail, and to train students for independent work. In preparation for this course an acquaintance with the outline of the history of Italian painting is required.

* Not offered in 1906–1907.

*Open to seniors without prerequisite, and to other students who have completed either course 12 or 13. Three hours a week for a year. Miss Newkirk.

The aim of this course is to give a general view of the development of styles and a thorough understanding of their essential elements, both constructive and decorative, during the period studied.

First semester: Introduction to the subject and history of Architecture during the Romanesque and Gothic periods from 1000 A. D. to the Renaissance. Second semester: Architecture from the beginning of the Renaissance to the present time.

*Open to seniors without prerequisite, and to other students who have completed either course 12 or 13. Three hours a week for a year.

In this course critical study will be given to the position and quality of the artists, as well as to the characteristics and relations of the different schools. Critical and artistic study of photographs is required, and an understanding of the methods used by Crowe and Cavalcaselle, Berenson, Morelli, and other critics.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
§ 12. Elementary Course.

Open to freshmen only. Four hours a week for a year

No prerequisites.

Miss Abbot.

Designed for freshmen who enter college with the intention of specializing in Art. This course is a combination of history and practice, and will include an introductory study of the History of Architecture, Sculpture, and Painting, illustrated by sketching from photographs, and by practical studio work in drawing, composition, and modeling in clay. It will be conducted by the scientific method of laboratory observation and practice. No other work may be substituted for the laboratory practice.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for a year. No prerequisites.

Miss Moore.

This course furnishes an outline of the general development of styles in Architecture, Sculpture, and Painting. Its method of constant laboratory work leads directly into the methods of the more advanced courses in the department. This course is complete in itself, but it may be taken in preparation for other courses. This course is not open to students who have taken or are taking any other history course in the Art Department.

Text-book: Reinach's Story of Art Throughout the Ages.

5. Studio Practice.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. No prerequisites. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Moore.

Drawing and sketching.

Open by permission of the instructor to students who are taking or have completed Art 5. One hour a week for a year.

Fall Term, Miss Newkirk.
Winter and Spring Terms, Mr. Woodbury.

Drawing. Color work by permission.

15. Studio Practice.

Open by permission of the instructor to students who are taking or have completed Art 14. One hour a week for a year.

Fall Term, Miss Newkirk.
Winter and Spring Terms, Mr. Woodbury.

Drawing and color work.

Open by permission of the instructor to juniors and seniors who have completed course 5. Two hours a week for a year.

Fall Term, Miss Newkirk.
Winter and Spring Terms, Mr. Woodbury.

Painting or drawing from life at the discretion of the instructor.

Note.—No studio course will count toward the degree until one course in the History of Art has been taken. After one course in the History of Art has been completed, three hours of studio work as indicated in 5, 14, 15, 16, above, equivalent to nine hours of studio practice, may count toward the degree; four hours of studio work, equivalent to twelve hours of studio practice, may so count, if six hours in the History of Art have been completed.

Students in art courses are required to use laboratory methods, examining and comparing, sketching or describing, the photographs used in illustration.

Previous preparation in drawing is not required.
The art library is open to students from 9 to 5:30 daily, and from 7 to 9 in the evening.

N. B. Any student who desires to give yearly the time of one full course to studio work throughout her college course may do so by spending five years in college before taking her degree, instead of four.

ASTRONOMY

Professors: Sarah Frances Whiting, D.Sc., Ellen Hayes, B.A.
Assistant: Emma Rebecca Ellis, B.A.

1. Physical Astronomy.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have had an elementary course in Physics. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Whiting, Miss Ellis.

A general survey of present knowledge of the universe, and of the methods by which this knowledge has been obtained.

Special emphasis upon astrophysics. One third of the course consists of observation of the heavens with and without instruments, work with the spectroscope, with the ephemeris, charts, photographs.

2. Practical Astronomy.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hayes.

A general survey of Astronomy, with practice in the use of instruments for the determination of the position of a heavenly body; time, latitude.
3. Advanced Astronomy.

Open to students who have completed course 2, and who have completed or are taking course 1 in Applied Mathematics. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hayes.

Work at the observatory with clock, chronograph, sextant, surveyor's transit, prismatic transit, equatorial telescope.

Text-books: Campbell's Practical Astronomy; Chauvenet's Method of Least Squares.

Primarily for graduate students who have completed course 3, or an equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hayes.

The course will include the development of the theory of a parabolic orbit, and the determination of one such orbit, with special training in computing.

The practical work of course 3 will be continued.

† 5. Advanced Work in Astrophysics.

Primarily for graduate students who have had at least one year of Astronomy. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Whiting.

The use of instruments and consultation of original memoirs in the study of astronomical spectroscopy, variable stars, the solar surface, measurement of photographic plates.

BIBLICAL HISTORY, LITERATURE AND INTERPRETATION

Associate Professors: Adelaide Imogene Locke, B.A., S.T.B.
Eliza Hall Kendrick, Ph.D.; for Greek Testament:
Angie Clara Chapin, M.A., Professor of Greek.

Instructors: Katrine Wheelock, B.D.,
William H. P. Hatch, B.D., Ph.D.

I. Hebrew

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Wheelock.

The elements of Hebrew grammar, with practice in translation and the memorizing of a vocabulary. Davidson's Introductory Hebrew Grammar.

During the third term reading of the book of Ruth and of stories selected from Genesis, Judges, or I Samuel.

At the end of the course the student should be able to read simple Hebrew and to use the language in the study of the Old Testament.

II. Biblical History.

The requirement in Biblical History for a degree is met by taking courses i or io, and one of the following courses: 3, 4, 5, 6, 8.

I. Studies in Hebrew history from the settlement of Canaan to the Maccabean Period.

Required of sophomores. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Wheelock.

Withdrawn for the current year.
10. The Development of Thought in the Old Testament.

Open to sophomores. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Kendrick.

It is the purpose of the course to offer (a) political and social studies in Hebrew History to the period of Judaism; (b) a survey of the development of thought in the Old Testament as shown in the prophetic, priestly and wisdom literature.

This course counts as equivalent to Biblical History 1 and a one-hour elective.

Open to students who have completed Biblical History 1 or 10. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Hatch.

A course in general introduction to the New Testament writings, studying them in their historical setting and paying special attention to the development of their thought. Lectures, reading, and essays.

4. Life of Christ.

Open to students who have completed Biblical History 1 or 10. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Locke.

This course includes an outline study of the life of Christ—his land, people, and times,—and a special study of some of his teachings.

Open to students who have completed Biblical History 1 or 10 and Greek 1. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Chapin.

Open to students who have completed Biblical History I or II and Greek I. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Chapin.

7. Sources of New Testament Greek in the Septuagint. Quotations from the Old Testament in the New; lectures. Illustrative readings, chiefly from the Psalms in Greek.

Open to students who have completed Greek Testament I. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Chapin.

8. The Life of Paul.

Open to students who have completed Biblical History I or II. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Kendrick.

A study of the life and writings of Paul. The themes treated: Paul’s environment and the influences affecting him; the facts of his life; the contents of his writings; his conception of Christianity; his influence in the church. Study of the text, required readings, class discussions.

9. History of Religions.

Open to students who have completed two courses in Biblical History. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Locke.

Introductory study of primitive religions; followed by an outline comparative study of the rise and development of the leading historic faiths. Lectures, reports of special study, discussions.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
BOTANY

PROFESSORS: Clara E. Cummings, Margaret C. Ferguson, Ph.D.
INSTRUCTORS: Henry Saxton Adams, B.A.S.,
Mary Campbell Bliss, M.A.,
Mary F. Barrett, M.A.,
Lincoln Ware Riddle, Ph.D.
ASSISTANT: Caroline L. Allen, M.A.

5. Plant Studies.

Open to freshmen and sophomores. Freshmen four hours, sophomores three hours a week for a year.

Miss Ferguson, Miss Bliss, Miss Barrett, Miss Allen.

This course is designed to bring the student into sympathy with the plant world, to cultivate the power of careful observation, to give a knowledge of the fundamental principles of plant life and plant breeding, and of the general principles of floriculture.

Lectures accompanied by studies in the laboratory and in the field. As a basis for acquaintance with the nature and work of plants, the structure and development of certain plants are studied from seed germination to fruit formation, and the more simple problems connected with the adjustment of plants to their surroundings are investigated. Students are trained to recognize the spring flowers, and to know our common trees both in their winter and in their summer condition. During the spring term each student chooses one or two plants, which she studies with reference to the opening of the buds and to cross pollination. Student gardens are a prominent feature of the course. On an average, one appointment each week is spent out of doors, and excursions are made to certain of the notable estates in the vicinity.

1. General Botany.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Bliss, Mr. Riddle.

This course seeks to give a general knowledge of the plant kingdom, placing special emphasis on the physiology, morphology and ecology of plants. Plant structures, the fundamental principles of plant life, the relation of plants to their environment, and the evolution of plants, as indicated in a study of the comparative morphology of representative plants of the various groups from the Algae to the Phanerogams, are studied. During the spring practical exercises are given in the use of manuals in the determination of plant names. A plot of ground twenty feet square is assigned to each student. The plants growing on these plots are observed throughout the year, and at stated intervals reports based on an ecological study of the plants are made, special emphasis being laid on the relation of structure to environment. Lectures and recitations are accompanied by parallel studies in the laboratory and field.

_Open to students who have completed course 5 or 1._
_Three hours a week for a year._

Miss Cummings.

A critical study of the structure and classification of the Cryptogams exclusive of the Fungi. The course aims to secure familiarity with plants in their native haunts. Lectures are accompanied by laboratory and field work in practical taxonomy.

3. Taxonomy and Geographical Distribution of the Phanerogams.

_Open to students who have taken course 1._ _Three hours a week for a year._

Mr. Riddle.

A study of the genetic relationships and distribution of flowering plants. This course is largely conducted in the laboratory and in the field. It aims to give the student an acquaintance with the local flora in all its seasonal changes, and to give independence in the determination of plants by the use of manuals and keys.

Open to students who have completed course 5 or 1. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Cummings.

A brief study of the various groups of Fungi. Special attention is given to the study of mushrooms, both in the field and in the laboratory, with reference to edible and poisonous forms. During the winter term opportunity is given for practice in the growth and culture of the mushrooms.

This course supplements course 2 in giving a complete survey of the Cryptogams.

Open to graduate students and to seniors by permission. Three or six hours for a year.

Miss Ferguson,

This is primarily a laboratory course, but a definite weekly appointment is made with each student for a report of the papers read and of the progress of her study; and a final paper or thesis embodying the results of her investigations is required. A special problem in one of the following subjects is assigned to each student:

1. Embryology: mitosis, sporogenesis, spermstogenesis, oogenesis, fertilization, inheritance, experimental morphology.
2. Histology: cell and tissue structure, organography, structure-variations in relation to environment.
3. Physiology: nutrition, growth, development, effects of stimuli on cell activities.
4. Taxonomy of the Phanerogams: studies in the morphology and phylogeny of the higher plants.

1906-7 Courses of Instruction

55

Open to students who have completed course 2. Three hours a week for the year.

Miss Cummings.

A systematic study of any chosen group or groups of Cryptogams.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or 5, and by permission of the department to those who have studied Botany in the preparatory school. Three hours a week for the year.

Mr. Adams.

This course aims to give the student such a knowledge of the art and science of horticulture and landscape gardening as will enable her successfully to carry on gardening for pleasure or profit. During the first semester the subjects considered are soils, manures, fertilizers, propagation, and the cultivation of plants indoors and out, including planting, transplanting, plant protection, pruning, and training. Insect and plant diseases are discussed. The second semester is devoted to landscape gardening. Parks, cemeteries, village improvement, school grounds, school gardens, private estates, gardens old and new, are among the subjects considered.

The lectures are supplemented by reading, work in the greenhouse and garden, practice in making plans, and visits to gardens, nurseries, and estates in the vicinity. During the whole course opportunity is given to keep in touch with the present day movement in outdoor art.

13. Comparative Morphology, Histology, and Embryology.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the year. Course 2 advised but not required as a prerequisite.

Miss Ferguson.

Preliminary studies of the structure, development, and contents of the vegetable cell, nuclear and cell division, tissue formation. Especial emphasis is given to tracing the development and homologies of sporogenous, reproductive, and embryological organs, and to the problems of evolution and inheritance. A number of permanent microscopic preparations are made by each student as a means of becoming acquainted with the most approved methods in cytological and histological technique.

This course aims to give the student that broad knowledge of the structure and development of plants so essential to power and freedom in teaching botany, and to give adequate preparation for advance or research work in histology and embryology.

Required of graduate students, and open to seniors by permission. One hour a week for the year.

Miss Ferguson.

Readings and discussions of current literature and reports of problems under investigation.
CHEMISTRY

Professor: Charlotte Fitch Roberts, Ph.D.
Associate Professor: Charlotte Almira Bragg, B.S.
Instructors: Florence Jackson, M.A., George Arthur Goodell, M.A.

1. General Chemistry. Lectures and laboratory work.

   Open to all undergraduates. Freshmen four hours a week for a year; all other students three hours a week for a year.

   Classroom, Miss Bragg.
   Laboratory, Miss Jackson.

   Course 1 is for beginners in Chemistry, and is intended to familiarize the student with the important properties of the elements and their compounds, with their modes of preparation, and with such tests as shall lead up to the study of systematic Qualitative Analysis; also to present the laws governing chemical reactions, the meaning of chemical equations, and the more recent theories adopted in the science.

2. Qualitative Analysis.

   Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the first semester.

   Miss Jackson.

   This course supplements course 1 by presenting more in detail the properties and characteristic reactions of the metallic elements. Practical methods of separating and recognizing the elements present in mixtures are taught, and the progress of the student is constantly tested by the examination of substances, the composition of which is unknown to the student.

   Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the second semester.

   Miss Roberts.

   This course includes a somewhat careful study of the saturated series, dealing very briefly with the unsaturated and benzene series. Experiments are performed in the laboratory to illustrate the behavior of representative substances, and a limited number of preparations are made to familiarize the student with the more common processes of Organic Chemistry.

4. Advanced General Chemistry and Qualitative Analysis.

Open to freshmen who have met the admission requirement in Chemistry. Four hours a week for a year.

Mr. Goodell.

5. Quantitative Analysis.

Open to students who have completed course 2 or 4. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Jackson.

In this course a few typical processes involving both volumetric and gravimetric methods are taught to illustrate the general principles of Quantitative Analysis.

Open to students who have completed courses 1, 2 or 4, 3 or 7, and 5. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Bragg.

Open to students who have completed courses 1, 2 and 5, or 4. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Roberts.

8. Theoretical Chemistry.

Open to students who have completed course 3 or 7. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Roberts.
* 9. Selected Subjects in Theoretical and Physical Chemistry, with laboratory work in the determination of vapor densities and molecular weights.

Open to seniors and graduates who have completed course 8. Three hours a week for a semester.

Miss Roberts.

10. Advanced Laboratory Course: Special Work in Organic Preparations, or Problems of Food Analysis, or Advanced Analytical Chemistry.

Open to seniors and graduates. Three hours a week for a semester.

Miss Roberts.

The work for 1906-1907 is in Organic Preparations. The subject treated each year is arranged on consultation with the department. Courses 9 and 10 will not ordinarily be given the same year.

11. Historical Chemistry.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or 4. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Roberts.

This course treats of the beginnings of Chemistry, and its development to modern times. It includes a study of the work of the alchemists, and of the lives and discoveries of the more prominent founders of the science.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
Elements of Economics.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors; to freshmen who receive permission from the head of the department. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Coman.

An introductory course designed to give the student acquaintance with economic facts and training in economic reasoning. Illustrations will be drawn from actual observation of the conditions determining prices, land values, wages, profits, and standard of living.

Industrial History of the United States.

Open to students who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Coman.

A study of our national development in its material and social aspects, accompanied by a critical review of economic legislation. Coman's Industrial History of the United States will serve as guide in class discussion.

Industrial History of England.

Open to students who have completed course 1, and to freshmen by permission. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Coman.

A study of the evolution of industrial forms, more especially of villeinage, gilds, the domestic system, the factory system, and modern commerce. The prescribed text-book is Warner's Landmarks in English Industrial History.

4. Socialism.

Open to students who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Balch.

A study of socialist theories, "utopian" and "scientific," in their historical development, followed by the critical reading of the first volume of Marx' Capital and the consideration of modern socialist propaganda.

Open to students who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Balch.

The course is introduced by lectures on the principles of statistical research. Each member of the class undertakes the investigation of a particular problem, and reports the results of her inquiry in the form of a final paper. The graphic method of presenting statistical results is emphasized. The general subject for 1906-1907 will be statistics of the cost of living. Course 5 suitably follows course 8.

6. Social Economics I.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Balch.

A study of the delinquent, defective and dependent classes, accompanied by discussion of methods of dealing with each. The class will make five or six visits to designated institutions under the guidance of the instructor, and each student will undertake the study of some special problem which will be discussed in a final paper.
7. Social Economics II.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Balch.

A discussion of methods of meeting certain normal social needs, such as housing, sanitation, education, and recreation, accompanied by a critical discussion of the principles and actual boundaries of self-help and collective action. The North End of Boston is used as a field of observation. Course 7 naturally follows course 6.

† 8. The Modern Labor Problem.

Open to students who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Balch.

A study of the modern industrial system of wage labor as compared with earlier forms of production; of special difficulties, such as "sweating" and child labor, and of modifications, such as profit-sharing and co-operation, trade unionism and arbitration, factory laws, insurance, and "employers' welfare institutions." American experience will be dwelt upon in the main.

* 9. An Introduction to General Sociology.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Balch.

A study of facts and theories of social development, and more especially of the growth of institutions such as the family, the state, law and property.

A reading knowledge of French and German is desirable.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
12. Practical Problems in Economics.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Balch.

The subject for 1906-1907 will be a study of immigration into the United States; the race elements represented and their geographical distribution; the social, political and economic influence of our foreign populations; the history of restrictive legislation; and the arrangements thus far provided for the reception and care of aliens.

Courses 3 and 12 offer alternative electives following on course 1.

13. Selected Industries.

Open to all students. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Coman.

The subject for 1906-1907 will be transportation. The transition from river travel to post-road, canal, and railroad will be traced, and the contemporary problems involved in railway combination and the difficulties of rate regulation will be discussed.

14. Municipal Socialism.

Open to students who have completed two courses in Economics. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Coman.

This course is designed to follow course 4 and proposes a review of actual experiments, English, German, and American, in the way of municipalization of public service agencies. The legitimate relations between public and private corporations, the necessary limitations on franchise and other concessions, and the results of foreign experience are discussed in a series of lectures. To each student is assigned for individual study an important American city. Oral reports are made from time to time of the comparative results of private and public management of waterworks, lighting plants, street railways, telephones, etc. The accumulated data serve as basis for a final paper.

ELOCUTION

INSTRUCTOR: MALVINA BENNETT, PH.B.

1. Training of the Body and Voice.

_Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors; to freshmen by special permission. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Bennett.

_Open to students who have completed course 1, or an equivalent. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Bennett.

Voice culture; exercises for freedom of the body; gesture; recitations from the best authors; reading at sight. The work is along the lines of course 1, only much more advanced.

3. Reading of Shakespeare.

_Open to students who have completed courses 1 and 2, or to those who have completed or are taking English Literature 9; to others at the discretion of the instructor Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Bennett.

Analysis of characters; reading; scenes selected for memorizing and acting. Two plays studied.

This course does not count as a separate subject when elected with English Literature 9.
ENGLISH

I. English Literature

Professor: Katharine Lee Bates, M.A.
Associate Professors: Vida Dutton Scudder, M.A., Sophie Jewett, Margaret Pollock Sherwood, Ph.D., Alice Vinton Waite, M.A., Laura Emma Lookwood, Ph.D., Martha Hale Shackford, Ph.D.

Instructors: Charles Lowell Young, B.A., Adele Lathrop, M.A.

1. Outline History of English Literature.

Open to all students. Freshmen four hours, all other students three hours a week for a year.

Miss Shackford and Miss Lathrop.

The object of this course is to give the student a general survey of English literature and to prepare the way for more specialized work. The course is conducted by lectures and by critical study of selected masterpieces.

A syllabus of the historical work is sold by the department.

2. American Authors.

Open to students who have taken or are taking course 1, and to all seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Young.

The course will attempt to give a comprehensive account of American literature from its beginnings to the present time. All the more important American writers will be discussed in class, and their work will be related as closely as possible to the history of the national life.

Open to students who have completed or are taking course 1. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Lathrop.

This course will include studies of various lyric forms. Close attention will be given to Elizabethan songs and sonnets, with comparative work in earlier and later lyrics.

Open to students who have taken or are taking course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Lockwood.

The primary object of this course is the critical study of Milton as a master in lyric, epic, and dramatic poetry, and as a writer of notable prose. The character and genius of the poet are considered as influenced by the political and religious conflict of the times. Special emphasis is placed on the comparison of Milton's work with that of other great writers who have used the same literary forms.

5. English Prose, exclusive of Fiction, from Sidney to Carlyle.

Open to students who have taken or are taking course 1. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Lathrop.

The aim of this course is to trace the development of English prose style, to examine the chief prose forms perfected, and to study the personality and influence of each of the more important writers.

For conditions of entrance see final note. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Scudder.

The course will deal especially with Dickens, Thackeray, George Eliot, Carlyle, Newman, Ruskin, Arnold, Morris. Attention will also be given to the historical background, and to the work of minor men.

For conditions of entrance see final note. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Jewett.

This course considers the work of the great Georgian and Victorian poets in their relation to one another and to contemporary movements, political, social, ethical, and aesthetic. Extended study is given to Wordsworth and Coleridge; Shelley and Keats; Tennyson and Browning, with briefer readings from Byron, Scott and Landor; Clough and Arnold; Rossetti, Morris, and Swinburne.

8. English Literature of the XIV. Century.

For conditions of entrance see final note. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Jewett.

The course will include a chronological study of the major portion of Chaucer's work. Attention will be given to Chaucer's chief French and Italian sources, to contemporary English literature and social conditions. Special study will be put upon Langland's Piers Plowman and upon The Pearl. A syllabus for the Chaucer work may be obtained from the department.

9. English Drama through Shakespeare.

For conditions of entrance see final note. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Sherwood.

This course attempts to trace the dramatic evolution from the Easter Mystery to Shakespeare, to observe the structure and artistic principles of the Elizabethan drama, and to study closely a few of Shakespeare's plays, with reading and discussion of the others. A syllabus sold by the department furnishes bibliographical data for the work.

For advanced students. For conditions of entrance see final note. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Young.

This course follows the development of English Literature from the earliest times to the present. It is designed to supplement the more detailed courses already taken by a general survey, which shall reveal causes and relations.

11. Modern Authors.

A seminary course, primarily intended for graduate students. Open to seniors only by special permission. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Scudder.

Two significant authors are chosen each year for close and comprehensive study. The authors considered in 1901-1902 were Ruskin and Morris; in 1903-1904 Wordsworth and Coleridge; in 1904-1905 Rossetti and Swinburne; in 1906-1907 Shelley and Browning.

Open to graduates, and, by permission, to seniors who have had two earlier courses in the department.

Miss Shackford.

This course aims to introduce students to some of the more important problems in the literature of Chaucer and of his contemporaries. Special effort will be made to investigate the differentiation of literary types in this era; the development of the resources of the language as revealed by a systematic survey of the linguistic history of the century; the influence of foreign writers, operative in England; and some of the vital questions of textual criticism.
13. Social Ideals in Modern English Literature.

Open to all students except freshmen. One hour a week for the year.

Miss Scudder.

This course will trace social idealism and social criticism in modern English Literature. Emphasis will be put upon the poets of the Revolutionary period and the Victorian essayists.

Open only to seniors who have completed no full course in English Literature, or course 1 only. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Young.

This course is intended to develop a sympathetic appreciation of literature through the study of chosen masterpieces.

*15. Shakespeare's Contemporaries and Successors.

Open to all students except freshmen. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Sherwood.

Lectures with library readings. Selected dramas from the successive dramatic periods, Jacobean, Restoration, Eighteenth Century, will be studied.

Open to all students except freshmen. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Sherwood.

The work will extend from the chivalric romance through the sixteenth-century experiments with new types, and the eighteenth-century development of the novel, to selected masterpieces of Jane Austen and of Scott.

Not offered in 1906-1907.
*18. The British Ballad.

*Open to all students except freshmen. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Jewett.

This course will consist of a study of the English and Scottish popular ballads, and of the modern literary ballad from Scott to Stevenson.

19. Metrics.

*Open to all students except freshmen. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Waite.

This course will consist of a series of lectures on the principles of metrical form, intended to guide the student of literature to a better appreciation of poetic expression. The lectures will be accompanied by class readings and class analyses of verse and stanza.

This course may well be taken in connection with course 1.

*20. The Poetry of Spenser.

Open to students who have taken or are taking course 1. Three hours a week for the second semester.

This course includes the greater part of the Faerie Queene and all the minor poetry of Spenser.

Open to students who have taken or are taking course 1. Three hours a week for one semester.

Miss Scudder.

The course will open with Malory's Morte Darthur, and thence work backward to a study of certain earlier forms of Arthurian romance. The Grail-Cycle will receive especial attention.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
22. English Romanticism.

For conditions of entrance see final note. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Sherwood.

A study of the Romantic Movement, designed to bring out, through investigation of selected works, certain phases of the relation of English to German Literature, and of English to French Literature, during the period of reaction in the late eighteenth and the early nineteenth century.

Primarily for graduates, but open, by approval, to seniors who have had course 9.

Miss Bates.

This course will attempt to give graduate training in literary investigation. To each student will be assigned some special problem of source, authorship or the like, which she will pursue till her conclusion is reached, reporting progress from week to week in the seminar. In the case of candidates for the Master's degree, their subjects will be related, when possible, to their theses.

Note.—Courses in English Literature are elective, with the following restrictions:—

No group of electives may include both course 1 and course 10.

Students proposing to elect a single full course should take 1, with the exception of seniors desiring course 2 or course 14.

Students proposing to elect two courses only should take 1, followed by 2 or 4 or 8, or the combination of 21 with 20, or of either 3 or 5 with 13, 15, 17, 18 or 19. These one-hour courses, 13, 15, 17, 18, 19, may be taken alone. Students are advised not to elect two of these for any one year. The two hour courses, 3 and 5, may be taken separately or together.

Students proposing to take a three-course major should elect their two earlier courses as above. The third course should be chosen from the more advanced courses, 6, 7, 9, and, by approval, 12 or 22; but may, by special permission, be taken from those above enumerated.

Students proposing to take a four-course major should elect in order 8, 9, 6 or 7 (or 22), 10. This major is regarded by the department as affording the firmest foundation for teaching or for graduate work, in that the student puts special study on the successive great periods of English Literature in preparation for apprehending, through course 10, the development of that literature as an organic whole. Substitute courses of a kindred nature may be arranged, for good reason, by permission of the head of the department, as the first semester of 9 with 20, or 21 in place of 6 or 7.

Either half of any one of courses 2, 4, 6, 7, may be taken as a complete semester course, by permission of the instructor of the course and of the head of the department. In special cases, the first semester of 8 or 9 may be so counted.

Required of freshmen. One hour a week for a year.

Dr. Southard.

Lectures, demonstrations, and quizzes. The subject presented is the proper care of the body, and the course is designed to give a practical knowledge of its structure and function, and an understanding of the laws of health. An outline is given of the general principles of public hygiene.

3. Lectures.

The principles of individual and social hygiene as applied to woman are considered on the basis of her special structure and functions.

For seniors. Not counted in the record of hours.

Dr. Southard.

Physical Training

1. Introductory Swedish Gymnastics.

Two hours a week from November until April.

Miss Luey.

2. Swedish Gymnastics, Advanced Course.

Two hours a week from November until April.

Miss Luey.

3. Corrective Gymnastics.

Three hours a week from November until April.

Miss Luey.

For students needing special work.

4. Natural Dancing.

Two hours a week from November until April.

Miss Hill.

5. Outdoor Sports.

Archery; basket ball; golf; field hockey; rowing; running and tennis.

Three hours a week in the fall and spring terms.

Miss Hill and field instructors.

Instruction in fencing, riding, and swimming, for which a special fee is charged, is offered under the supervision of the Director of Physical Training.

Courses in physical training are not counted in the record of hours, but all freshmen and sophomores are required to take three hours per week of physical training. This requirement is met in the fall and spring terms by course 5 or by walking; in the winter term by either one of courses 1, 2, 3, 4, supplemented by walking and winter sports. Physical exercise registers, showing how the requirement is met, are presented as may be required by the Director of Physical Training.

Upon entering College, each student receives a thorough examination given by the Medical Examiner. A series of measurements is also taken by the Assistant Medical Examiner, as a basis for gymnastic work, particular emphasis being laid on those which should be and can be changed by judicious exercises.

LATIN

PROFESSOR: ADELINE BELLE HAWES, M.A.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: ALICE WALTON, PH.D.
INSTRUCTOR: CAROLINE REBECCA FLETCHER, M.A.
ASSISTANT: MAUDE EMILY McCLARY, M.A.

Open to students who have met admission requirement. Four hours a week for a year.

Miss Walton, Miss Fletcher.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Walton, Miss McClary.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Fletcher.

(As courses 6 and 13 are both planned for sophomore work, neither may be taken, as the third or fourth course, by students who make Latin a major.)

Open to students who have completed course 1 and are taking a full course in the department. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Fletcher, Miss McClary.

7. Sight reading in prose and verse.

Open to sophomores who are taking either 6 or 13. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Walton.

Open to students who have completed two full courses. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Hawes.

Open to students who have completed two full courses. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Hawes.
10. Latin Prose Composition.

Open at the discretion of the instructor to students who have completed course 11 and who are taking a full course in the department. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Fletcher.

12. History of Latin Literature. Lectures and readings, with direction of the students' private reading.

Open to students who have completed two full courses, and who are taking a full course in the department. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Hawes.

The aim of this course is to give a general survey of the subject, tracing the beginnings and development of the various kinds of prose and verse, and considering the changes in the political and social conditions under which Latin literature developed.

Open to students who have completed two full courses. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Walton.

16. Private Life of the Romans. Lectures, readings, and discussions.

Open to students who have completed two full courses, and who are taking a full course in the department. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Hawes.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
† Latin 15 and Archaeology 3 and 4 are not usually given in the same year.
§ 14. Authors of the Early Empire. Readings from Tacitus, Suetonius, Seneca, Quintilian, Martial, and other authors.

Open to students who have completed three full courses. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hawes.

§ 9. Latin Poetry, especially Lyric, Idyllic, and Elegiac. Readings from Catullus, Horace, Vergil, Tibullus, Propertius, Ovid, Martial, and some of the later poets.

Open to students who have completed three full courses. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hawes.

Classical Archæology

6. Introduction to Classical Archæology.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed one full course in Latin or Greek. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Walton.

Outline history of prehistoric remains in Greece and Italy, with special emphasis upon Mycenæ and Crete; introductory study of Greek vases, Greek and Roman coins, painting, bronzes, and gems.

† † 3. Topography of Greek sites with special reference to Athens.

Open to students who have completed three full courses in Greek. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Walton.

The work will be based upon the text of Pausanias, in which there will be practice in rapid reading, besides close study of architectural history based on certain portions.

Not offered in 1906-1907.

4. History of Greek Ceramics.

Open to seniors who have completed course 6 or 3. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Walton.

So far as possible, the work will be illustrated by the vase collection in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts

5. Greek Mythology illustrated in Art.

Open to students who have completed two full courses in Greek, and to others upon consultation. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Walton.

First semester: Olympic deities; Greek stories of Cosmogony; minor mythological figures. Second semester: Stories of the heroic age; legends of Troy, Thebes, and of the Atreidæ, including Iphigenia and Orestes.

The legends will be traced from their literary sources, and amply illustrated from reliefs, statuary, coins, and vase paintings.

APPLIED MATHEMATICS

Professor: Ellen Hayes, B.A.

1. Introduction to the Mathematical Treatment of Science.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hayes.

3. Thermodynamics.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Hayes.

† 4. Theoretical Mechanics.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Hayes.

This course is a continuation of course 1, and is devoted to the further development of the principles of kinematics, statics, and kinetics.

† 5. Geodynamics.

Open to juniors and seniors properly qualified. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Hayes.

Both the astronomical and geological aspects of the subject are emphasized. In general, the topics discussed are: precession, nutation; form, size, density of the earth; thermal condition of the earth, theories concerning its crust.

PURE MATHEMATICS

Professor: Ellen Louisa Burrell, B.A.

Associate Professors: Eva Chandler, B.A., Helen Abbot Merrill, Ph.D.

Instructors: Roxana Hayward Vivian, Ph.D., Miriam Hathaway, B.A., Mabel Minerva Young, M.A.

Assistant: Louise Emma Sylvester, B.A.

1. Required course for freshmen.

Four hours a week for a year.

(a) Solid and Spherical Geometry.

Three hours, first semester.

(b) Higher Algebra.

One hour, first semester; two hours, second semester.

The subjects included are: Functions and Theory of Limits, Derivatives, Development of Functions in Series,

Convergency of Series, Theory of Logarithms, Determinants, Theory of Equations (including Sturm's Theorem). (Taylor's College Algebra.)

(c) Plane Trigonometry.

Two hours, second semester.

The angular analysis, including transformation, trigonometric equations and inverse functions, is fully treated, as well as the solution of triangles and the practical use of the tables.

Miss Chandler, Miss Merrill, Miss Hathaway, Miss Young, Miss Sylvester.

2. Conic Sections and Plane Analytical Geometry.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Chandler, Miss Hathaway.

A brief course in geometrical conics is given in connection with the usual analytical work, with correlated work in geometrical drawing.

3. Differential and Integral Calculus.

Open to students who have completed course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Burrell.

The applications include a course in curve tracing.

Open to students who have completed course 1 and are taking or have completed course 2. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Vivian.

Fundamental concepts and development of the complete number system of algebra; graphic representation; trigonometry as a part of pure algebra; De Moivre's Theorem; the fundamental theorem of algebra; further work in series; the generalized logarithm; hyperbolic functions.

4. Theory of Equations, with Determinants.

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Chandler.

The work is based on Burnside and Panton's Theory of Equations.

5. Solid Analytical Geometry.

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Chandler.

The straight line; the plane; surfaces of the second order. Brief study of surfaces in general.

Open to students who have completed course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Burrell.

Metrical and projective properties of plane and sheaf forms of the first and second orders; the anharmonic ratio; harmonic forms; the method of inversion; involution; collineation; the law of duality; theory of poles and polars; reciprocation; space forms and surfaces of the second order. Given by lectures and references, with constant practice in the solution of geometrical problems.

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Merrill.

Among the topics discussed in this course are: definite integrals; Gamma and Beta functions; infinite series and products; Fourier series; elliptic integrals; the elements of the theory of the functions of a complex variable.
Courses of Instruction

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Chandler.

A general course in ordinary and partial differential equations.

Open to students who have completed course 3, and have completed or are taking course 6. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Burrell.

A lecture course, introductory to the principles of modern geometry.

Note.—Attention is called to the following arrangements for doubling mathematical courses: Course 3 may be taken, with the approval of the instructor, at the same time with course 2. Courses 4 and 5 or course 6 may be taken with course 3. Course 11 may be taken with course 6. Any of the courses for which 3 is a prerequisite may be taken together.

MUSIC

Professor: Hamilton Crawford MacDougall, Mus.D.
Associate Professor: Clarence Grant Hamilton, M.A.
Instructors: Emily Josephine Hurd,
Edith Estelle Torrey,
Albert Thomas Foster.
Assistant: Hetty Shepard Wheeler, M.A.

I. Musical Theory

Instruction in music is given in Music Hall and in Billings Hall, buildings used exclusively for this purpose. See page 150. The department aims to lay a foundation of musical knowledge that shall lead to a rational appreciation of the art of music, and add a cultural element to a general education. The courses in theory and history are open to advanced freshmen (five-year music course), soph-

omones, juniors, and seniors without restriction as to previous musical knowledge, and count toward the B.A. degree. They are open to all special students. The history and theory courses are subject to no separate tuition fee with the exception of courses 9, 10, 11, 12, where a nominal fee of five dollars is charged for tuning and repairs of instruments. The following sequences of courses are recommended: 8, 1; 8, 1, 9; 8, 4; 8, 4, 10; 8, 1, 6-7; 8, 1, 6-7, 11-12; 8, 1, 4; 8, 1, 4, 10; 8, 1, 9, 4, 10; 8, 14; 8, 1, 14. A limited number of tickets for reserved seats at the Boston Symphony concerts will be given to students who are able to use them profitably.

8. Foundation Principles.

Open to advanced freshmen (five-year music course), sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Macdougall, Miss Wheeler.

This course covers the ground necessary for admission to courses 1 or 4, and also offers a substantial foundation for subsequent work in practical or theoretical music. It includes the study of elementary acoustics in its relation to music; the intervals; the modern scales; the formation and connection of the fundamental triads; the elements of rhythm and melody. Much attention will be devoted to ear training, and one hour of the course every week will be devoted to the realization of the principles of the course in choral practice. Students electing this course should be able to "carry a tune"; the quality of voice does not matter; if in doubt as to qualifications the student should consult the head of the department.

1. Harmony.

Open to students who have completed course 8. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Hamilton.

This course covers the formation and interconnection of chords; modulation; non-harmonic tones; analysis of harmony in standard works; invention of melodies and the expansion of the harmonic accompaniment. The course aims to give facility in elementary composition.

Open to those students only who are at the same time taking course 1. Two hours a week for a year. A laboratory fee of five dollars is attached to this course.

Mr. Hamilton.

This course aims to realize synthetically at the pianoforte the principles taught in course 1, following what may be termed a laboratory method.

Note.—Instruction will be given in classes of not less than three nor more than four. The course is in no sense a substitute for pianoforte lessons. Students must satisfy the head of the department that they have a pianoforte technique adequate for the work; in general, the ability to play the easier Mendelssohn Songs without Words, and to read hymn tunes accurately at sight will be sufficient.

4. The Development of the Art of Music.

Open to students who have completed course 8. Three hours a week for a year. This course is not open to students who have completed or are taking course 14.

Mr. Macdougall.

A course in the appreciation of music designed to develop musical perception and the ability to listen intelligently to the best music. It includes the evolution of rhythm, harmony, and melody, and their powers and offices in musical expression; the principal musical forms analytically considered; studies of the principal composers, their lives, their strongest works, their relation to the progress of musical art. Some great work will be selected for study during the year.
† 10. Applied History.

Open to those students only who are at the same time taking course 4. Two hours a week for a year. A laboratory fee of five dollars is attached to this course.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course aims to realize synthetically at the piano-forte the development of music from the organum of Hucbald to the Wagner opera. Specimens of the music of various schools and periods will be collected, played, and analyzed. See note to course 9.

6. Counterpoint.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Mr. Macdougall.

Counterpoint in two, three, and four voices; double counterpoint; analysis; the distinctions between strict (modal) and free counterpoint; the rules for the latter deduced from contemporaneous practice.

Open to those students only who are at the same time taking course 6. Two hours a week for the first semester. To this course a laboratory fee of two dollars and a half is attached.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course aims to realize synthetically at the piano-forte the laws of simple and double counterpoint by the constant playing and analysis of the best examples from the masters. See note to course 9.

† Withdrawn for the current year,
7. Musical Form.

Open to students who have completed course 6. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course aims to cover the various imitative forms, the suite and sonata forms, the large forms of vocal and orchestral music. A study of the simple musical sentence and its development into the larger forms will be made. Practical work in composition is done.

Open to those students only who are at the same time taking course 7. Two hours a week for the second semester. To this course a laboratory fee of two dollars and a half is attached.

Mr. Macdougall.

This course aims to play and to analyze a great number of specimens of the various forms, with careful analysis and classification. See note to course 9.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week, counting as two. This course is not open to students who have completed or are taking course 4.

Mr. Hamilton.

A non-technical course in the history of the music of all nations, for which no previous knowledge of music is required. One appointment each week will be devoted to illustrative programs.

This course cannot count as one of the two full courses necessary for sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are taking lessons in practical music.

13. The Symphony from Joseph Haydn to the Present Time.

Open to students who have completed courses 1 and 4 (or their equivalent), and who have some facility in playing the pianoforte. Three hours a week for a year.

A historical course tracing the development of the Symphony in its form, its instrumentation, and its content.

In connection with the concerts of the Boston Symphony Orchestra in Symphony Hall, Boston, the department will give weekly analyses of the programs in Billings Hall, with instrumental and vocal assistance.

II. Practical Music (Instrumental and Vocal Lessons)

[Attention is called to the fact that a good student need not necessarily spend five years in college in order to carry on practical music at the same time with the academic course. See (a) below.]

It is believed that students having a command of pianoforte or organ technique will be able to profit by the theoretical instruction given in the department to a fuller degree than those without such a technique. To encourage students to acquire a technique, as well as to furnish authoritative instruction, the department undertakes to give lessons in pianoforte, organ and violin playing and in singing. Practical work is an elective, and students should notify the department of their election of the subject in the usual manner and at the proper time; with the exception of the applied music courses, 9, 10, 11, 12, practical work does not count toward the B.A. degree. It is offered to all students, whether candidates for degrees or not, as stated below:

(a) Candidates for the B.A. degree who propose to spend but four years in college may take practical music, provided that they obtain each year the permission of the Dean of the College as well as of the Professor of Music. Freshmen may do so without taking Musical Theory, but sophomores, juniors, and seniors must take it unless they have previously completed two full courses in the subject.

(b) Candidates for the B.A. degree who are willing to devote five years to the college course will be permitted to take practical music each year of the course. Freshmen may do so without taking Musical Theory, but all other students in the academic and musical course are governed by the restriction laid down in (a).

(c) Candidates for the B.A. degree who wish also the Certificate of the Department of Music should plan to devote five years to the college course. Such students are required to take practical music, two lessons a week, throughout the five years. They must complete, satisfactorily to the department, a course in the literature of the instrument chosen or of the voice; they must apply for the certificate at least three years in advance. After the first year the study of Musical Theory is required.

(d) Students not candidates for the B.A. degree who desire to specialize in Music must meet the requirements prescribed for admission to the freshman class, and must in addition pass an examination on the rudiments of music. This examination will be based upon W. H. Cummings' Rudiments of Music (No. 2 of Novello Company's Music Primers), chapters 6, 9, and 10 omitted. Special students must take both Musical Theory and vocal or instrumental lessons, two a week, with not less than twelve hours of weekly practice. They must also take from six to nine hours per week of academic work, including Musical Theory, as may be decided in consultation with the Dean.

(e) Students not candidates for the B.A. degree who wish the Certificate of the Department of Music must comply with the conditions laid down in (d); moreover the academic work taken must include modern languages. Such students must apply for the certificate on entering the department, and must have already acquired the fundamental technique of the instrument chosen or of the voice. The time occupied in study for the certificate depends upon the talent, upon the proficiency of the student at entrance, and upon her subsequent diligence; but in general four years at least are necessary. The various courses are so arranged that the pupil on completion will have an acquaintance with the best musical literature.

(f) Graduates of Wellesley College or of other institutions may make special arrangement for instrumental or vocal lessons.

(g) As the department furnishes skilful instructors, permission to take lessons from instructors not members of the department cannot be granted; nor can permission to practice in Music Hall be given to students not regularly registered in the department.

(h) Students whose progress is not satisfactory may be required to discontinue their lessons.

For tuition and other charges in the Department of Music see page 138.

Open to seniors who have completed the requirement in Philosophy. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss McKeag.

This course attempts to base principles of education upon the data of science. It includes, among the topics presented, the educative influence of primitive arts and industries, school hygiene, educational processes at various stages of the child’s development, and educative material suitable at different periods of the child’s life.

Open to juniors and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss McKeag.

This course aims to present a general view of the great movements in education, to trace the development of its institutions, and to select characteristic features of its accepted systems. Emphasis is placed on modern educational theories. Detailed studies are made of certain practices and problems of the American public schools of the present time.

3. Introduction to Experimental Pedagogy.

Open to seniors who have completed the requirement in Philosophy and to graduates. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss McKeag.

A brief survey of the results of experimentation in the field of education. A study of effective method of investigation. Written reports of statistical and experimental inquiries.

Not offered in 1906-1907.
4. Secondary Education.

Open, by permission of the department, to seniors and to graduates. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss McKeag.

The aim of this course is to give a brief historical survey of the development of secondary schools in England, France, and Germany, with a more detailed study of secondary schools in the United States. The organization, administration, and curriculum of high schools in some of the larger cities will be presented. A considerable part of the course will be devoted to a study of principles of education in their application to problems of the secondary schools.

† 8. Philosophy and Art of Teaching.

Open, on the approval of the department, to graduates who have completed course 1 or 2. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss McKeag.

This course attempts to present both the philosophy and the art of instruction. It considers the nature and elements of the teaching process; aims and ideals in schoolroom practices, and the basis of methodology. It examines in some detail the art of study, and briefly considers discipline and incentives.

Open to students who have completed course 8. Four hours a week for the second semester.

This course considers methods of teaching elementary school subjects, and discusses from a similar point of view the teaching of English and foreign languages, history, science, and mathematics in secondary schools.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
COMPARATIVE PHILOLOGY

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: Katharine May Edwards, Ph.D., Laura Emma Lockwood, Ph.D.

INSTRUCTORS: Johanna Marie Louise Pirscher, Ph.M., Clara Holst, Ph.D.

Open to seniors, and to juniors by permission of the instructor. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Edwards.

Lectures on the origin and nature of language and principles of its life and growth; outline studies in phonetics; classification of languages; groups of Indo-European languages with chief characteristics.

Open to seniors, and to juniors by permission of the instructor. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Edwards.

Historical treatment of the sounds and inflections of Greek and Latin in relation to other Indo-European languages.

* 5. Sanskrit.

Open to seniors, and to juniors by permission of the instructor. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Edwards.

† 6. Gothic.

Open to seniors, and to juniors by permission of the instructor, who offer at least a reading knowledge of German. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Pirscher.

Reading of Ulfilas, with constant reference to the syntax, phonology, and etymology of the language. Presentation of fundamental principles in Germanic Philology.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
7. Old Norse (Icelandic).

Open to seniors, and to juniors by permission of the instructor, who offer at least a reading knowledge of German. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Holst.

Grammar: reading of selections from the Sagas and Eddas. Recitations and lectures. A knowledge of Gothic is desirable, though not strictly required.

8. Old English (English Language 4.)

Open to graduates, and to seniors by permission of the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Lockwood.

A study of Old English inflections, phonology, and syntax. The reading of the best pieces of literature in Old English prose and poetry. A particular problem in either literature or language is assigned to each student for investigation.

PHILOSOPHY AND PSYCHOLOGY

Professor: Mary Whiston Calkins, M.A.
Associate Professors: Mary Sophia Case, B.A.,
Eleanor Acheson McCulloch Gamble, Ph.D.,
Ethel Dench Puffer, Ph.D.
Instructor: James Carleton Bell, Ph.D.

The requirement in philosophy for a degree is met by taking course 7 (full year course) or by taking course 1 (first semester), followed by course 6 or course 16 (second semester). Courses 6 and 16 are also open as elective courses.

The department offers direction to graduate students in independent work in psychology and in philosophy.

Absent on leave.
I. Introduction to Psychology.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to sophomores by permission of the department. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Calkins.

7. Introductory Course in Experimental Psychology.

Open to juniors and seniors, and to sophomores by permission of the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Bell.

This course aims to insure to students an acquaintance with primary mental facts, to give them a definite notion of the topics treated and of the experimental and statistical methods employed in psychology, and to fit them for more advanced psychological work. Titchener: Outline of Psychology; Calkins: Introduction to Psychology; Witmer: Analytical Psychology.

The work in psychology will be supplemented by a brief course introductory to philosophical study. Berkeley's Principles of Human Knowledge will be read.

17. Introductory Reading Course in Psychology.

Open to students only in combination with a required course in the department. One hour a week for a year.

Mr. Bell.

Reading of selected passages from James's Psychology, from Münsterberg's Psychology and Life, from other works, and from periodical literature. Arranged to supplement and elucidate the required courses.
18. Advanced Course in General Experimental Psychology.

Open to graduate students, and by permission to other students who have completed course 7 or course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Mr. Bell.

The purpose of this course is to offer thorough training in experimentation as demonstrative of the principal facts and theories of normal psychology. Special stress will be laid upon the use of apparatus. The course is designed to meet the needs of those who expect to teach psychology, or to engage in advanced psychological research. Titchener: Experimental Psychology.

15. Reading and Research Course in Psychology.

Open to students who have completed course 7, and to others by permission. Three or six hours a week for a year.

Mr. Bell.

Investigation, experimental or statistical, by individual students of special problems; written reports. Meetings of the class for the reading of French or German psychological texts.

The course may be repeated by students who have not already taken the maximum number of hours.

*3. Logic.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Gamble.

Training in argument and in logical criticism. Work expressly designed to meet the practical needs of the student. Creighton: Introductory Logic.

Not offered in 1906–1907.
2. Æsthetics.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or course 7. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Puffer.

Lectures on the development of the idea of beauty; simple experiments in psychological æsthetics; analysis of concrete examples of beauty; collateral reading, primarily in modern psychological æsthetics. Text-book: Puffer's Psychology of Beauty.

16. Social Ethics.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Case.

Open by permission as fourth course of a major subject. Prerequisites must be arranged with the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Case.

The subject of the course has been varied from year to year. The topic proposed for the first semester of 1905-1906 was English hedonism.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
6. Introduction to Philosophy.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Calkins.

The aim of this course is the discussion of metaphysical problems such as the relation of spirit to body and the conception of causality. The discussion will be based upon selections from Locke's Essay concerning Human Understanding and from Hobbes's Concerning Body; Berkeley's Principles of Human Knowledge; and other texts.

10. Greek Philosophy.

Open to students who have completed or who are taking course 1 or course 7. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Case, Miss Puffer.

Text study, lectures, discussions. Fragments of the pre-Socratic philosophers; Xenophon's Memorabilia (selections); Plato: most of the dialogues, with critical study of the more important passages; Aristotle: Psychology and selections from his other writings, with lectures on the Metaphysics. Lectures on post-Aristotelian philosophy.

9. Second Course in Modern Philosophy.

Open to juniors who are taking course 10 and to seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Calkins.

Lectures and discussions. Text study of Descartes's Meditations; Leibniz's Discourse on Metaphysics, Monadology, Correspondence with Arnauld, Principles of Nature and Grace; Hume's Enquiry, and Treatise, Book I.; Kant's Critique of Pure Reason (with omissions), and selections from his ethical works; Schopenhauer's Four-fold Root and Fichte's Vocation of Man. Lectures on the philosophy of Kant and of the post-Kantian German philosophers, and on problems of metaphysics.
11. Advanced Course in Modern Philosophy.

Open by permission as fourth course of a major subject. Prerequisites must be arranged with the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Calkins, Miss Case.

Lectures, reports of special study, discussions. Subject of the course varied from year to year. In 1906–1907, text study of Spinoza's philosophical works, and of Hegel's Logic of the Encyclopedia.

Open to graduate students who have completed course 11. When philosophy is a minor subject, permission is required. Two hours a week for a year, to count as one hour and a half.

Miss Case, Miss Calkins.

The aim of the course is to train the student in the analysis of philosophic problems, in the statement of questions in solvable form, and in the actual solution of elementary problems. In 1906–1907 the starting-point of the discussions is the controversy regarding pragmatism.

Instructors: Grace Evangeline Davis, M.A., Grace Langford, B.S.,
Eleanor Irene Burns, B.A.

Assistants: Emma Rebecca Ellis, B.A., Mary Tullar Hollister, B.A.

1. General Physics.

Open to all undergraduates. Freshmen four hours, others three hours a week for a year.

Miss Burns, Miss Ellis, Miss Hollister.

This course consists of lectures illustrated with many experiments, followed by laboratory work. The elementary principles of Mechanics, Sound, Electricity, Light are outlined. Special attention is given to the explanation of the phenomena of everyday life.

3. Heat, Light, and Electricity.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or an equivalent. Freshmen four hours, all other students three hours a week for a year.

Miss Davis.

This course presupposes an acquaintance with the general principles of Physics, and aims to be more intensive in its work. Only the best instruments of precision are used, and training is given in the handling of apparatus and in the discussion of results.

Special attention is given to the needs of those preparing to teach.

Open to juniors and to seniors who have completed course 3 and also course 1 in Applied Mathematics or course 3 in Pure Mathematics. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Whiting.

It is possible to combine one semester of this course with either 5 or 8.

5. Advanced Optics.

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Whiting, Miss Davis.

Polarized light, measurement of wave lengths with plane grating, mapping spectra with Filar micrometer, photographing spectra with concave grating spectroscope through color screens, measurement of photographs with measuring machine, work with interferometer.

8. Advanced Electricity.

Open to students who have completed course 3. Three hours a week for the first semester.

     Miss Whiting, Miss Davis.

Precise measurements of electrical units, Hertzian waves, discharge through gases, Roentgen ray photography, radioactivity, modern theories.

The aim of courses 5 and 8 is to present modern theories, with evidence for them gathered from individual work and consultation of original memoirs, and to develop the power of independent thought and experiment.

Open to students who have had an elementary course in Physics in college or in preparatory school. One hour a week for a year.

     Miss Davis.

Text-books: Davis's Meteorology, Ward's Practical Exercises. Making of weather maps; study of clouds, cold waves, progress of storms, weather prediction.

ROMANCE LANGUAGES

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: Henriette Louise Thérèse Colin, Ph.D., Off. I. P.

INSTRUCTORS: Valentine Julie Puthod, Mathilde Louise Laigle, Brev. Sup.,
Eva Louise Marguerite Mottet, Brev. Sup.,
Marie Louise Oamus, B. ès L.

ASSISTANT: Millicent Todd, B.A.

Open to all students. Four hours a week for a year.

     Miss Todd.

Abridged edition of Fraser and Squair's French Gram-

† First-year French, courses 1 and 1S, may not be counted toward the B.A. degree if taken after the sophomore year, nor second-year French, course 2, if taken after the junior year. French 1 and German 1 may not both be counted toward the B.A. degree.
mar and Prose Composition (Heath & Co.); Parts I. and II.

The course includes a concise survey of French history with Lavisse's Deuxième Année d'Histoire de France, Cours Supérieur (Paris); also, the reading of texts chosen from a certain range of authors and of subjects to insure the acquisition of a comprehensive vocabulary.

2. Elementary Course. Grammar, Composition, reading and exercises in speaking.

Open to all students who have completed course 1 or an equivalent. Three hours a week a year for students who have completed course 1, all other students four hours a week for a year.

Miss Puthod, Miss Camus.

Storr's French Syntax (D. C. Heath & Co.) and Baillot Brugnot's French Prose Composition (Scott, Foresman & Co.) are used to combine the theory and application of the essentials of Grammar. Reading, prepared and sight, from ten modern writers, part from plays.

Open to students who have completed course 2 or its equivalent. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Puthod, Miss Laigle, Madame Mottet.

Bouvet's French Syntax and Composition (D. C. Heath & Co.) will be used for a systematic study and review of syntax introductory to original theme writing and oral narrative.

† First-year French, courses 1 and 18, may not be counted toward the B.A. degree if taken after the sophomore year, nor second-year French, course 2, if taken after the junior year. French 1 and German 1 may not both be counted toward the B.A. degree.

Open to students who have completed courses 1 and 2, or who have met the maximum admission requirement in French. Freshmen three hours, all other students two hours a week for a year.

Miss Puthod, Miss Laigle, Madame Mottet.

This course is conducted in French. It makes the student acquainted with a considerable number of literary masterpieces that France has produced since the seventeenth century, and gives her some idea of the general development of the literature from the Renaissance to the present day. The student’s familiarity with the reading matter prescribed is tested at intervals in various ways—by class room discussion, written abstracts, or, criticism of the works read.

Doumic’s Histoire de la Littérature française forms the basis of the course.

Open to students who have completed courses 3 and 5. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Puthod, Miss Laigle.

A course conducted on lines of actual interest. Periodicals on the shelves of the College library, also recent accessions, enable the student to acquire some familiarity with French topics of the day. Theme writing, abstracts, synopses and general reading are required.

Open to students who have completed courses 3 and 5. Two hours a week for a year.

Madame Colin, Miss Puthod, Miss Laigle.

This course presents a connected study of legend, tradition, customs, phases of social life such as the Salons, for the purpose of tracing the twofold growth of the language and the literature of France. Prescribed readings and parallel reference furnish the matter for class discussion and occasional summaries.

As an aid, Rambaud's Histoire de la Civilisation française (Armand Colin, Paris) is prescribed.

17. Time, Life and Works of Lafontaine.

Open to students who have completed courses 3 and 5.

One hour a week for a year.

Miss Laigle.

Special attention is given to the history of fables, to the influence of the classics, and the general conception of the fable. Lectures, reading, essays.

22. The Short Story, or Conte.

Open to students who have completed courses 3 and 5.

One hour a week for a year.

Miss Camus.

A study of the development of this genre by writers of the nineteenth century and of our day.

Readings from its best exponents, discussion and papers.

Open to students who have completed courses 3 and 5.

One hour a week for a year.

Madame Colin.

This writer will be studied as poet in Odes et Ballades, Les Orientales, La Légende des Siècles and other selections; as dramatist in Cromwell, Hernani, Marion de Lorme, Ruy Blas, Les Burgraves; and as novelist in Notre Dame de Paris, Les Misérables and Quatre-vingt treize. Lectures, critical reading, papers.

Open to students who have completed course 19. One hour a week for a year.

Miss Puthod.

A study of the new life in art and letters; Marot, the Pleiade, Rabelais, Montaigne; the Reformation; Calvin. Lectures, collateral reading, essays.

12. The Drama of the XVII. Century.

Open to students who have completed course 19 or its equivalent. Three hours a week for a year.

Madame Colin.

The theatre in France, the influences that shaped it, the masterpieces it produced are successively studied as representative of the nation and its conception of art.

Texts required: Théâtre choisi de Corneille, Petit de Julleville; Théâtre choisi de Racine, Lanson; Théâtre choisi de Molière, Thirion. (Hachette et Cie, Paris: small classics edition.)

Open to students who have completed course 19. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Laigle.

This course discusses the life, time, and influence of Voltaire, Montesquieu, Jean-Jacques Rousseau; the drama and the novel as presented in the works of Voltaire, Regnard, Lesage, Marivaux, Rousseau, Beaumarchais. It includes also a study of the political and philosophical writings of Rousseau (Contrat social, Emile); of Montesquieu (Esprit des Lois); of Diderot (Préface de l’Encyclopédie). Lectures, collateral reading, papers.

Open to students who have completed course 19. Two hours a week for a year.

Miss Camus.

Study of the principal authors of the nineteenth century, as creative personalities, in lyric poetry, the drama, and the novel. Lectures, critical reading, and paper.

23. Balzac and his types—Realism.

Open to graduates, and seniors who have completed two full courses in French. One hour a week for a year.

Madame Colin.

A study in characterization during the first half of the nineteenth century. Critical readings and discussion; papers.

Open to graduates, seniors, and juniors with permission of the department, who have completed two full college courses in French, including course 7 or its equivalent. One hour a week for a year.

Madame Colin.

A study of the poetic tendencies and movements of the second half of the nineteenth century and the men who led in them.

Open to graduates, and to seniors by permission of the department. Three hours a week for a year.

Madame Colin.

Phonology with reading of La Vie de St. Alexis, La Chanson de Roland, Aucassin et Nicolette, Chrétien de Troyes. Selections from Constans: Chrestomathie. The history of the French language is traced from its origin to the present time, and illustrated by texts read. For reference, Gaston Paris: Manuel de la littérature française du moyen âge. Lectures, critical reading.

Open to all students under junior rank. Four hours a week for a year.

Miss Todd.

This course is intended for students who wish to acquire primarily a reading knowledge of French that will enable them to use it as an aid in connection with other studies. The essentials of grammar will be summarily presented with board illustration and reference. A considerable number and variety of texts will be studied, and constant sight work required.

II. Italian

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: MARGARET HASTINGS JACKSON.

1. Elementary Course.

Open to sophomores and juniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Jackson.

Grammar with written and oral exercises; reading and sight translation; conversation.

† 2. Intermediate Course.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Jackson.

Grammar, prose composition; reading and translation at sight: in the first semester from modern authors; in the second semester from the classic authors.

† First-year French, courses 1 and 18, may not be counted toward the B. A. degree if taken after the sophomore year.
* 3. History of Italian Literature in the XIII, and XIV. Centuries. Emphasis on Dante.

Open to students who have a reading knowledge of Italian, on consultation with the instructor. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Jackson.

Selections from the Vita Nuova and the Divina Commedia of Dante. The Sonnets of Petrarch and the Tales of Boccaccio will be read in the original.

4. History of Italian Literature in the XIX. Century.

Open to students who have completed courses 1 and 2, or equivalents. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Jackson.

5. Dante and the early Italian Renaissance. English course.

Open to juniors and seniors. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Jackson.

First semester: Dante's Divine Comedy (in English) and the conditions of the age which produced it. Second semester: The early Italian Renaissance as expressed in the works of Petrarch, Boccaccio, Niccolo Pisano, Arnolfo, and Giotto. A knowledge of Italian is not required.

Note.—The Dante Society offers an annual prize of one hundred dollars for the best essay on a subject drawn from the life or works of Dante. The competition is open to students or graduates of not more than three years' standing from colleges or universities in the United States. For subjects and conditions consult page 519 of the Harvard University Catalogue, 1904–1905.

* Not offered in 1906–1907.
7. Italian Prose Writers of the Fifteenth and Early Sixteenth Centuries.

Open to juniors and seniors who have a reading knowledge of Italian, on consultation with the instructor. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Jackson.

Selections from the works of Macchiavelli, Guicciardini, Savonarola and other writers of the period will be read in the original.

8. Italian Poets of the Fifteenth and Early Sixteenth Centuries.

Open to juniors and seniors who have a reading knowledge of Italian, on consultation with the instructor. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Jackson.

Selections from Poliziano, Lorenzo de’ Medici, Boiardo, Ariosto, Michael Angelo, Vittoria Colonna will be read in the original.

While courses 7 and 8 are continuous, one being the complement of the other, they may be elected separately

III. Spanish

INSTRUCTOR: SUSAN AVERY COLTON, B.A.

1. Elementary Course.

Miss Colton.

Grammar: written and oral exercises; Pinney: Spanish and English Conversation (Second Book); prepared and sight translation; Doce Cuentos escogidos; Alarcón: El Capitán Veneno; Moratín: El Si de las Niñas; Bretón de los Herreros: La Independencia; Cervántes: El Cautivo from Don Quijote. Beginning of Spanish Literature; formation and origin of the language.
* 2. Intermediate Course.

Open to students who have completed course 1. Three hours a week for a year.

Grammar of the Spanish Academy in Spanish. Prosody and syntax; Spanish Literature, especially authors of Golden Age and modern authors; ballads of The Cid; Lope de Vega: La Estrella de Sevilla; Calderón: El Alcalde de Zalamea; Cervantes: Don Quijote; Valera: Pepita Ximénez; Pérez Galdós: Doña Perfecta; Palacios Valdés: Marta y María.

ZOOLOGY AND PHYSIOLOGY

Professor: Mary Alice Willcox, Ph.D.

Associate Professor: Marion Elizabeth Hubbard, B.S.

Instructors: Mary Alice Bowers, M.A., Caroline Burling Thompson, Ph.D., Alice Robertson, Ph.D.

Assistant: Carrie Maud Holt, B.A.

1. The Biology of Animals.

Open to freshmen and sophomores. Freshmen four hours, all other students three hours a week for a year.

Miss Hubbard, Miss Thompson, Miss Robertson, Miss Holt.

This course is conducted by lectures and laboratory and field work.

The student becomes familiar with a series of types of invertebrates and with one vertebrate, the frog. Each animal is studied in its structure, physiology, life-history and economic importance, and in addition attention is directed to its haunts, its food, its instincts and habits and its adaptations to its surroundings. A miniature "Zoo" and aquaria, both salt- and fresh-water, in connection with the laboratory, lead to an everyday acquaintance with many forms, and each student is encouraged to maintain for observation her own private collections of living creatures. In addition, class excursions are made in connection with each group studied, in order to observe the animals in their natural environment of field or wood or stream.

* Not offered in 1906–1907.

The study of birds constitutes a considerable part of the course, beginning in the late fall and continuing throughout the year. Field excursions are supplemented by weekly lectures and by study of the large museum collection.

This course aims to train the student in accurate observation. Attention is directed continually to fundamental biological principles, special emphasis being placed on the facts of evolution.

A series of lectures on noted zoologists is given in the course of the year.

Excursions to the seashore and to neighboring museums are offered to those who desire them. These excursions are voluntary, hence no time allowance is given.

2. Zoology of Vertebrates.

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Three hours a week for the year.

Miss Willcox.

This course aims to do for the vertebrates much what course 1 does for the invertebrates. It is opened by a careful and detailed study of the dogfish as a type of the group, which is accompanied by examination of other sharks and rays, and by lectures and readings on their habits and distribution. This is followed by a similar study of the smelt or herring, and of the most important food fishes, their habits, distribution, and economic importance. This work on aquatic vertebrates is succeeded by similar studies of amphibious, aerial, and terrestrial ones. The aim throughout is both to trace the progressive modifications of the vertebrate type, together with those adaptations which fit its members for varying modes of life, and also to point out the interrelations between human life and that of the lower vertebrates. Field studies of our local vertebrates are made. Collections not only in the college but in the museums of Boston and Cambridge
Courses of Instruction

Courses of Instruction are examined. Students must be able to arrange to use from four to six Mondays for excursions or for consecutive laboratory work. The course also includes a few lectures on such topics of general interest as embryological development, geographical distribution, etc.

Courses 1 and 2 together will meet the requirement in Biology of the Johns Hopkins Medical School.

Open to juniors and seniors who have taken or are taking course 2. Three hours a week for the second semester.

Miss Thompson.

The chick in its different phases of development forms the basis of this course. In addition to this, other vertebrates, such as the frog, the salamander, the fish and the pig are used, in order that a comparative idea of the developmental processes may be gained. The laboratory work enables the student to make observations at first hand from prepared specimens, and the museum collection is freely used.

Practical work in technique, or the making of preparations, is required of each student. The lectures deal with the chief problems of development and heredity, and give the students an insight into the original work of the day.

Open to students who have taken course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Willcox.

In this course the student may learn where and how to collect and identify the commoner animals, more particularly the invertebrates. The time will be spent largely on the fresh water fauna, insects, and other land animals. Attention will be paid to habits, food preferences, etc., also to the compilation of brief reference lists for the widely scattered literature. Excursions will be made to the sea and to the rich museums of Cambridge and Boston.

About four Mondays should be available for such work.

This course has been devised to meet the case of students who, intending to teach Zoölogy in the secondary or lower schools, need especially some slight acquaintance with many different animals, and a familiarity with the literature which will make it possible for them to look up new forms.

N. B.—Course 5 will not be offered in 1907-1908, but will be offered again in the following year.

* † 6. Philosophical Zoology.

Open, with the advice of the head of the department, to students who have taken course 2 and one other course.
Three hours a week for the year.

Miss Willcox.

This course deals with the theoretical problems of biology. It includes lectures on evolution, variation, and heredity, the discussion of these and related facts, and the current biological theories.

Open to juniors and seniors who have completed course 1 or course 2. Three hours a week for the first semester.

Miss Thompson.

This course deals with the structure, and to a certain extent with the functions, of animal cells and tissues.
The work is largely comparative, and illustrations are taken from many classes of animals, both vertebrates and invertebrates. The laboratory work includes both the study of mounted preparations, or "slides," and a training in the methods of making such preparations, a certain number of which will be required from each student. The lectures are upon the historical and theoretical aspects of the cell, the structure, and the evolution of the different tissues.

* Not offered in 1906-1907.
† Courses 5 and 6 are alternate courses.
10. Animal Physiology.

Open to students who have completed course 1 or course 2. Three hours a week for a year.

Miss Robertson.

Lectures and laboratory work dealing with experimental and theoretical questions in physiology, such as the structure and action of muscle, nerves, blood vessels, the heart, blood, the formation and action of digestive juices, excretion, metabolism, the special sense organs, the brain, etc. Each student arranges and uses the apparatus necessary for almost all experiments; but some of the more difficult are performed by the instructor, assisted in turn by the different members of the class.
COLLEGE EXAMINATIONS

An examination period occurs at the end of each semester. At these periods, and also during the days of the admission examinations in September, examinations for the removal of conditions and deficiencies and for advanced standing may be taken.

A student who wishes to take an examination upon a course which is not a part of her approved schedule for the year, must apply to the Dean for the requisite card of admission to the examination. The last day for receiving applications for such cards is for the September examinations, September first; for the mid-year examinations, January fifteenth; for the June examinations, June first.

N. B. Examinations for the removal of conditions and deficiencies excepted, no student can be admitted to examination upon a course which is not a part of her approved schedule for the year without permission both from the head of the department concerned and the Dean of the College. No student, therefore, should enter upon preparation for such an examination until her plan has been approved by both of the above named officers.

The College reserves the right to require the withdrawal of students whose scholarship is not satisfactory.

DEGREES

The following degrees are conferred by the Trustees upon recommendation of the Academic Council:—

Bachelor of Arts.
Master of Arts.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE B.A. DEGREE

Every candidate for the B.A. degree must complete before graduation the equivalent of fifty-seven one-hour courses.* Since 1896, two grades in work which reaches the passing

* A one-hour course is a course given once a week for one year.
mark have been distinguished: one, "Passed"; the other, "Passed with Credit." In order to be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, a student must have "passed with credit" in at least thirty-three hours, of which nine hours have been accomplished in the senior year. First-year French and first-year German may not both be counted among the fifty-seven hours. Neither first-year French nor first-year German may be so counted if taken after the sophomore year, and neither second-year French nor second-year German if taken after the junior year. Of the fifty-seven hours required for the B.A. degree, a certain number is prescribed, the rest elective.

I. Prescribed. Courses in the following subjects are required as specified:—

Mathematics, one full course †; Philosophy, one full course; Physiology and Hygiene, one one-hour course *; Biblical History, the equivalent of four one-hour courses; English, the equivalent of four one-hour courses; Language, one full course; Natural Sciences, two full courses. The science courses must be in different departments. If a student offers science for admission, only one full course of natural science is required in college.

Of the required subjects, Mathematics must be taken in the freshman year; Physiology and Hygiene in the freshman year; Biblical History two hours per week in the sophomore and the junior years; English two hours per week in the freshman and the sophomore years. Of the natural sciences, one must be taken before the junior year, the other may be elected at any time during the course; language may be taken in any year, but either a language or a science must be taken in the freshman year. Philosophy should ordinarily be taken before the senior year.

II. Elective. All of the fifty-seven hours not indicated in the above are elective, subject only to the restriction that the equivalent of eighteen one-hour courses must be taken in one of the following ways:—

* A one-hour course is a course given once a week for one year.

(a) Nine in each of two subjects, related or unrelated.
(b) Nine in one subject, with nine divided between two tributary subjects.
(c) Twelve in one subject, with six in a tributary subject.
(d) Twelve in one subject, with six divided between two tributary subjects.

N. B. In meeting this requirement not less than one full course may be offered in any subject.

In general, prescribed subjects may be counted in making up these eighteen hours; but course 1 in French, course 1 in German, and course 13 in Greek may not be so counted.

Except by special permission, a student may not take fewer than ten or more than fifteen hours per week in any one year.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE M.A. DEGREE

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts must be graduates of Wellesley College, or of some other institution of satisfactory standing, and must give evidence of ability to carry on the work for the Master's degree.

The amount of work required of candidates for the Master's degree consists of the equivalent of from nine to twelve one-hour courses chosen from the courses described in the Circular of Graduate Instruction, and in addition either a thesis or a report or reports on one or more pieces of independent work. The student should choose one major subject, and not more than one minor subject, which should be related to the major; or she may, if she prefers, do all her work in one subject. A candidate for the Master's degree is required to show such a reading knowledge of French and of German as is satisfactory to the department in which the major subject is taken.

One year is the shortest time in which a candidate can complete the work required, but it must be understood that only students of ability and maturity will be able to finish it in so short a time.

The work for the degree of Master of Arts will be tested by either examination or thesis, or by both. Rules regarding examinations of resident students are fully stated in the graduate circular. Non-resident students will be examined in Wellesley during some one of the regular examination periods of the year in which the degree is to be conferred.

Thirty scholarships, as described on page 144, are open to accepted candidates for the Master's degree not residing in college buildings. Applications for these scholarships should be accompanied by records of standing, and, if possible, by papers or reports of work. Candidates residing in the college buildings will pay the full charge for board and tuition. A matriculation fee of five dollars is payable when a student is accepted as a candidate for the Master's degree; for a graduate student without a scholarship it will be deducted from the first tuition fee; for a graduate student with a scholarship it will be deducted from the diploma fee. The diploma fee of twenty-five dollars is payable when the degree is received.

Graduate students who have done the entire work for the Master's degree in non-residence are accepted as candidates for this degree only when this work has been done at some institution which does not grant the Master's degree to women, but they may under certain conditions do a portion of the work at any approved institution, including those which grant the Master's degree to women, provided that the remainder is done at Wellesley. Preparation for the degree by private study is not permitted. The diploma fee is the same for resident and for non-resident students.

Circulars containing fuller information concerning graduate work will be forwarded on application to the Dean of the College. It is important that applications for admission as graduate students be received by June 1st of the year in which the student wishes to enter.
EXPENSES

TUITION

The charge for tuition to all students, whether living in college buildings or not, is $175 a year. Tuition is payable in advance and is not subject to return or deduction.

Students who are permitted to take seven hours or less of classroom work a week, and who do not live in college buildings, pay tuition by the course as follows: for a one-hour course, $20; a two-hour course, $40; a three-hour course, $60. Payment is due at the beginning of the year. No charge is made for tuition in Biblical History.

TUITION AND OTHER CHARGES IN DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

For instruction for the college year in Pianoforte, Organ, or Violin, two lessons a week . . $100 00

   Special arrangements may be made for lessons on instruments not mentioned above.
   Tuition in music must always be paid in advance and is not subject to return or deduction.

BOARD

The charge for board to students living in the dormitories belonging to the College is as follows: (a) to students who were in attendance during 1904-1905 and who entered pre- vious to September, 1904, $225 a year; (b) to all students who entered in September, 1904, or thereafter, $275 a year.

It will be seen from the above statements that the total annual charge (for both board and tuition) is to students in the first case (a), $400; to students in the second case (b), $450.

FIXED TIMES AND AMOUNTS OF PAYMENTS

1. For students who are lodged in college buildings.

   (a) Students who are lodged in college buildings and who are charged for board at the rate of $225 a year (see preceding paragraph headed "Board") make payments as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Payment</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>September (at the opening of college)</td>
<td>$250</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>February (at the beginning of the second semester)</td>
<td>150</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

   Total of these payments for the year (a) $400

   (b) Students who are lodged in college buildings and who are charged for board at the rate of $275 a year (see preceding paragraph headed "Board") make payments as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Payment</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>September (at the opening of college)</td>
<td>$250</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>February (at the beginning of the second semester)</td>
<td>200</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

   Total of these payments for the year (b) $450

   The charge for board begins at the opening of dormitories, i.e., twenty-four hours before the close of registration (see page 5), and students are not permitted to occupy rooms in dormitories before that time.

2. For students who are not lodged in college buildings.

   Students who are not lodged in college buildings make the whole tuition payment ($175) at the time of the opening in September.

   These students find rooms and board in the village of Wellesley. Payment is made to the head of the house at such rates and times as the parties to the contract may agree upon. Information regarding boarding places may be obtained by addressing the Registrar.

Payments must be made before the student can take her place in the class room. No exception will be made to this rule without a written permission from the Treasurer.

Checks or money orders should be made payable to Wellesley College.

FEES

An application fee of $10 is required from all candidates for admission, and no application is recorded until the fee is received (see page 141). The same fee is required from all students in college who are intending to return for the following year, and from all former students who apply for re-admission. If the student enters college, the amount of the application fee is deducted from the first tuition bill after entrance. If formal notice of withdrawal is received at the Dean's office before August 15th of the year for which the application is made, the fee will be refunded. In all other cases it is forfeited to the College. A student who postpones entrance until the year following the one for which she first applied may transfer her application fee. But a fee so transferred will not be refunded if the student later decides to withdraw, unless the request for the transfer was received within the specified time. Requests for second transfers are sometimes granted, but a fee transferred a second time will not be refunded under any circumstances.

An additional charge is made for materials and the use of apparatus in the following laboratory courses: $5 for each laboratory course in Botany, Chemistry, Physics, Zoology, or Astronomy; $2.50 for the course in Mineralogy; $5 each for courses 9 and 10 in Musical Theory, $2.50 each for the half courses 11 and 12; $2 each for the studio courses in Art, and $1 each for all other Art courses. Every student should also reckon on the expenditure of $10 to $25 annually for the purchase of books. At the time of taking the degree a diploma fee is charged. This is $5 for the B.A. degree, and $25 for the M.A. degree. At the time of taking a certificate, a certificate fee of $3 is due.

RESIDENCE

College Hall, with three dining rooms, accommodates two hundred and thirty persons; Stone Hall, with four dining rooms, one hundred and eight; Pomeroy, seventy-seven; Cazenove, seventy-seven; Wilder, fifty-two; Freeman, forty-nine; Wood, forty-nine; Norumbega, forty-six; Eliot, twenty-nine; Simpson, twenty-two; Fiske, thirty-six. All the rooms are furnished, and supplied with electric lights.

A student vacating a room before the close of the year, or relinquishing a room reserved for her at the beginning of the year, will be charged for board until the vacancy has been filled by an incoming student. Therefore, notice of an intention to withdraw should be given at the earliest possible moment. No deduction is made for absences during the year.

All applications for rooms in college buildings take the date at which the application fee is received. (See page 140.)

Until May 1st, but not after that date, applications from former students will take precedence of those of new students in the matter of rooms. A limited number of students can arrange for board at the College during the Christmas and spring vacations.

No student can receive a diploma until a satisfactory settlement of all her college dues has been made.

HEALTH

The health of the students is under the charge of the resident Health Officer and the College Physician. These two officers, with the Director of Physical Training, the Director of Halls of Residence, and the President and the Dean of the College, constitute a Board of Health to which all matters affecting the health of students are referred. Two hospital wards, with the constant attendance of two trained nurses, are maintained in College Hall. There is also an emergency ward in an isolated building. No charge is made for the ordinary services of the Health Officer, College Physician, or resident nurse.

FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

A. FOR GRADUATES

The Alice Freeman Palmer Fellowship, yielding an income of about $1,000, was founded in 1903, by Mrs. David P. Kimball.

The holder of this Fellowship must be a graduate of Wellesley College or some other American College of approved standing, a young woman of good health, not more than twenty-six years of age at the time of her appointment, unmarried throughout the whole of her tenure, and as free as possible from other responsibilities. The same person will not be eligible to the Fellowship for more than two years.

The Fellowship may be used for study abroad, for study at any American college or university, or privately for independent research. But several times during the period of tenure evidence must be furnished that the fellowship is used for purposes of serious study and not for general culture.

Applications for this Fellowship should be received by the President of Wellesley College not later than February 1, of the academic year preceding that for which the Fellowship is asked.

Scholarships in Schools of Classical Study.—Studentships in the American School of Classical Studies in Athens, and the American School of Classical Studies in Rome, are open to graduates and graduate students of Wellesley College under the regulations stated below.

The object of these schools is to afford opportunity for the study of classical literature, art and antiquities, to aid in original research in these subjects, and to conduct the exploration and excavation of classical sites.
The American School of Classical Studies in Athens.—The school year extends from October 1st to June 1st. The regulations for admission are as follows: "Bachelors of Arts of co-operating colleges, and all Bachelors of Arts who have studied at one of these colleges as candidates for a higher degree, shall be admitted to membership in the School on presenting to the Committee a certificate from the classical department of the college at which they have last studied, stating that they are competent to pursue an independent course of study at Athens under the advice of the Director. Members of the School are subject to no charge for tuition."* Further information can be had by application to Professor Chapin, who represents Wellesley College upon the Managing Committee of the School.

The American School of Classical Studies in Rome.—The school year extends from the fifteenth of October to the first of July. The regulations for admission are as follows: "Graduates in arts of American colleges and universities of good standing, and under exceptional circumstances other persons of marked qualifications, may be admitted as students of the School on submitting to the Chairman of the Managing Committee, or to the Director of the School, satisfactory evidence that their previous studies have been of such a character as to fit them to profit by the opportunities that the School offers."* Further information can be had by application to Professor Hawes, who represents Wellesley College upon the managing Committee of the School.

Scholarships in the Marine Biological Laboratory at Wood's Holl.—Wellesley College is entitled to appoint annually two students who may enjoy all the advantages of this Laboratory without expense for tuition. This Laboratory, which is open during the summer for the study of marine life, affords opportunities both to investigators and to persons needing either instruction or direction.

Students in either Botany or Zoology who desire to undertake original work will receive suitable direction. In addition to these opportunities there are courses of lectures on special topics and on subjects of general biological interest. Applications for appointment should state the character of the work to be done,—i. e., whether botanical or zoological, whether general work, investigation under direction, or independent investigation,—and should be forwarded to Professor Ferguson or Professor Willcox in time to reach Wellesley College before April 1st.

*A few Fellowships of $600 each and one of $1,000 are awarded on competitive examination.

Scholarships at the Zoological Station in Naples.—Wellesley College is a subscriber to the support of the American Women's Table at the Zoological Station in Naples, and thus has a voice in the selection of the persons who make use of it. Such persons must be capable of independent investigation in Botany, Zoology, or Physiology. Appointments are made for a longer or shorter period, as seems in each case expedient. Applications for the use of the table may be made through the President of the College.

Thirty Scholarships to the value of $175 a year have been established for the benefit of approved candidates for the M.A. degree in residence at Wellesley. Applications for these scholarships should be addressed to the Dean of the College, Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.

B. FOR UNDERGRADUATES

The income of these scholarships is applied to the aid of meritorious students whose personal means are insufficient for their maintenance in college.

The Wood Memorial Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1878, by Caroline A. Wood, in memory of her husband.

The Grover Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1878, by William O. Grover.

The Weston Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1878, by David M. Weston.

The Northfield Seminary Scholarship, founded in 1878.

The Pauline A. Durant Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1880, by Mr. and Mrs. Durant.
The Sweatman Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1880, by V. C. Sweatman.

The Walter Baker Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1880, by Eleanor J. W. Baker; raised to $7,000 by will of Mrs. Baker in 1892.

The Annie M. Wood Scholarship, founded in 1880, by Frank Wood.

Two Frost Scholarships, founded in 1880, by Rufus S. Frost, as follows:—

One of $1,000, the income to be given annually to some member of the graduating class designated by the Faculty.

One of $5,000, the income to be devoted annually to the aid of students.

The Union Church Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1880, by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stetson.

The Florence N. Brown Memorial Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1880, by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel N. Brown, Jr.

The Augustus R. Clark Memorial Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1880, by Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Clark.

Four Harriet Fowle Scholarships, founded in 1881, by Henry Fowle Durant, in memory of his mother.

The Durant Memorial Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1883, by the officers and students of Wellesley College, in honor of Henry F. Durant, the income to be appropriated annually to some student selected by the Faculty.

The Jane Topliff Memorial Scholarship of $6,000, founded in 1883, by Mrs. William S. Houghton, in memory of her mother.

The income of a fund of $25,000, known as the “Stone Educational Fund,” founded in 1884, by Valeria G. Stone.
The Jeannie L. White Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1886, by herself.

The Mr. and Mrs. Solomon F. Smith Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1888, by George Smith, for the tuition of students from the town of Wellesley.

The Margaret McClung Cowan Fund, of $1,000, founded in 1888, by Rev. and Mrs. P. D. Cowan, in memory of their daughter.

The Emmelar Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1889, by the class of '91, the income to be appropriated annually to some student selected by the Faculty.

The Sarah J. Houghton Scholarship of $6,000, founded in 1889, by William S. Houghton, in memory of his wife.

The Provision of E. A. Goodnow, in 1885, through which the sum of $250 is annually divided among five deserving students.

The Edith Baker Memorial Scholarship of $7,000, founded by bequest of Eleanor J. W. Baker, in 1892.

The Joseph N. Fiske Memorial Scholarship of $8,000, founded in 1892, by Mrs. J. N. Fiske.

The Abbie A. Coburn Memorial Scholarship of $2,000, founded in 1892.

The Eliza C. Jewett Scholarship of $6,000, founded in 1894; the income to be appropriated to the daughter of a clergyman, or of a home or foreign missionary, selected by the Faculty of the College.

The Ada L. Howard Scholarship of $6,000, founded in 1895.

The Helen Day Gould Scholarship, founded in 1896, by Helen Miller Gould, in memory of her mother; raised to $10,000 by Miss Gould in 1901.
The Goodwin Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1897, by Hannah B. Goodwin.

The Hyde Scholarship of $2,000, founded in 1898, by Sarah B. Hyde.

The Bill Scholarship of $7,000, founded in 1898, by Charles Bill.

The Holbrook Scholarship of $3,000, founded in 1898, by Sarah J. Holbrook.

The (second) Helen Day Gould Scholarship, founded in 1899, by Helen Miller Gould; raised to $10,000 by Miss Gould in 1901.

The Mary Elizabeth Gere Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1899, by Mary Elizabeth Gere.

The Ann Morton Towle Memorial Scholarship Fund of $5,000, established in 1901, by bequest of George Francis Towle.

The Dana Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1901, through the gift of Charles B. Dana.

The (third) Helen Day Gould Scholarship of $10,000, founded in 1901, by Helen Miller Gould.

The George William Towle Memorial Scholarship Fund, founded in 1901, by bequest of George Francis Towle.

The Anna Palen Scholarship of $10,000, founded in 1902.

The Rollins Scholarship of $8,000, founded in 1903, by Augusta and Hannah H. Rollins, in memory of their parents.

The Memorial Scholarship of $1,000, founded in 1904, by the class of 1889, in memory of classmates who have died.

The Elizabeth S. Fiske Scholarship of $5,000, founded in 1904, by bequest of Miss Fiske.
The Mae McElwain Rice Memorial Scholarship of $1,000, founded in 1905, by the class of 1902.

The Sanborn Alumnae Scholarship, yielding $450 annually, founded in 1905 by Helen J. Sanborn of the class of 1884, for the benefit of daughters of Alumnae.

Another source of pecuniary aid is in the work of the Students' Aid Society. Small amounts are loaned to students without interest, in the expectation that whenever they are able, these students will repay the Society. Assistance is often given partly in gifts and partly in loans. The funds at the disposal of the Society are wholly insufficient to meet the wants of applicants. Contributions of any amount will be gladly received, and should be sent to the Treasurer of the Society, Mrs. Pauline A. Durant, Wellesley, Mass.

All applications for assistance should be made by letter, addressed to the Secretary of the Students' Aid Society, Wellesley, Mass., before the first of May preceding the college year for which the aid is needed. It should be noted that owing to inadequacy of funds, aid cannot be promised in advance to students who have not entered.

In two cottages a reduction is allowed on payment for board, under certain conditions.

Library

The Library of the College, endowed by Eben Norton Horsford, now numbers 60,105 volumes, including the Departmental and Special Libraries enumerated below. The General Library is open on week days from 8 A.M. to 9.30 P.M., and on Sundays from 9 to 11 A.M. and from 2 to 6 P.M. Students have direct access to the shelves. The library is catalogued by author and subject entries, and the most recent and useful bibliographical aids are provided; special effort is made by the librarians to train students in methods of research.
The Library subscribes for five daily and three weekly papers and for one hundred and sixty American and foreign periodicals. The list includes the most important representatives of the branches of instruction comprised in the college curriculum.

The Gertrude Memorial Library, established by Mr. A. A. Sweet, the Missionary Library, and other collections in the General Library, furnish 4,796 volumes for Biblical study and religious reading.

The Library of American Linguistics, a special gift from Mr. Horsford, numbering 1,420 works, comprises the valuable collections of Major J. W. Powell and Mr. Horsford relating to North American Indian languages.

The Plimpton Library, established by Mr. George A. Plimpton in memory of his wife, Frances Pearsons Plimpton, of the class of 1884, comprises 752 volumes of early Italian literature, including both manuscripts and printed books of the fifteenth century.

The Music Library, in Billings Hall, includes a collection of manuscripts and musical scores, besides books on music.

The following collections are placed in the laboratories of the respective departments:

Art Library, 1,915 volumes.
Library of Botany, 2,109 volumes.
Library of Physics and Astronomy, 2,632 volumes.
Library of Zoology and Physiology, 2,093 volumes.
Library of Chemistry, 1,269 volumes.

GYMNASIUM

The Gymnasium is equipped with apparatus for Swedish gymnastics. The outdoor equipment includes the lake for rowing and skating; a bath-house and boat-house; the east and west playgrounds, and grass and clay tennis courts; and a golf course with club-house.
THE FARNSWORTH ART BUILDING AND ART COLLECTIONS

The Farnsworth Art Building, the gift of the late Isaac D. Farnsworth, was opened in September, 1889. Besides a lecture room, galleries for collections, and studios for those engaged in drawing and painting, a special feature is the arrangement of laboratories and libraries, so that the books and art material relating to particular subjects and periods can be made immediately available to general students.

The Art Collection consists of a large number of photographs and other material, including among others original pieces of antique sculpture from the Day Kimball Fund; the James Jackson Jarves collection of laces and vestments; a collection of Indian baskets, the gift of Mrs. Rufus S. Frost, and the Stetson collection of modern paintings. Two examples of early Italian painting have recently been acquired.

Over six thousand photographs have been added to the art collections during the past six years.

EQUIPMENT IN MUSIC

Music Hall and Billings Hall are large brick buildings devoted entirely to the department of Music. Music Hall has an adequate equipment of instruments for students' use, a room for choral practice, and thirty-eight practice rooms of good size. Organ instruction is given not only on the older type of organ, but also on two large, three-manual electric organs embodying the latest principles of organ construction. Constant reference will be made to the use of the organ in church.

Billings Hall, built in 1904, contains the offices of the department of Music, the library and class rooms for instruction in Musical Theory; also a concert room seating four hundred and twenty-five people, and containing the Grover organ, a large, three-manual organ, rebuilt and modernized.
LABORATORIES AND SCIENTIFIC COLLECTIONS

ASTRONOMY

The Whitin Observatory is supplied with a twelve-inch refracting telescope with micrometer, spectroscope, and photometer attachments; a six-inch telescope, also with driving clock and micrometer; two transits, the larger a three-inch prismatic transit; a chronograph, two sidereal clocks and a Bond chronometer; a concave grating spectroscope, and a collection of minor instruments and photographs.

Meteorological instruments, including thermometer shelter, thermograph, barograph, anemometer, and anemoscope, are installed at the observatory.

BOTANY

For the use of students in morphological, histological, and physiological work there are four laboratories, each of which is thoroughly equipped for its special purpose. The laboratory for advanced work has also the necessary physical and chemical apparatus, and such other appliances as are requisite to enable students to carry on independent research.

The collections illustrative of botany include the herbarium, containing upward of eight thousand phanerogams and about seven thousand and five hundred cryptogams; a generic collection mounted under glass; a collection of woods, fruits, and economic vegetable products, and a set of drugs fully illustrating the pharmacopoeia; two hundred charts by Henslow, Kny, Dodel, Tschirch, and others; a collection of Auzoux’s botanical models, illustrating the structure of both flowering and flowerless plants; Brendel’s glass models of cryptogams; a collection of lantern slides.

In addition to the working collections a permanent museum is being arranged, which now numbers more than five thousand specimens.
CHEMISTRY

The department of Chemistry occupies a separate building, which contains two lecture rooms and the chemical library in addition to the rooms fitted up for laboratory work. Separate rooms are provided for work in General and Organic Chemistry, Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis, Air and Water Analysis, and Food Analysis. The building is conveniently arranged and well equipped with necessary apparatus and appliances.

GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY

The geological collection of specimens is arranged to illustrate the subjects of historical and structural geology, lithology, and mineralogy. There are three collections well equipped for class room use one each in mineralogy, lithology, and palæontology. They consist of well selected specimens systematically arranged in sets of trays.

The specimens are carefully numbered, but without labels. During a class appointment in these subjects, each student has a tray which presents objectively the subject of the lesson.

Another collection is used for reference in mineralogy. It contains well characterized specimens of the more common species. The specimens are labeled and arranged in drawers, and the collection is always accessible to students taking mineralogy.

The laboratory containing these collections is supplied with tables equipped with appliances for blow-pipe analysis and other laboratory work.

MATHEMATICS

The collection of mathematical models consists of a set of models of simple solids, surfaces of the second and higher orders, and circular sections of surfaces of the second order. They are executed in wood, thread, card, and plaster.
PHYSICS

The department of Physics occupies a convenient lecture room, provided with arrangements for sunlight and lantern projection and adequate apparatus for illustrative experiments. Laboratories for students are equipped with instruments adapted to a wide range of work. Rooms are especially fitted for photometry, photography, spectroscopic work, and electrical measurements. A workshop is provided with lathe and tools. Storage batteries and dynamos are connected with the laboratories.

PSYCHOLOGY

The work of the laboratory is carried on in seven rooms (including a dark-room) with electrical connections. The equipment includes electric-motor color mixers, a campimeter, a Wheatstone stereoscope, the Hering simultaneous contrast apparatus, sonometers, König tuning-forks, Quincke's tubes, Galton's piston whistle, Zwaardemaker's clinical and fluid-mantle olfactometers, with a large collection of smell material, æsthesiometers, a pressure balance, the apparatus of Münsterberg and of Titchener for the localization of sound, Jastrow's memory apparatus, vernier chronoscopes, a pneumograph, a plethysmograph, sphygmographs of different forms, a finger-dynamometer, an automatograph, tambours, kymographs, electric motors, an electric tuning-fork, Lough's electrically actuated pendulum, Mälzel's mercury contact metronome, etc., besides apparatus for special investigations. Students have the use of models of the brain, eye, and ear.

ZOOLOGY

There are four laboratories for the study of Zoology and Animal Physiology. Each is adequately equipped for its special purpose. A complete set of physiological apparatus from the Harvard Apparatus Company is provided for each student in the physiology course.

The Zoology Museum contains a typical collection of both vertebrates and invertebrates, and a considerable number of models by Ziegler, Blaschka, Auzoux, and Deyrolle. There are also excellent collections of birds and of insects, and a small one of fishes prepared by Denton.
NEEDS OF THE COLLEGE

Wellesley College, established by private benevolence, entered upon its work with a costly material equipment, but with no endowment in money.

The endowment of the library by Mr. E. N. Horsford, the later contributions of Mr. Rockefeller and others to general and special endowment, have greatly relieved the burden resting upon the College. Yet to-day the receipts from board and tuition fees form the main resource with which to meet running expenses and annual repairs, and to make those additions to apparatus and buildings which are demanded by the constant advance and expansion of college instruction throughout the country.

It must be evident that the past outlay has been amply justified by results. Notwithstanding the peculiar dependence of the College upon the number of students admitted and retained, its whole existence has been attended by a constant rise in the academic standard. From Wellesley have been graduated nearly twenty-nine hundred young women, who have carried the fruits of their college training into the schools and households of their country, and into benevolent work at home and abroad. It is believed that the College can with full confidence appeal to the public at large for further aid.

Among the urgent needs of the College are the following:—

1. Unrestricted funds for defraying general expenses.
2. A library building.
3. A science building.
4. A gymnasium building.
5. The endowment of the presidency and professorships.
FORMS OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to Wellesley College, a corporation established by law, in the town of Wellesley, county of Norfolk, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of——dollars, to be safely invested by it, and called the——Endowment Fund. The interest shall be applied to the payment of the salaries of teachers in Wellesley College, as the Trustees shall deem expedient.

I give and bequeath to Wellesley College, a corporation established by law, in the town of Wellesley, county of Norfolk, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of——dollars, to be appropriated by the Trustees for the benefit of the College in such manner as they shall think will be most useful.

I give and bequeath to Wellesley College, a corporation established by law, in the town of Wellesley, county of Norfolk, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of——dollars, to be safely invested by it, and called the——Scholarship Fund. The interest of this fund shall be applied to aid deserving students in Wellesley College.

HONOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Honor Scholarships (without stipend) have been established by the College for the purpose of giving recognition to a high degree of excellence in academic work. These honors fall into two classes: students in the first, or higher class, are termed Durant Scholars; students in the second class are termed Wellesley College Scholars.

These honors are awarded to seniors on the basis of two and one-half years' work, to juniors on the basis of one and one-half years' work. The standard in each case is absolute, not competitive.
