Mommy darling,

Another early morning letter, because last night was float and we didn't get back till late. And what do you think? Thelma won the individual cup given to the best all-round oarsman. Isn't that wonderful? I was so tickled I didn't know what to do. It was all so pretty, the crews formed a W and then there was a pageant of canoes. They represented all different kinds of fairies, snow fairies, etc.
white and the boat covered in woolly white stuff, the water lily fairies, one of the girls sat in some white, a fairy that looked exactly like a lily, the rose fairies, and many others - 23 in all. Most of them were trimmed with Japanese lanterns, and is surely made a pretty sight. A band played and thousands of people were all along the shore.

Mrs. Lauton has arrived so I slept in one of the other girls rooms last night. Ours is sort of a mix. It's near time for the postman, so goodbye, dear Mommy.
